interest groups are intensifying The above state of affairs suggest that a broader understanding of the trends which may lead to a more sustainable world is needed especially those which may pave the way for future developments In other words we need to pave the way for sustainable futures Consistent with this reality the proposed Encyclopedia of Sustainability Futures aims to identify document and disseminate ideas experiences and visions from scientists member of nongovernmental organisations decision makers industry representatives and citizens on themes and issues which will be important in pursuing sustainable future scenarios In particular the publication will focus on scientific aspects as well as on social and economic ones also considering matters related to financing and infra structures which are important in pursuing a sustainable future The Encyclopedia of Sustainability Futures will involve the contributing authors in line with the principle of co generation from across a wide range of disciplines e g education and social sciences natural sciences engineering the arts languages etc with papers adopting a long term sustainability perspective with a time horizon until 2050 The focus will be on themes which are felt as important in the future and the chapters are expected to interest and motivate a world audience This book is part of the 100 papers to accelerate the implementation of the UN Sustainable Development Goals initiative

#RhodesMustFall B. Nyamnjoh, 2016-04-18 This book on rights entitlements and citizenship in post apartheid South Africa shows how the playing field has not been as levelled as presumed by some and how racism and its benefits persist Through everyday interactions and experiences of university students and professors it explores the question of race in a context still plagued by remnants of apartheid inequality and perceptions of inferiority and inadequacy among the majority black population In education black voices and concerns go largely unheard as circles of privilege are continually regenerated and added onto a layered and deep history of cultivation of black pain These issues are examined against the backdrop of organised student protests sweeping through the countrys universities with a renewed clamour for transformation around a rallying cry of Black Lives Matter The nuanced complexity of this insightful analysis of the Rhodes Must Fall movement elicits compelling questions about the attractions and dangers of exclusionary articulations of belonging What could a grand imperialist like the stripling Uitlander or foreigner of yesteryear Sir Cecil John Rhodes possibly have in common with the present day nimble footed makwerekwere from Africa north of the Limpopo The answer Nyamnjoh suggests is to be found in how human mobility relentlessly tests the boundaries of citizenship

Leap 4.0. African Perspectives on the Fourth Industrial Revolution Zamanzima Mazibuko-Makena, Erika Kraemer-Mbula., 2021-04-09 Leap 4 0 African Perspectives on the Fourth Industrial Revolution seeks to identify the challenges and opportunities the 4IR presents to South Africa and the rest of the African continent especially to workers and marginalised sectors of society Authors examine the prerequisites for the successful introduction of the 4IR including infrastructure skilled personnel and appropriate regulation They underline the importance of inclusive innovation with a deliberate objective to create net new jobs and reduce inequality The 4IR is well established in many parts of the world with technological advances driving profound social and economic change However for many developing countries particularly countries in Africa the 4IR may not offer the anticipated leap forward There is a danger that the continent may find itself dictated to by experiences that are not in tune with its social contexts Faith, Race and Inequality amongst Young Adults in South Africa Nadine Bowers Du Toit, 2022-07-04 For many young South African adults often called born frees who were born just before or just after the demise of political apartheid the ongoing realities of poverty and inequality bring to light the question of whether they truly are free in contemporary South Africa Their lived experiences of poverty and inequality seem to be in conflict with theologically laden concepts that remain prominent in social and political life such as reconciliation forgiveness justice and restitution This leads to a bi directional process of contesting and being contested by such notions and discourses Furthermore in light of the double legacy of both the church and youth as resisting injustice this publication seeks to explore the many perspectives from which the Christian faith race and inequality amongst youth can be brought to light

Innovation for inclusive development and transformation in South Africa Charles Hongoro, Cyril Adonis, Konosoang Sobane, 2023-03-01 Science technology and innovation STI are generally accepted as major drivers of growth and can help address poverty and directly improve the well being of different groups in society However under certain circumstances STI can reinforce social exclusion and inequalities This book explores discourses around directionality and the importance of Innovation for Inclusive Development IID in addressing policy questions that explore the relationship between IID with inequalities in income and opportunities It seeks to unpack the concept of IID and what it means in a country such as South Africa a country characterised by endemic poverty deepening inequality and high levels of unemployment The book is largely original and based on a critique of existing literature to expose specific issues or bolster specific arguments about the role of IID in equitable and inclusive development This book has been written by various scholars who understand the various notions of IID and how it can possibly be applied and the relevance of such knowledge for policy programmes and practice

The Formation of Intellectual Capital and Its Ability to Transform Higher Education Institutions and the Knowledge Society Cardoso Espinosa, Edgar Oliver, 2019-06-28 The knowledge society arises from the combination of four interdependent elements the production of knowledge through research its transmission through education its dissemination through information and communication technologies and its exploitation through innovation For this reason higher education institutions HEIs are the main component of the formation of intellectual capital because they are the key element of the knowledge society so it is necessary that they continue to be the main source of the necessary skills that allow the increase of economic competitiveness sustainability and citizen welfare within the framework of quality education and equity The Formation of Intellectual Capital and Its Ability to Transform Higher Education Institutions and the Knowledge Society is an essential research publication that provides systemic research on the formation of intellectual capital in higher education and its impact on the knowledge society Highlighting topics such as educational programs management strategy and
