

A Persuasive Speech: The Importance of Eating Healthy

Topic: Diet & Nutrition | Words: 608 | Pages: 2

In the modern world, the vast majority of the population is negligent about their health. In this case, the role is played by complete incompetence in matters of the culture of proper nutrition and the constant lack of time to compile a balanced menu, purchase necessary products and prepare nutritious and healthy dishes. By the way, healthy nutrition throughout the life of people is the most crucial element of preserving and strengthening the health of current and future generations, as well as an indispensable condition for achieving active longevity. Without any doubt, it provides full-fledged vital activity, competent and optimal functioning, strengthening, growth, and development of the human body, as well as prevention of non-communicable diseases. Eating healthy is one of the most significant factors of life, supplying a wide range of benefits and positive aspects for a person.

Primarily, the author should emphasize that the importance, significance, and necessity of eating correctly and healthy is expressed by getting rid of diseases, the possibility of stabilizing weight, promoting the restoration of intellectual and physical energy, and a number of other equally important aspects. Thus, scientists have proven that the consumption of specific nutrients or food groups contributes to the prevention of non-communicable conditions, positively affecting the general state of the body and human well-being (Cena & Calder, 2020). For example, people who stick to a healthy lifestyle are more than 80% less likely to develop cardiovascular diseases than those who do not adhere to such a strategy (Skerrett & Willett, 2010). Thus, healthy food
