Mosibudi Mangena

Turfloop University Application Form:

On Your Own Mosibudi Mangena, 1989 Reflections in Prison Mac Maharaj, 2010-11-18 In 1976 when he was imprisoned on Robben Island Nelson Mandela secretly wrote the bulk of his autobiography Long Walk to Freedom. The manuscript was to be smuggled out by fellow prisoner Mac Maharaj on his release later that year. Maharaj also urged Mandela and other political prisoners to write essays on southern Africa's political future. These were smuggled out with Mandela's autobiography and are now published for the first time 25 years later in Reflections in Prison. This collection of essays provides a unique snapshot of the thinking of Nelson Mandela, Walter Sisulu, Govan Mbeki, Ahmed Kathrada and other leaders of the anti-apartheid struggle on the eve of the 1976 Soweto Uprising. It gives an insight into their philosophies, strategies and hopes as they debate diversity and unity, violent and non-violent forms of struggle and non-racism in the context of different interpretations of African nationalism. Each essay is preceded by a short biography of the author, a description of his life in prison and a pencil sketch by a leading black South African artist. The collection begins with a foreword by Desmond Tutu and a contextualising introduction by Mac Maharaj. These essays are far more than historical artefacts. They reveal the thinking that contributed to the South African miracle and address issues that remain burning today.

Written by Herself: Volume 2 Jill Ker Conway, 1996-09-17 In this powerful new collection the author of two of the most celebrated memoirs in recent years presents the autobiographical writings of 14 of her English-speaking predecessors and contemporaries. The women who tell their stories in Written By Herself Vol II represent three generations, four continents and a range of experience that is equaled only by the diversity with which they transform life into literature. Here are England's Vera Brittain commemorating the deaths of the men she loved in the carnage of World War I; Emma Mashinini who endured imprisonment and torture as a labor organizer in South Africa; Vijaya Lakshmi Pandit, the daughter of Indian aristocracy who became an architect of her country's independence; and Edith Mirante, the wisecracking American whose passion for justice took her to the opium trails of Burma. Collected in this stirring volume, their voices demonstrate the ways in which women strive for power, inclusion and autonomy and never fail to move, inspire and instruct us. Contributors include Margery Perham, Isak Dinesen, Shudha Mazumdar, Vivian Gornick, Vera Brittain, Elspeth Huxley, Vijaya Lakshmi Pandit, Gloria Wade Gayles, Angelica Garnett, Emma Mashinini, Meena Alexander, Edith Mirante, Mary Benson and Ruth First.

Foreign Affairs Committee, 1972 The Afrikaner's Emancipation Barry Botha, 2008-11 President Mandela's stand in negotiations before, during and after imprisonment was attainment of universal democratic rights for all citizens in South Africa. The result was a peaceful transition to black majority rule but a great number of

Students Must Rise Ann Heffernan,Noor Nieftagodien,Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu,Bhekizizwe Peterson,2016-06-01 A detailed account of the incredibly influential Soweto Student Uprising of 1976 The Soweto Student Uprising of 1976 was a decisive moment in the struggle against apartheid It marked the expansion of political activism to a new generation of young activists but beyond that it inscribed the role that young people of subsequent generations could play in their country s future Since that momentous time students have held a special place in the collective imaginary of South African history Drawing on research and writing by leading scholars and prominent activists Students Must Rise takes Soweto 76 as its pivot point but looks at student and youth activism in South Africa more broadly by considering what happened before and beyond the Soweto moment Early chapters assess the impact of the anti pass campaigns of the 1950s of political ideologies like black consciousness as well as of religion and culture in fostering political consciousness and organisation among youth and students in townships and rural areas Later chapters explore the wide reaching impact of June 16th itself for student organisation over the next two decades across the country Two final chapters consider contemporary student based political movements including RhodesMustFall and FeesMustFall and historically root these in the long and rich tradition of student activism in South Africa 2016 marks the 40th anniversary of the 1976 June 16th uprisings This book rethinks the conventional narrative of youth and student activism in South Africa by placing that most famous of moments the 1976 students uprising in Soweto in a deeper historical and geographic context Oliver Tambo Luli Callinicos, 2004 Updated and revised biography that explores the complex relationship between Nelson Mandela and Oliver Tambo and Tambo's influence on the Mandela we revere today The Road to Democracy in South Africa: 1970-1980 South African Democracy Education Trust, 2004 v 3 The third volume in the series examines the role of anti apartheid movements around the world The global anti apartheid movement was very successful in creating awareness of the liberation struggle in South Africa and in contributing to the downfall of the apartheid government This volume in 2 parts brings together analyses which in the main are written by activist scholars with deep roots in the movements and organizations they are writing about

Scheub,1996-10-15 In the years between the Sharpeville Massacre of 1960 and the Soweto Uprising of 1976 a period that was both the height of the apartheid system in South Africa and in retrospect the beginning of its end Harold Scheub went to Africa to collect stories With tape recorder and camera in hand Scheub registered the testaments of Swati Xhosa Ndebele and Zulu storytellers farming people who lived in the remote reaches of rural South Africa While young people fought in the streets of Soweto and South African writers made the world aware of apartheid s evils the rural storytellers resisted apartheid in their own way using myth and metaphor to preserve their traditions and confront their oppressors For more than 20 years Scheub kept the promise he made to the storytellers to publish his translations of their stories only when freedom came to South Africa The Tongue Is Fire presents these voices of South African oral tradition the historians the poets the epic performers the myth makers documenting their enduring faith in the power of the word to sustain tradition in the face of determined efforts to distort or eliminate it These texts are a tribute to the storytellers who have always in periods of crisis exercised their art to inspire their own people

Language and

Institutional Identity in the Post-Apartheid South African Higher Education Leketi Makalela,2022-03-21 This book examines the intersections between education identity formation and language in post apartheid South Africa with specific attention to higher education It does so against the backdrop of the core argument that the sector plays a critical role in shaping re producing and perpetuating sectoral class sub national and national identities which in turn in the peculiar South African setting are almost invariably analogous with the historical fault lines determined and dictated by language as a marker of ethnic and racial identity The chapters in the book grapple with the nuances related to these intersections in the understanding that higher education language policies overt and or covert largely structure institutional cultures or what has been described as curriculum in higher education institutions Together the chapters examine the roles played by higher education by language policies and by the intersections of these policies and ethnolinguistic identities in either constructing and perpetuating or deconstructing ethnolinguistic identities upon which the sector was founded The introductory chapter lays out the background to the entire book with an emphasis on the policy and practice perspectives on the intersections The middle chapters describe the so called White Universities Black Universities and Middle Man Minorities Universities The final chapter maps out future directions of the discourses on language and identity formation in South Africa s higher education
