New Cultural Paradigm comprises ten essays that present respectively performatist metamodernist digimodernist and hypomodernist readings of selected texts in order to test the usefulness of recent theories in explorations of the new paradigm in literary media and food studies The papers cover a wide variety of genres including the novel the film the documentary the cookbook the food magazine and the food commercial and present a number of themes which shed light on the nature of the new paradigm The second part of the volume Mapping the Dynamics of a New Sensibility offers a wider perspective and presents seven papers that search for evidence of a new sensibility in selected examples of postmillennial texts These contributions move beyond the frameworks of the theories explored in the first part in order to offer new perspectives in the contributors respective fields of interest

Silence and Society Charles Lemert, 2025-07-31 Silence and Society addresses the reality that social sciences have ignored the importance of silence in human communication Without communication there is no community and thus no society Yet as classic communication theory explains communication must always deal with noise Increasingly as cyber technologies and media have gained the upper hand in social life so have they become purveyors of empty noise from mindless sitcom television to uninformed talk radio to cable news blather and more The book is organized into three sections each corresponding to a level of social order Each bears a distinctive relation to the general problem of silence and noise in human community Part One Social Facts of Silence presents examples of the ways silence intrudes on vital aspects of human life in personal self understanding in the irony that direction communication requires a third absent party such as Goffman's ego identity in the fact that personal identity is the challenge of dealing with the trouble of deciding who we are in a given social setting Part Two Noise Dreams and Identity Confusions considers a range of community issues from the strange noises of quiet neighborhoods to the way the necessity of social conformity silences individual autonomy to the fact that the dead are ever present in daily language and behavior especially in common religious practices Finally Part Three Waste Death and the Beyond of Time suggests the principal ways the growing global environment aggravates human inequality by forcing the poor into zones of exclusion by increasing the mountain of human waste that in turn wastes human lives by the extent to which global theories and programs for economic development are little more

Radical Hospitality for a Prophetic Church Amanda D. Quantz, 2019-11-13 Anchored in Scripture and Tradition Radical Hospitality for a Prophetic Church conveys Amanda D Quantz's firsthand experiences as a chaplain working with emerging ministries that meet people where they are Building on the biblical concept that all wisdom was present in the mind of God before creation Quantz argues that this wisdom has filtered into the world's varied religious traditions so that Christians have much to gain approaching others from different religious or spiritual creeds and learning about their faith traditions and values Whether seekers are experimenting with open Communion church without walls or ancient but little known Christian practices this book is a resource for those who feel stuck in outdated ideas about what it means to be a church

Age in David Almond's Oeuvre Vanessa Joosen, Michelle Anya Anjirbag, Leander Duthoy, Lindsey

Geybels, Frauke Pauwels, Emma-Louise Silva, 2023-07-28 In recent decades age studies has started to emerge as a new approach to study children's literature. This book builds on that scholarship but also significantly extends it by exploring age in various aspects of children's literature: the age of the author, the characters, the writing style, the intended readership and the real reader. Moreover, the authors explore what different theories and methods can be used to study age in children's literature and what their affordances and limits are. The analyses combine age studies with life writing studies, cognitive narratology, digital humanities, comparative literary studies, reader response research and media studies. To ensure coherence, the book offers an in-depth exploration of the oeuvre of a single author, David Almond. The aesthetic and thematic richness of Almond's works has been widely recognised. This book adds to the understanding of his oeuvre by offering a multi-faceted analysis of age. In addition to discussing the film adaptation of his best-known novel Skellig, this book also offers analyses of works that have received less attention, such as Counting Stars, Clay and Bone Music. Readers will also get a fuller understanding of Almond as a crosswriter of literature for children, adolescents and adults.

American Nature Writers

John Elder, 1996 The Scribner Writers Series has set the standard for literary reference for more than 25 years. In addition to addressing the lives and careers of important writers, the articles discuss the themes and styles of major works and place them in pertinent historical, social and political contexts for today's readers. Novelists, playwrights, essayists, poets, short story writers and more recently genre writers in science fiction and mystery are all expertly discussed in the more than 16 sets comprising this series. The essays in the set combine biography, criticism and in some cases original interviews to tell the story of each author. This set includes 70 biographical critical essays on such writers as Rachel Carson, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Henry David Thoreau and Gary Snyder and 12 general subject essays.

Reading Under Control

Judith Graham, Alison Kelly, 2015-09-29 Now in an updated third edition, this best-selling textbook introduces primary teachers to the key issues in how to teach reading. The authors celebrate reading as an important, exhilarating part of the curriculum with the potential to transform lives, whilst also giving a balanced handling of contentious issues. Strongly rooted in classroom practice.

Literary Conceptualizations of Growth

Roberta Trites, 2014-07-15 Literary Conceptualizations of Growth explores those processes through which maturation is represented in adolescent literature by examining how concepts of growth manifest themselves in adolescent literature and by interrogating how the concept of growth structures scholars' ability to think about adolescence. Cognitive literary theory provides the theoretical framework, as do the related fields of cognitive linguistics and experiential philosophy. Historical constructions of the concept of growth are also examined within the context of the history of ideas. Cross-cultural literature from the traditional Bildungsroman to the contemporary Young Adult novel serve as examples. Literary Conceptualizations of Growth ultimately asserts that human cognitive structures are responsible for the pervasiveness of growth as both a metaphor and a narrative pattern in adolescent literature.
