Slave Labor The New Story Of American Higher Education

Laurie E. Adkin

Slave Labor The New Story Of American Higher Education:

Activist Rhetorics and American Higher Education, 1885-1937 Susan Kates, 2001 In this study of the history of rhetoric education Susan Kates focuses on the writing and speaking instruction developed at three academic institutions founded to serve three groups of students most often excluded from traditional institutions of higher education in late nineteenth and early twentieth century America white middle class women African Americans and members of the working class Kates provides a detailed look at the work of those students and teachers ostracized from rhetorical study at traditional colleges and universities She explores the pedagogies of educators Mary Augusta Jordan of Smith College in Northhampton Massachusetts Hallie Quinn Brown of Wilberforce University in Wilberforce Ohio and Josephine Colby Helen Norton and Louise Budenz of Brookwood Labor College in Katonah New York These teachers sought to enact forms of writing and speaking instruction incorporating social and political concerns in the very essence of their pedagogies They designed rhetoric courses characterized by three important pedagogical features a profound respect for and awareness of the relationship between language and identity and a desire to integrate this awareness into the curriculum politicized writing and speaking assignments designed to help students interrogate their marginalized standing within the larger culture in terms of their gender race or social class and an emphasis on service and social responsibility

The Christian as Imitator of Christ Francis Kofi Achampong, 2025-04-25 Two and a half billion people worldwide profess to be Christians These include people who espouse ideas about White Christianity Christian nationalism Christian libertarianism racial segregation and racial purity It also includes people who see assistance to the poor as handouts that perpetuate poverty The latter group includes people who espouse ideas about accountable individualism where people are expected to pull themselves up by their own bootstraps and become self sufficient as a sign of faith in God's grace and a perversion of crucicentrism which takes the position that it is compassionate to allow poor people to suffer because it can drive them to the cross and salvation in Christ

History of Higher Education Annual Roger Geiger,1989-01-01 The Contested Future of Higher Education

Laurie E. Adkin,2025-03-28 This book contributes to critical university studies by examining the corporatization of higher education at the University of Alberta placing this experience in a broad comparative context and drawing attention to aspects of the politics of knowledge that have often been overlooked in this genre The chapters in this collection provide a detailed account of the restructuring of higher education by successive neo liberal governments in Alberta Canada with a focus on developments at the University of Alberta since 2019 They explain how a corporate model of executive management has been imposed which disempowers faculty and students while facilitating the indirect control of post secondary institutions by right wing governments Elements of this story will be familiar to scholars of the corporatization of higher education in other contexts but the book s authors go beyond this analytical framework highlighting the colonial and fossil capitalist drivers of post secondary restructuring in the Alberta context and asking readers to consider what a university that was committed to decolonization and climate justice might look like and what obstacles must be overcome to realize such a vision They argue that these obstacles lie not only in the power relationships that shape state regulation of post secondary education but also in the weaknesses of faculty and student collective action and in the patriarchal Eurocentric and extractivist perspectives that are deeply embedded in the knowledge systems of universities situated in settler colonial states The Contested Future of Higher Education Lessons from Alberta is an invaluable resource for anyone invested in the future of education in settler colonial societies The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Review of Education Pedagogy and Cultural Studies Law and Social Justice in Higher Education Crystal Renée

Chambers,2016-11-25 The latest volume in the Core Concepts in Higher Education series explores the complexity of law in higher education and both the limits and opportunities of how law can promote inclusivity and access on campus Through a historical and legal framework this volume discusses undergraduate students histories of inclusion and struggles for social justice in higher education by race sex social class disability and sexual orientation Bridging research theory and practice Law and Social Justice in Higher Education encourages future and current higher education and student affairs practitioners to consider how they can collaborate to further a just society Special features Discussion of case law illustrates the reach and limits of law and where higher education professionals can continue to push for social justice Accessible to non lawyers chapters highlight key legal terms and key concepts to guide readers at the beginning of each chapter End of chapter questions provide prompts for discussion and encourage student interactivity Child Labor in America Chaim M.

Rosenberg,2013-07-30 At the close of the 19th century more than 2 million American children under age 16 some as young as 4 or 5 were employed on farms in mills canneries factories mines and offices or selling newspapers and fruits and vegetables on the streets The crusaders of the Progressive Era believed child labor was an evil that maimed the children exploited the poor and suppressed adult wages The child should be in school till age 16 they demanded in order to become a good citizen The battle for and against child labor was fought in the press as well as state and federal legislatures Several federal efforts to ban child labor were struck down by the Supreme Court and an attempt to amend the Constitution to ban child labor failed to gain enough support It took the Great Depression and New Deal legislation to pass the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 and receive the support of the Supreme Court This history of American child labor details the extent to which children worked in various industries the debate over health and social effects and the long battle with agricultural and industrial interests to curtail the practice

Inequality in Early America Carla Gardina Pestana, 2015-03-24 This book was designed as a collaborative effort to satisfy a long felt need to pull together many important but separate inquiries into the nature and impact of inequality in colonial and revolutionary America It also honors the scholarship of Gary Nash who has contributed much of the leading work in this field The 15 contributors who constitute a Who's Who of those who have made important discoveries and reinterpretations of this issue include Mary Beth Norton on women's legal inequality in early America Neal Salisbury on Puritan missionaries and Native Americans Laurel Thatcher Ulrich on elite and poor women's work in early Boston Peter Wood and Philip Morgan on early American slavery as well as Gary Nash himself writing on Indian white history This book is a vital contribution to American self understanding and to historical analysis

Green Space as a Foundation for Student Wellbeing in Higher Education Vanita Naidoo, 2025-06-13 This book presents a unique comparative case study that details the narrative around campus design at the first institutions of public higher education in the United States With a focus on Southern design at the turn of the 18th century it explores the use and perception of campus green space and its influence on student wellbeing and belonging using both structural and lived perspectives With attention to the post COVID 19 context the comparative analysis of two campuses The University of North Carolina UNC at Chapel Hill and the University of Georgia offers insight into how historical context location and design all influence the use of space The case studies and analysis also serve as examples of how institutions and university systems hoping to engage with design practices can promote positive learning environments that are both inclusive and supportive Each chapter addresses an experiential aspect of space linking back to the dialogue on diversity inclusion and identity In addition to considerations around diversity the book also offers a rich narrative that uncovers the links between American Education and the New Southern Republic shining a light on the role of place historical origin and socio political circumstances in shaping campus design A superb resource for scholars and postgraduates studying higher education environmental psychology and urban planning it chronicles the evolution of campus design at public institutions of higher education from a unique historical perspective Office Hours Cary Nelson, Stephen Watt, 2005-07-08 In a series of stinging analyses this book examines the current sorry state of higher education The second half of the volume offers alternative futures for the academy visions that involve academic organizations public outreach through the internet faculty unionization and campus organizing Office Hours is a roll up your sleeves look at the avoidable disaster facing the modern university Resources in Education , 1998

Encyclopedia of Emancipation and Abolition in the Transatlantic World Junius P. Rodriguez, 2015-03-26 The struggle to abolish slavery is one of the grandest quests and central themes of modern history These movements for freedom have taken many forms from individual escapes violent rebellions and official proclamations to mass organizations decisive social actions and major wars Every emancipation movement whether in Europe Africa or the Americas has profoundly transformed the country and society in which it existed This unique A Z encyclopedia examines every effort to end slavery in the United States and the transatlantic world It focuses on massive broad based movements as well as specific incidents events and developments and pulls together in one place information previously available only in a wide variety of sources While it centers on the United States the set also includes authoritative accounts of emancipation and abolition in Europe Africa the Caribbean and Latin America The Encyclopedia of Emancipation and Abolition provides definitive coverage of one of the most significant experiences in human history It features primary source documents maps illustrations cross references a comprehensive chronology and bibliography and specialized indexes in each volume and covers a wide range of individuals and the major themes and ideas that motivated them to confront and abolish slavery

Blackness, Symbolism, and American Modernism Lori Nel Johnson, 2025-04-29

In this book Lori Nel Johnson examines the work of Henry Ossawa Tanner 1859 1937 Meta Warrick Fuller 1877 1968 and F Holland Day 1864 1933 in relation to the development of modernism during the turn of the century and the official narratives surrounding this movement While Tanner and Fuller have been consistently linked in the history of American Art the Pictorialist photographer and publisher Day has rarely if ever been discussed with these two artists despite the fact that all three were rough contemporaries and affiliated with Symbolism The book compares the historical and social conditions that determined the lives and careers of these three artists which curtailed their ambitions because of the intersections of class race gender or sexuality By examining each artist s respective proximity to language on the basis of class race gender and sexuality this study avoids categorizing artists solely on the basis of difference and thus offers a more fulsome and radical reading of the development of modernism in the United States The book will be of interest to scholars of art history design history history of photography American studies and African American studies

Lethal Intersections Patricia Hill Collins, 2023-10-09 School shootings police misconduct and sexual assault where people are injured and die dominate the news What are the connections between such incidents of violence and extreme harm In this new book world renowned sociologist Patricia Hill Collins explores how violence differentially affects people according to their class sexuality nationality and ethnicity These invisible workings of overlapping power relations give rise to what she terms lethal intersections where multiple forms of oppression converge to catalyze a set of violent practices that fall more heavily on particular groups Drawing on a rich tapestry of cases Collins challenges readers to reflect on what counts as violence today and what can be done about it Resisting violence offers a common thread that weaves together disparate antiviolence projects across the world When parents of murdered children organize against gun violence when Black citizens march against the excessive use of police force in their neighborhoods and when women and girls report sexual abuse by employers coaches and community leaders the ideas and actions of ordinary people lay a foundation for new ways of thinking about and combating violence Through its ground breaking analysis Lethal Intersections aims to stimulate debate about violence as one of the most pressing social problems of our times Also available as an audiobook
