Promoting Positive Development in Early Childhood Karen VanderVen, 2008-09-08 This new volume in the Search Institute Series on Developmentally Attentive Community and Society represents a milestone in Search Institute's signature work on the Developmental Assets that children and adolescents need in their lives to succeed. Through the research behind this book, Karen VanderVen links this strength based, community based approach to human development to early childhood development and practice. In doing so, she advances a long term vision of understanding child and adolescent development not merely as a series of discrete stages but as a trajectory of development in which experiences in each phase of development link to reinforce or redirect.

experiences in other aspects of life To be sure VanderVen explores with both breadth and depth a particularly critical time in child development the early childhood years ages 3 5 The latest research in numerous fields has only increased our understanding of how important it is for communities to attend to children's developmental experiences in these crucial years Positive development in early childhood leads young people on a path to a healthy adulthood and a lack of positive development in early childhood has a blunting effect that extends into elementary and secondary schooling years The Early Childhood Educator Professional Development Grant John A. Sutterby, 2011-10-06 Focuses on the implementation of professional development for early childhood educators describing a number of models for improving early childhood care This title provides future developers of professional development with a road map for what works and what might not be as effective
