James Herbert - The Authorised True Story 1943-2013 Craig Cabell,2013-06-24 The legacy of a master of horror lives on in this fully authorized biography James Herbert was an enduringly popular author whose books sell in the hundreds of thousands across the world and are made into films He broke away from the cut and thrust populist horror novels of the 1970s and 1980s to create more thought provoking works featuring the scientific reasoning behind the manifestations of the ghosts and spirits in which he truly believed Yet despite his worldwide fan base surprisingly little is known about the man himself Before his recent death James Herbert granted his friend and confidant Craig Cabell more than a dozen exclusive candid interviews The result is an incredibly frank and revealing portrait of one of the giants of contemporary popular fiction shedding light on his personal demons that drove the boy from London's East End to become the preeminent horror writer of his generation Cabell shares personal correspondence and reminiscences including one of Herbert's previously unpublished pieces entitled To Ye All In addition to this James granted the author full

Emrys, 2014-01-10 Wilkie Collins was one of the most popular novelists during England's Victorian era While Collins scholarship has often focused on social issues this critical study explores his formal ingenuity particularly the novel of testimony constructed from epistolary fiction trial reports and prose monologue His innovations in form were later mirrored by Vera Caspary who adapted The Woman in White three times into contemporary fiction This text explores how the formal dialogue between Collins and Caspary has linked sensation fiction with noir thrillers and film noir Bringing Schools into the 21st Century Guofang Wan, Dianne M. Gut, 2011-01-15 Shift happens Emerging technologies and globalization have resulted in political social and cultural changes These changes have a profound impact on all aspects of human life including education Yet while society has changed and continues to change schools are slow to keep up This book explores issues related to transforming and modernizing our educational systems including the impact of societal shifts on education the efforts at various levels to bring schools into the 21st century the identification of 21st century skills the reformation of the curriculum the creation of alternative models of schooling the innovative use of technology in education and many others It addresses questions like the following Should schools systems adapt to better meet the needs of tomorrow s world and how should this be accomplished How can society better prepare students for a changing and challenging modern world What skills do students need to lead successful lives and become productive citizens in the 21st century How can educators create learning environments that are relevant and meaningful for digital natives How can the school curriculum be made more rigorous to meet the needs of the 21st century This book encourages readers to transcend the limits of their own educational experience to think beyond familiar notions of schooling instruction and curriculum to consider how to best structure learning so that it will benefit future generations It encourages a deeper analysis of the existing education system and offers practical insights into future directions focused on preparing students with 21st century skills Fiction on the Page in Nineteenth-Century Magazines Maria Damkjær, 2024-11-25 What makes fiction recognizable as fiction Texts are shaped by their material print but this book argues that they can also be made in response to it that the needs of the magazine in the nineteenth century spurred writers to create hybrid entangled texts Using book history genre theory and literary close reading this book argues that narrative fiction in the nineteenth century popular periodical was a malleable substance By looking at typography and the attempts to squeeze in too much text or stretch out too little text the book asks what the relationship was between the page that needed filling and the short story that tried to fill it In the messy hybrids and outliers we explore what fiction might have become The book works with magazines like the Englishwoman's Domestic Magazine first series 1852 59 the Family Herald 1842 1945 the Home Circle 1849 54 and authors like Elizabeth Gaskell George Augustus Sala and Samuel Beeton It also includes a chapter on Charles Dickens s arguably least successful venture Master Humphrey s Clock 1840 1 where Dickens was noticeably straining to sell and fill a weekly magazine While the book is not attempting to destabilise the status of canonical fiction it does ask how the page makes fiction happen what kind of readers magazines imagined for themselves and what readers thought they were reading when they picked up an issue The book argues that magazines projected a print imaginary a symbolic realm where the magazine fits perfectly into the lives of happy active readers The Truth about Publishing Sir Stanley Unwin, 1947 There Are Two Errors in the the Title of This Book, Revised and Expanded (Again) Robert M.
