Adios, America Ann Coulter, 2015-06-01 A National Bestseller Ann Coulter is back more fearless than ever In Adios

America she touches the third rail in American politics attacking the immigration issue head on and flying in the face of La Raza the Democrats a media determined to cover up immigrants crimes churches that get paid by the government for their charity and greedy Republican businessmen and campaign consultants all of whom are profiting handsomely from mass immigration that s tearing the country apart Applying her trademark biting humor to the disaster that is U S immigration policy Coulter proves that immigration is the most important issue facing America today The Holocaust in the Twenty-First Century David M. Seymour, Mercedes Camino, 2016-10-14 This volume locates and explores historical and contemporary sites of contested meanings of Holocaust memory across a range of geographical geo political and disciplinary contexts identifying and critically engaging with the nature and expression of these meanings within their relevant contexts elucidating the political social and cultural underpinnings and consequences of these meanings and offering interventions in the contemporary debates of Holocaust memory that suggest ways forward for the future Speaking Beyond Earth Paul E. Quast, David Dunér, 2024-04-03 Since the dawn of the Space Age small cohorts of humanity have broadcast signals towards other stars fabricated space time capsules to speak for Earth aboard interstellar probes deposited collections of space oddities on other astronomical bodies and permanently incised the memory of our species across the deep time legacy of the Sol System Many of these purposeful messages are the consequence of age old behaviors traditions and material practices using modern aerospace technologies Most attempt to preserve narratives of human experience in social exchange devices for imagined exotic audiences Looking back upon this accumulative history of messaging from Earth how do we begin to interpret such an eclectic portrait of Earth for ourselves Surveying and cataloguing the variety of these artifacts through a series of interdisciplinary essays and visual documentation this volume chronicles our changing relationships customs and assumptions made within this material culture for our own eyes What do these autobiographical accounts tell us about Terrans and our minds set against the backdrop of our planetary history Space, Power and the Commons Samuel Kirwan, Leila Dawney, Julian Brigstocke, 2015-10-23 Across the globe political movements opposing privatisation enclosures and other spatial controls are coalescing towards the idea of the commons As a result struggles over the commons and common life are now coming to the forefront of both political activism and scholarly enquiry This book advances academic debates concerning the spatialities of the commons and draws out the diverse materialities temporalities and experiences of practices of commoning Part one Materialising the Commons focuses on the performance of new geographical imaginations in spatial and material practices of commoning Part two Spaces of Commoning explores the importance of the turn from commons to commoning bringing together chapters focusing on the doing of commons and how spaces materials bodies and abstract flows are intertwined in these complex and excessive processes Part three An Expanded Commons explores the broader registers and spaces in which the concept of the commons is at stake and highlights how and where the commons can open new areas of action and research Part four The Capture of the Commons questions the particular interdependence of the commons and enclosure assumed within commons literature framed by the concept of neoliberalism Providing a comprehensive introduction to the diverse ways in which ideas of the commons are being conceptualised and enacted both throughout the social sciences and in practical action this book foregrounds the commons as an arena for political thought and sets an agenda for future research Turkish-Azerbaijani Relations Murad Ismayilov, Norman A. Graham, 2016-05-20

An east west axis of Azerbaijan and Turkey has grown into prominence within the broader structure of regional dynamics in Eurasia over the past two decades Yet few including among policy advisors and policy makers in either of the two states have attempted to look deeper into the forces that lie behind the workings of this important regional nexus a reality that resulted in a dual crisis in bilateral relations towards the end of the second decade of interaction This volume investigates the underlying causes that shaped the dynamics within the structure of the bilateral relationship between Azerbaijan and Turkey It features chapters by both scholars from the region and international experts in the field and therefore provides both in house and outside perspectives on developments within the complex structure of the relationship With its analysis portfolio including historical political economic socio cultural ideological and international underpinnings of this regional alliance the volume offers the most systematic and broad ranged analysis of the matter available to date The book will serve as an important resource for students and scholars of post Soviet Studies Central Asia and the Caucasus and the Middle East while also being of interest to those of International Relations and political science disciplines
