Turning Forty English Edition:

Discontents in Translation Jorge Almeida e Pinho, 2025-03-28 This collection of essays aims to contribute to ongoing debates in Translation Studies with a particular but not exclusive focus on literary translation. It extends this concern into areas that have enjoyed a renewed attention showcasing and discussing the impact of such processes mostly on literature and it will enable and simultaneously contest the literary canon, gender and genres, text types with their own discriminations and hierarchies, the connection between translation and discourse, the institutional and scholarly dynamics of academic power, or even some key concepts in Translation Studies. The canon is inclusive and accepts, welcomes and embraces new authors and ideas especially if they are founded upon the resources of rewriting and translation. The transcendence of any work surpasses time and borders as long as it relies on the willingness to accept the other and their diverse forms of expression.

Global Healing Karen Laura Thornber, 2020-03-02 Read an interview with Karen Thornber. In Global Healing Literature Advocacy Care, Karen Laura Thornber analyzes how narratives from diverse communities globally engage with a broad variety of diseases and other serious health conditions and advocate for empathic, compassionate and respectful care that facilitates healing and enables wellbeing. The three parts of this book discuss writings from Africa, the Americas, Asia, Europe, the Middle East and Oceania that implore societies to shatter the devastating social stigmas which prevent billions from accessing effective care, to increase the availability of quality person-focused healthcare and to prioritize partnerships that facilitate healing and enable wellbeing for both patients and loved ones. Thornber's Global Healing remaps the contours of comparative literature, world literature, the medical humanities and the health humanities. Watch a video interview with Thornber by the Mahindra Humanities Center, part of their conversations on Covid-19. Read an interview with Thornber on Brill's Humanities Matter blog.

It also devotes attention to other canonical writers such as Jonathan Swift, Henry Fielding and Christopher Smart.
