Western Art, Western History Ron Tyler,2019-03-07 For nearly half a century celebrated historian Ron Tyler has researched interpreted and exhibited western American art This splendid volume gleaned from Tyler s extensive career of connoisseurship brings together eight of the author s most notable essays reworked especially for this volume Beautifully illustrated with more than 150 images Western Art Western History tells the stories of key artists both famous and obscure whose provocative pictures document the people and places of the nineteenth century American West The artists depicted in these pages represent a variety of personalities and artistic styles According to Tyler each of them responded in unique ways to the compelling and exotic drama that unfolded in the West during the nineteenth century an age of exploration surveying pleasure travel and scientific discovery In eloquent and engaging prose Tyler unveils a fascinating cast of characters including the little known German Russian artist Louis Choris who served as a draftsman on the second Russian circumnavigation of the globe the exacting and precise Swiss artist Karl

Bodmer who accompanied Prince Maximilian of Wied on his sojourn up the Missouri River and the young American Alfred Jacob Miller whose seemingly frivolous and romantic depictions of western mountain men and American Indians remained largely unknown until the mid twentieth century Other artists showcased in this volume are John James Audubon George Caleb Bingham Alfred E Mathews and finally Frederic Remington who famously sought to capture the last glimmers of the old frontier A common thread throughout Western Art Western History is the important role that technology especially the development of lithography played in the dissemination of images As the author emphasizes many works by western artists are valuable not only as illustrations but as scientific documents imbued with cultural meaning By placing works of western art within these broader contexts Tyler enhances our understanding of their history and significance

Race and the Wild West Laura J. Arata, 2020-07-02 Winner of the Western Writers of America SPUR Award and the Western Association of Women Historians Gita Chaudhuri Prize Born a slave in eastern Tennessee Sarah Blair Bickford 1852 1931 made her way while still a teenager to Montana Territory where she settled in the mining boomtown of Virginia City Race and the Wild West is the first full length biography of this remarkable woman whose life story affords new insight into race and belonging in the American West around the turn of the twentieth century For many years Sarah Bickford's known biography fit into a single paragraph By examining her life in all its complexity Arata fills in what were long believed to be unrecoverable silent spaces in her story Before establishing herself as a successful business owner we learn she was twice married both times to white men Her first husband an Irish immigrant physically abused her until she divorced him in 1881 Their three children all died before the age of ten In 1883 she married Stephen Bickford and gave birth to four more children Upon his death she inherited his shares of the Virginia City Water Company acquiring sole ownership in 1917 For the final decade of her life Bickford actively preserved and promoted a historic Virginia City building best known as the site of the brutal lynching in 1864 of five men Her conspicuous role in developing an early form of heritage tourism challenges long standing narratives that place white men at the center of the Wild West myth and its promotion Bickford's story offers a window into the dynamics of race in the rural West Although her experiences defy easy categorization what is clear is that her navigation of social norms and racial barriers did not hinge on exceptionalism or tokenism Instead she built a life that deserves to be understood on its own terms Through exhaustive research and nuanced analysis Laura J Arata advances our understanding of a woman whose life embodied the contradictory intersections of hope and disappointment that characterized life in the early twentieth century American West for brave pioneers of many races

Disenchanted Modernities Tobias Haller, Samuel Weissman, 2024 Mega Infrastructure Projects MIPs represent a central element of globalized development MIPs like the Chinese driven Belt and Road Initiative BRI include large scale agrarian road rail port and energy networks They are complex ventures involving international capital and multiple stakeholders Disenchanted Modernities presents 16 case studies showing that the promise of a sustainable modern development by MIPs leave many local users disenchanted They don't profit from the MIPs but lose access to their resources often held in common The book describes the strategies of states and companies as well as local responses to MIPs in Asia Africa Americas and Europe Groundwater Ecology and Evolution Florian Malard, Christian Griebler, Sylvie Retaux, 2023-03-11 Groundwater Ecology and Evolution Second Edition is designed to meet a multitude of audience needs The state of the art in the discipline is provided by the articulation of six sections The first three sections successively carry the reader into the basic attributes of groundwater ecosystems section 1 the drivers and patterns of biodiversity section 2 and the roles of organisms in groundwater ecosystems section 3 The next two sections are devoted to evolutionary processes driving the acquisition of subterranean biological traits section 4 and the way these traits are differently expressed among groundwater organisms section 5 Finally section 6 shows how knowledge acquired among multiple research fields sections 1 to 5 is used to manage groundwater biodiversity and ecosystem services in the face of future groundwater resource use scenarios Emphasis on the coherence and prospects of the whole book is given in the introduction and conclusion Provides a modern synthesis of research dedicated to the study of groundwater biodiversity and ecosystems Bridges the gap between community ecology evolution and functional ecology three research fields that have long been presented isolated from each other Explains how this trans disciplinary integration of research contributes to understanding and managing of groundwater ecosystem functions Reveals the contribution of groundwater ecology and evolution in solving scientific questions well beyond the frontiers of groundwater systems Homelands and Empires Jeffers Lennox,2017-05-08 The period from 1690 to 1763 was a time of intense territorial competition during which Indigenous peoples remained a dominant force British Nova Scotia and French Acadia were imaginary places that administrators hoped to graft over the ancestral homelands of the Mi kmaq Wulstukwiuk Passamaquoddy and Abenaki peoples Homelands and Empires is the inaugural volume in the University of Toronto Press s Studies in Atlantic Canada History In this deeply researched and engagingly argued work Jeffers Lennox reconfigures our general understanding of how Indigenous peoples imperial forces and settlers competed for space in northeastern North America before the British conquest in 1763 Lennox s judicious investigation of official correspondence treaties newspapers and magazines diaries and maps reveals a locally developed system of accommodation that promoted peaceful interactions but enabled violent reprisals when agreements were broken This outstanding contribution to scholarship on early North America questions the nature and practice of imperial expansion in the face of Indigenous territorial strength Catalog Yale University. Library. Yale Collection of Western Americana,1962 Before Canada Allan Greer,2024-07-12 Long before Confederation created a nation state in northern North America Indigenous people were establishing vast networks and trade routes Volcanic eruptions pushed the ancestors of the Dene to undertake a trek from the present day Northwest Territories to Arizona Inuit migrated across the Arctic from Siberia reaching Southern Labrador where they met Basque fishers from northern Spain As early as the fifteenth century fishing ships from western Europe were coming to Newfoundland for cod creating the greatest transatlantic maritime link in the early modern world Later fur traders would take capitalism across the continent using cheap rum to lubricate their transactions The contributors to Before Canada reveal the latest findings of archaeological and historical research on this fascinating period Along the way they reframe the story of the Canadian past extending its limits across time and space and challenging us to reconsider our assumptions about this supposedly young country Innovative and multidisciplinary Before Canada inspires interest in the deep history of northern North America Missionary Interests David Golding,Christopher Cannon Jones,2024-04-15 In Missionary Interests David Golding and Christopher Cannon Jones bring together works about Protestant and Mormon missionaries in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries charting new directions for the historical study of these zealous evangelists for their faith Despite their sectarian differences both groups of missionaries shared notions of dividing the world categorically along the lines of race status and relative exoticism and both employed humanitarian outreach with designs to proselytize American missionaries occupied liminal spaces between proselytizer and proselytized feminine and masculine colonizer and colonized Taken together the chapters in Missionary Interests dismantle easy characterizations of missions and conversion and offer an overlooked juxtaposition between Mormon and Protestant missionary efforts in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Capital's Terrorists Chad E. Pearson,2022-10-05 Through the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries employers and powerful individuals deployed a variety of tactics to control ordinary people as they sought to secure power in and out of workplaces In the face of worker resistance employers and their allies collaborated to use a variety of extralegal repressive techniques including whippings kidnappings drive out campaigns incarcerations arsons hangings and shootings as well as less overtly illegal tactics such as shutting down meetings barring speakers from lecturing through blacklists and book burning This book draws together the groups engaged in this kind of violence reimagining the original Ku Klux Klan various Law and Order Leagues Stockgrowers organizations and Citizens Alliances as employers associations driven by unambiguous economic and managerial interests Though usually discussed separately all of these groups used similar language to tar their lower class challengers former slaves rustlers homesteaders of modest means populists political radicals and striking workers as menacing villains and deployed comparable tactics to suppress them And perhaps most notably spokespersons for these respective organizations justified their actions by insisting that they were committed to upholding law and order Ultimately this book suggests that the birth of law and order politics as we know it can be found in nineteenth century campaigns of organized terror against an assortment of ordinary people across racial lines conducted by Klansmen lawmen vigilantes and union busters

Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015 \(Volume 4\) Union Of International Associations, Union of International Associations, 2014-09-17 The Yearbook of International Organizations provides the most extensive coverage of non profit international organizations currently available Detailed profiles of international non governmental and intergovernmental organizations IGO collected and documented by the Union of International Associations can be found here In addition to the history aims and activities of international organizations with their events publications and contact details the volumes of the Yearbook include networks between associations biographies of key people involved and extensive statistical data Providing both an international organizations and research bibliography Volume 4 cites over 46 000 publications and information resources supplied by international organizations and provides nearly 18 000 research citations under 40 subject headings This volume also includes a research bibliography on international organizations and transnational associations

Utopian Universities Miles Taylor, Jill Pellew, 2020-11-12 In a remarkable decade of public investment in higher education some 200 new university campuses were established worldwide between 1961 and 1970 This volume offers a comparative and connective global history of these institutions illustrating how their establishment intellectual output and pedagogical experimentation sheds light on the social and cultural topography of the long 1960s With an impressive geographic coverage using case studies from Europe the Americas Africa and Asia the book explores how these universities have influenced academic disciplines and pioneered new types of teaching architectural design and student experience From educational reform in West Germany to the establishment of new institutions with progressive interdisciplinary curricula in the Commonwealth the illuminating case studies of this volume demonstrate how these universities shared in a common cause the embodiment of utopian ideals of living learning and governance At a time when the role of higher education is fiercely debated Utopian Universities is a timely and considered intervention that offers a wide ranging historical dimension to contemporary predicaments Sea and Land Philip D. Morgan, John Robert McNeill, Matthew Mulcahy, Stuart B. Schwartz, 2022 The first comprehensive environmental synthesis of the Caribbean region written by eminent scholars of the topic Oxford Textbook of Creative Arts, Health, and Wellbeing Stephen Clift, Paul Marc Camic, 2016 There is growing interest internationally in the contributions which the creative arts can make to wellbeing and health in both healthcare and community settings A timely addition to the field this book discusses the role the creative arts have in addressing some of the most pressing public health challenges faced today Providing an evidence base and recommendations for a wide audience this is an essential resource for anyone involved with this increasingly important component of public health practice Ichnology in Shallow-marine and Transitional Environments C. Cónsole-Gonella, S. de Valais, I. Díaz-Martínez, P. Citton, M. Verde, D. McIlroy, 2023-06-06 The ichnology of shallow marine to transitional environments is a key field of study with respect to understanding the variability of environmental parameters from inshore marginal marine settings to the offshore transition zone Over the last decades ichnology has evolved from being a tool to determine bathymetry becoming the standard palaeoenvironmental methodology by which trace fossils can be used to inform sedimentary facies models In particular the analysis of mixed assemblages of invertebrate and vertebrate trace fossils allows detailed palaeoenvironmental and facies analysis This volume focuses on the ichnological record of shallow marine to transitional environments through the geological record in addition to modern ones through neoichnology
