translator more visible Concentrating on major writers and works it covers translations out of many languages from Greek to Hungarian Korean to Turkish For some works e g Virgil s Aeneid which have been much translated the discussion is historical and critical showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions Elsewhere with less familiar literatures the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available Turn It Again Sheila Delany, 2007-05-01 Originally published as a special issue of Exemplaria these essays deserve a much wider audience They deal with Jewish studies and the medieval historian rabbinic ecclesiology and the synods of Nicaea and Yavneh Jewish women martyrs sexual politics and marriage late medieval Castile nation and miscegenation cultural hybridity and Kabbalistic anthropology The authors are widely published scholars and critics in various fields of Jewish studies The volume will be valuable to many scholars teachers and students The essays open up so many interesting avenues of inquiry that they will enlighten and challenge not only specialists in Jewish studies but also scholars critics students and teachers of medieval literature and Jewish literature medieval history and culture women s studies and religious studies Westward Ho! Charles Kingsley, 1878 A Compendious History of English Literature, and of the English Language, from the Norman Conquest George Lillie Craik, 1864 English Prose Sir Henry Craik, 1894 This collection shows the growth and development of English prose by extracts from the principal and most characteristic writers Veronica Franco in Dialogue Marilyn Migiel, 2022-03-31 Since the late twentieth century the Venetian courtesan Veronica Franco has been viewed as a triumphant proto feminist icon a woman who celebrated her sexuality an outspoken champion of women and their worth and an important intellectual and cultural presence in sixteenth century Venice In Veronica Franco in Dialogue Marilyn Migiel provides a nuanced account of Franco s rhetorical strategies through a close analysis of her literary work Focusing on the first fourteen poems in the Terze rime a collection of Franco s poems published in 1575 Migiel looks specifically at back and forth exchanges between Franco and an unknown male author Migiel argues that in order to better understand what Franco is doing in the poetic collection it is essential to understand how she constructs her identity as author lover and sex worker in relation to this unknown male author Veronica Franco in Dialogue accounts for the moments of ambivalence uncertainty and indirectness in Franco s poetry as well as the polemicism and assertions of triumph In doing so it asks readers to consider their ideological investments in the stories we tell about early modern female authors and their cultural production Incubation as a Type-Scene in the Aqhatu, Kirta, and Hannah Stories Koowon Kim, 2011-05-10 Prior studies of incubation have approached it from a history of religions perspective with a view to historically reconstruct the actual practice of incubation in ancient Near East However this approach has proven unfruitful not due to the dearth of relevant data but because of the confusion with regard to the definition of the term incubation Suggesting a way out of this impasse in previous scholarship this book proposes to read the so called incubation texts from the perspective of incubation as a literary device namely as a type scene It applies Nagler s definition of a type scene to a literary analysis of two Ugaritic mythical texts the Aqhatu and Kirta stories and one biblical story the Hannah story
