Dobson, 2015-10-08 The five United States military service academies are some of the most elite schools in the nation taking the finest high school students and turning them into commissioned officers of the Army Navy Air Force Coast Guard and Merchant Marine Over 60 000 students a year begin the arduous process of applying and about 4 000 get in At West Point alone over 15 000 candidates start the applications process Less than a third of them finish it Some figure out that they aren t going to be competitive some get derailed with specific problems and some get lost and drop out even though they might have gotten in From applications to Congressional nominations from athletics to medical qualifications the process is unlike any other for getting into college This book leads students and their families through the process step by step offering the tools needed for the very best chance of success Covering special issues and concerns like LGBTQ women and minorities criminal records and more the author also discusses whether attending a service academy is RIGHT for the prospective student and what he or she can expect upon acceptance admission and attendance Using his personal experience in helping his son through the applications process Michael Singer Dobson provides all candidates with the ins and outs of the competition for a spot at one of these prestigious schools Black Feminist Anthropology, 25th Anniversary Edition Irma

McClaurin, 2024-11-15 Black Feminist Anthropology Theory Politics Praxis and Poetics is a groundbreaking collection that centers the imaginative intellectual perspectives voices and experiences of Black American feminist anthropologists Twenty five years ago as the Foreword states this book dared to put three words together in the title Black Feminist Anthropology that have not always kept company with each other and in the minds of many both in and outside of the academy they should remain separate Standing the test of time it is still a bold reimagining of anthropology and all social sciences as inclusive and decolonized while establishing a new Black feminist anthropology canon that decades later is too often taken for granted as normative Black Feminist Anthropology is filled with a message of theoretical possibilities that anyone who enters its pages will find healing life saving and an affirmation that Black women anthropologists have contributed much to the theory politics praxis and poetics of anthropology gender and women s studies masculinity studies queer studies the social sciences generally and any other discipline that seeks transformation from the inside out It is both an archive and a legacy for the next generation

The Truth That Never Hurts 25th Anniversary Edition Barbara Smith,2023-10-13 This collection contains some of her major essays on Black women s literature Black lesbian writing on racism in the women s movement Black Jewish relations and homophobia in the Black community Her forays into these areas ignited dialogue about topics that few other writers were addressing at the time and which sadly remain pertinent to this day

Vernacular Eloquence Peter Elbow,2012-01-13 Since the publication of his groundbreaking books Writing Without Teachers and Writing with Power Peter Elbow has revolutionized how people think about writing Now in Vernacular Eloquence he makes a vital new contribution to both practice and theory The core idea is simple we can enlist virtues from the language activity most people find easiest speaking for the language activity most people find hardest writing Speech with its spontaneity naturalness of expression and fluidity of thought has many overlooked linguistic and rhetorical merits Through several easy to employ techniques writers can marshal this wisdom of the tongue to produce stronger clearer more natural writing This simple idea it turns out has deep repercussions Our culture of literacy Elbow argues functions as though it were a plot against the spoken voice the human body vernacular language and those without privilege making it harder than necessary to write with comfort or power Giving speech a central role in writing overturns many empty preconceptions It causes readers to think critically about the relationship between speech writing and our notion of literacy Developing the political implications behind Elbow s previous books Vernacular Eloquence makes a compelling case that strengthening writing and democratizing it go hand in hand

A to Z of American Women Writers Carol Kort,2014-05-14 Presents a biographical dictionary profiling important women authors including birth and death dates accomplishments and bibliography of each author s work

Resources in Education ,1999

The Field Day Anthology of Irish Writing Seamus Deane,Andrew Carpenter,Angela Bourke,Jonathan Williams,1991

Out of the House of Bondage Thavolia Glymph,2008-06-30 The plantation household was first and foremost a site of production This fundamental fact has generally been overshadowed by popular and scholarly images of the plantation household as the source of slavery s redeeming qualities where gentle mistresses ministered to loyal slaves This book recounts a very different story The very notion of a private sphere as divorced from the immoral excesses of chattel slavery as from the amoral logic of market laws functioned to conceal from public scrutiny the day to day struggles between enslaved women and their mistresses subsumed within a logic of patriarchy One of emancipation s unsung consequences was precisely the exposure to public view of the unbridgeable social distance between the women on whose labor the plantation household relied and the women who employed them This is a story of race and gender nation and citizenship freedom and bondage in the nineteenth century South a big abstract story that is composed of equally big personal stories

Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier,2012-10-12 This groundbreaking new source of international scope defines the essay as nonfictional prose texts of between one and 50 pages in length The more than 500 entries by 275 contributors include entries on nationalities various categories of essays such as generic such as sermons aphorisms individual major works notable writers and periodicals that created a market for essays and particularly famous or significant essays The preface details the historical development of the essay and the alphabetically arranged entries usually include biographical sketch nationality era selected writings list additional readings and anthologies Lutheran Spokesman ,1998 Congressional Record United States. Congress,1969 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789 1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824 1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873

Clothing and Fashion in Southern History Ted Ownby,Becca Walton,2020-07-23 Contributions by Grace Elizabeth Hale Katie Knowles Ted Ownby Jonathan Prude William Sturkey Susannah Walker Becca Walton and Sarah Jones Weicksel Fashion studies have long centered on the art and preservation of finely rendered garments of the upper class and archival resources used in the study of southern history have gaps and silences Yet little study has been given to the approach of clothing as something made worn and intimately experienced by enslaved people incarcerated people and the poor and working class and by subcultures perceived as transgressive The essays in the volume using clothing as a point of departure encourage readers to imagine the South s centuries long engagement with a global economy through garments with cotton harvested by enslaved or poorly paid workers milled in distant factories designed with influence from cosmopolitan tastemakers and sold back in the South often by immigrant merchants Contributors explore such topics as how free and enslaved women with few or no legal rights claimed to own clothing in the mid 1800s how white women in the Confederacy claimed the making of clothing as a form of patriotism how imprisoned men and women made and imagined their clothing and clothing cooperatives in civil rights era Mississippi An introduction by editors Ted Ownby and Becca Walton asks how best to begin studying clothing and fashion in southern history and an afterword by Jonathan Prude asks how best to conclude
