Out Of Place A Memoir:

Out Of Place Edward W. Said, 2013-08-01 Edward Said experienced both British and American imperialism as the old Arab order crumbled in the late 1940s and early 1950s This account of his early life reveals how it influenced his books Orientalism and Culture and Imperialism Edward Said was born in Jerusalem and brought up in Cairo spending every summer in the Lebanese mountain village of Dhour el Shweir until he was banished to America in 1951 This work is a mixture of emotional archaeology and memory exploring an essentially irrecoverable past As ill health sets him thinking about endings Edward Said returns to his beginnings in this personal memoir of his ferociously demanding Victorian father and his adored inspiring yet ambivalent mother

Out of Place Edward W. Said, 2000 Edward Said was born in Jerusalem and brought up in Cairo spending every summer in the Lebanese mountain village of Dhour el Shweir until he was banished to America in 1951 This work is a mixture of emotional archaeology and memory exploring an essentially irrecoverable past As ill health sets him thinking about endings Edward Said returns to his beginnings in this personal memoir

Academic Lives Cynthia G. Franklin, 2010-01-25 Since the early 1990s there has been a proliferation of memoirs by tenured humanities professors Although the memoir form has been discussed within the flourishing field of life writing academic memoirs have received little critical scrutiny Based on close readings of memoirs by such academics as Michael B rub Cathy N Davidson Jane Gallop bell hooks Edward Said Eve Sedgwick Jane Tompkins and Marianna Torgovnick Academic Lives considers why so many professors write memoirs and what cultural capital they carry Cynthia G Franklin finds that academic memoirs provide unparalleled ways to unmask the workings of the academy at a time when it is dealing with a range of crises including attacks on intellectual freedom discontentment with the academic star system and budget cuts Franklin considers how academic memoirs have engaged with a core of defining concerns in the humanities identity politics and the development of whiteness studies in the 1990s the impact of postcolonial studies feminism and concurrent anxieties about pedagogy and disability studies and the struggle to bring together discourses on the humanities and human rights The turn back toward humanism that Franklin finds in some academic memoirs is surreptitious or frankly nostalgic others however posit a wide ranging humanism that seeks to create space for advocacy in the academic and other institutions in which we are all unequally located These memoirs are harbingers for the critical turn to explore interrelations among humanism the humanities and human rights struggles

The End of Commitment Paul Hollander,2006 The seduction of some of the twentieth century s great thinkers by the most corrupt ideologies of the age communism and Nazism is one of the most intriguing stories in the history of that ill fated century In The End of Commitment the distinguished sociologist Paul Hollander investigates how and why these zealots finally fell away from the causes that moved them His is the first book to take a comprehensive historically comparative view of disillusionment with Communist systems and ideologies In the course of his study Hollander examines the sentiments of former revolutionaries high ranking officials and intellectuals in the Soviet Union as well as in the Soviet bloc countries and in third world Communist states The Athenaeum ,1855 Bookforum ,1998 Spaces of Anticolonialism Stephen Legg,2025-03 Spaces of Anticolonialism is the first book length account of anticolonialism in Delhi as the capital of Britain s empire in India It pioneers a spatial governmentality analysis of the networks mobilizations and hidden spaces of anticolonial parrhesia or courageous speech and actions in the two decades before independence in 1947 Reading across imperial and nationalist archives newspapers memoirs oral histories and interviews Stephen Legg exposes subaltern geographies and struggles across both the new and old cities which have traditionally been neglected in favor of the elite spaces of New Delhi Presenting the dual cities as one interconnected political landscape Legg studies Indian National Congress efforts to mobilize and marshal support between the mass movements of Civil Disobedience 1930 34 and Quit India 1942 43 The book s six chapters compare the two movements in terms of their public spaces of nonviolent anticolonialism their problematization by violence and their legacies This bottom up analysis focused on the streets bazaars neighborhoods homes and undergrounds of the two cities foregrounds the significance of physical and political space it highlights the pioneering role of women in crafting these spaces and it exposes the microtechniques that Congress used to encourage Gandhi s nonviolence and to tolerate its testing in the face of the rising popularity of the radical left Legg s rereading of Michel Foucault s final lectures on parrhesia produces a bold new approach to questions of postcolonialism resistance and South Asian governmentalities

This allows anticolonialism to be read not as an outside but as a coherent and bottom up project of self transformation and space making that was elite coordinated but whose sovereignty lay with a disobedient and not always nonviolent public This book provides an innovative and restive historical geography of spaces of anticolonialism in the capital of contemporary India s 1 4 billion people     The Jewish Quarterly ,1953     The Diffusion of “Small” Western Technologies in the Middle East Uri M. Kupferschmidt,2023-10-04 In recent years we have become interested in the diffusion of small Western technologies in the countries of the Middle East during the 19th and 20th centuries the era of Imperialism and first globalization We postulated a contrast between small and big technologies Under the latter category we may understand railway systems electricity grids telegraph networks and steam navigation imposed by foreign powers or installed by connected local entrepreneurs But many small Western technologies such as sewing machines typewriters pianos eyeglasses and similar consumer goods which had been developed and manufactured in Europe and America were wanted and willingly acquired by the agency of individual users elsewhere In a few cases however the inventions had to be adapted or were overstepped and even delayed Some were adopted as social markers or status symbols only by elites who could afford them Processes of adoption and diffusion therefore differed according to cultural settings preferences and needs Social and cultural historians and social scientists not only of the Middle East will find in this collection of essays a new approach to the impact of Western technological inventions on the Middle East     The Publishers Weekly ,1881     Banipal ,2000
