White on Black Jan Nederveen Pieterse,1992-01-01 White on Black is a compelling visual history of the development of European and American stereotypes of black people over the last two hundred years Its purpose is to show the pervasiveness of prejudice against blacks throughout the western world as expressed in stock in trade racist imagery and caricature Reproducing a wide range of illustrations from engravings and lithographs to advertisements candy wrappings biscuit tins dolls posters and comic strips the book challenges the hidden assumptions of even those who view themselves as unprejudiced Jan Nederveen Pieterse sets Western images of Africa and blacks in a chronological framework including representations from medieval times from the colonial period with its explorers settlers and missionaries from the era of slavery and abolition and from the multicultural societies of the present day Pieterse shows that blacks have been routinely depicted throughout the West as servants entertainers and athletes and that particular countries have developed their own comforting black stereotypes about blacks Sambo and Uncle Tom in the United States Golliwog in Britain Bamboula in France and Black Peter in the Netherlands Looking at conventional portrayals of blacks in the nursery in sexual arenas and in commerce and advertising Pieterse analyzes the conceptual roots of the stereotypes about them The images that he presents have a direct and dramatic impact and they raise questions about the expression of power within popular culture and the force of caricature humor and parody as instruments of oppression

Birders of Africa Nancy J. Jacobs, 2016-04-26 In this unique and unprecedented study of birding in Africa historian Nancy Jacobs reconstructs the collaborations between well known ornithologists and the largely forgotten guides hunters and taxidermists who worked with them Drawing on ethnography scientific publications private archives and interviews Jacobs asks How did white ornithologists both depend on and operate distinctively from African birders What investment did African birders have in collaborating with ornithologists By distilling the interactions between European science and African vernacular knowledge this stunningly illustrated work offers a fascinating examination of the colonial and postcolonial politics of expertise about nature

Cattle Plague Clive Spina, 2012-12-06 Cattle Plague A History is divided into five sections dealing with the nature of the virus followed by a chronological history of its occurrence in Europe from the Roman Empire to the final 20th century outbreaks then administrative control measures through legislation the principal players from the 18th century followed by an analysis of some effects political economic and social Then follows attempts at cure from earliest times encompassing superstition and witchcraft largely Roman methods persisting until the 19th century the search for a cure through inoculation and the final breakthrough in Africa at the end of the 19th century The last section covers the disease in Asia and Africa Appendices cover regulations now in force to control the disease as well as historical instructions decrees and statutes dating from 1745 1878

Fighting Nature Peta Tait, 2016-08-10 Throughout the 19th century animals were integrated into staged scenarios of confrontation ranging from lion acts in small cages to large scale re enactments of war Initially presenting a handful of exotic animals travelling menageries grew to contain multiple species in their thousands These 19th century menageries entrenched beliefs about the human right to exploit nature through war like practices against other animal species Animal shows became a stimulus for antisocial behaviour as locals taunted animals caused fights and even turned into violent mobs Human societal problems were difficult to separate from issues of cruelty to animals Apart from reflecting human capacity for fighting and aggression and the belief in human dominance over nature these animal performances also echoed cultural fascination with conflict war and colonial expansion as the grand spectacles of imperial power reinforced state authority and enhanced public displays of nationhood and nationalistic evocations of colonial empires Fighting nature is an insightful analysis of the historical legacy of 19th century colonialism war animal acquisition and transportation This legacy of entrenched beliefs about the human right to exploit other animal species is yet to be defeated Peta Tait brings to the book an impressive scholarly command of the documentary material from which she draws a range of vivid examples and revealing analyses of human animal confrontation in popular entertainments The book is written with verve and clarity and will be of interest to a wide readership in performance studies and cultural history

Far Out Mark Liechty, 2017-02-21 Westerners have long imagined the Himalayas as the world's last untouched place and a repository of redemptive power and wisdom Beatniks hippie seekers spiritual tourists mountain climbers diverse groups of people have traveled there over the years searching for their own personal Shangri La In Far Out Mark Liechty traces the Western fantasies that captured the imagination of tourists in the decades after World War II asking how the idea of Nepal shaped the everyday cross cultural interactions that it made possible Emerging from centuries of political isolation but eager to engage the world Nepalis struggled to make sense of the hordes of exotic enthusiastic foreigners They quickly embraced the phenomenon however and harnessed it to their own ends by building tourists fantasies into their national image and crafting Nepal as a premier tourist destination Liechty describes three distinct phases the postwar era when the country provided a Raj like throwback experience for rich Americans Nepal's emergence as an exotic outpost of hippie counterculture in the 1960s and its rebranding into a hip adventure destination which began in the 1970s and continues today He shows how Western projections of Nepal as an isolated place inspired creative enterprises and paradoxically allowed locals to participate in the global economy Based on twenty five years of research Far Out blends ethnographic analysis a lifelong passion for Nepal and a touch of humor to produce the first comprehensive history of what tourists looked for and found on the road to Kathmandu

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
