Sundiata An Epic Of Old Mali Text:

African Novels in the Classroom Margaret Jean Hay, 2000 Many teachers of African studies have found novels to be effective assignments in courses In this guide teachers describe their favourite African novels drawn from all over the continent and share their experiences of using them in the classroom

Alt 42: Oral and Written African Poetry and Poetics Author Ernest N Emenyonu, 2024-11-19 Examines the state of African poetry today the continuing influence of Africa's pioneer poets today's new generation of poets and their work in written poetry and in the spoken word continuing oral indigenous traditions Almost half a century after ALT 6 and thirty three years after ALT 16 what is the state of poetry and poetics in Africa This volume of ALT highlights major developments and continuities in the practice of the art of poetry in the continent Contributions analyse new frontiers in the traditional African epic and the Yoruba or k genre and innovations in form and theme such as spoken word poetry shared on digital media and pandemic poetry in the wake of COVID 19 They compare and contrast the work of Romeo Oriogun Christopher Okigbo and Gabriel Okara and of T S Eliot and Kofi Anyidoho Other essays examine the complexities of translation from Ewe into English and the development of oral African poetry underscoring its dynamism and the centrality of performance The volume also includes interviews with poets Kofi Anyidoho Kwame Dawes and Kehinde Akano and tributes to Ama Ata Aidoo Altogether it highlights the richness and vibrancy of contemporary praxis and points to future directions in the field

Sunjata David C. Conrad, Djanka Tassej Condé, 2004-01-01 A pillar of the West African oral tradition for centuries this epic traces the adventures and achievements of the Mande hero Sunjata as he liberates his people from Sumaworo Kant the sorcerer king of Soso and establishes the great medieval empire of Mali David Conrad conveys the strong narrative thrust of the Sunjata epic in his presentation of substantial excerpts from his translation of a performance by Djanka Tassej Cond Readers approaching the epic for the first time will appreciate the translation's highly readable poetic English as well as Conrad's informative Introduction and notes Scholars will find the familiar heroes and heroines taking on new dimensions secondary characters gaining increased prominence and previously unknown figures emerging from obscurity Thanks to his careful editing and translating of Cond's narrative Conrad offers a highly readable version of the epic that is about a third of its original length The translation communicates not only the poetic qualities and the essential events of the Sunjata legend but also the master bard's performance values Thus this rendering will fascinate those who already know the story and culture and those coming to the epic for the first time Conrad provides an excellent introduction to Mande oral tradition the role of the griot and the Manding belief system Though he makes no claim for this as the complete scholarly edition he does provide helpful scholarly notes a glossary and a good bibliography Summing up Highly recommended L W Yoder CHOICE

An Introduction to the African Prose Narrative Lokangaka Losambe, 2004 This collection of essays introduces students of African literature to the heritage of the African prose narrative starting from its oral base and covering its linguistic and cultural diversity The book brings together essays on both the classics and the relatively new works in all subgenres of the African prose narrative including the traditional epic the novel the short story and the autobiography The chapters are arranged according to the respective thematic paradigms under which the discussed works fall Telling Our Stories A. Alabi, 2005-04-15 Telling Our Stories investigates the continuities and divergences in selected Black autobiographies from Africa the Caribbean and the United States The stories of slaves creative writers and political activists are discussed both as texts produced by individuals who are products of specific societies and as interconnected books The book identifies influences of environmental and cultural differences on the texts while it adopts cross cultural and postcolonial reading approaches to examine the continuities and divergences in them African Literature and the Politics of Culture James Tar Tsaaio, 2013-11-01 This book essentially negotiates African literature as a veritable site of artistic and cultural production and situates it within the dynamic of postcolonial cultural politics It critically evaluates African literature as a contour of cultural contestation with the imperial politics of knowledge production about others and as an ideological strategy for knowing them The book's main contribution to the critical discourse on African literature and culture inheres in the fact that politics constitutes the enduring concern of society as it re shapes and over determines discourses which have continued to remain crucial to societal engineering It however imagines the discursive existence as necessary for the evolving of a dynamic African literary tradition with an abiding fidelity to the verities of history The book is useful for literary scholars historians critics experts and students of postcolonial cultural studies as well as general readership interested in African studies Social and Legal Theory in the Age of Decoloniality Warikandwa, Tapiwa Victor, 2018-06-08 Right from the enslavement era through to the colonial and contemporary eras Africans have been denied their human essence portrayed as indistinct from animals or beasts for imperial burdens Africans have been historically dispossessed and exploited Postulating the theory of global jurisprudential apartheid the book accounts for biases in various legal systems norms values and conventions that bind Africans while affording impunity to Western states Drawing on contemporary notions of animism transhumanism posthumanism and science and technology studies the book critically interrogates the possibility of a jurisprudence of anticipation which is attentive to the emergent New World Order that engineers human beings to become nonhumans while nonhumans become humans Connecting discourses on decoloniality with jurisprudence in the areas of family law environment indigenisation property migration constitutionalism employment and labour law commercial law and Ubuntu the book also juggles with emergent issues around Earth Jurisprudence ecocentrism wild law rights of nature Earth Court and Earth Tribunal Arguing for decoloniality that attends to global jurisprudential apartheid this tome is handy for legal scholars and practitioners social scientists civil society organisations policy makers and researchers interested in transformation decoloniality and Pan Africanism The Palgrave Handbook of Literary Translation Jean Boase-Beier, Lina Fisher, Hiroko Furukawa, 2018-06-26 This Handbook offers a comprehensive and engaging overview of contemporary issues in Literary Translation research through in depth investigations of actual case studies of particular works authors or translators Leading researchers from across the globe discuss best practice problems and possibilities in the translation of poetry novels memoir and theatre Divided into three sections these illuminating analyses also address broad themes including translation style the author translator reader relationship and relationships between national identity and literary translation The case studies are drawn from languages and language varieties such as Catalan Chinese Dutch English French German Hebrew Italian Japanese Nigerian English Russian Spanish Scottish English and Turkish The editors provide thorough introductory and concluding chapters which highlight the value of case study research and explore in detail the importance of the theory practice link Covering a wide range of topics perspectives methods languages and geographies this handbook will provide a valuable resource for researchers not only in Translation Studies but also in the related fields of Linguistics Languages and Cultural Studies Stylistics Comparative Literature or Literary Studies The Place of Core

Texts Association for Core Texts and Courses. Conference,2008-03-13 The focus of this book is on the theme of liberal education Some contributors explore our common humanity particularly the humanity of our teachers and students Others explore the dialogue of ideas the conversation that takes place across texts cultures and time Perhaps most importantly there is in these pages the primary conversation between the text and the student which teachers attempt to aid and cultivate Where it is the good life good artwork or the goodness of science all of the papers argue the criteria of inclusion for works in curricula as well as the purposes and means of core text programs Thus administrators scholars from all walks of academic life and dedicated teachers in the liberal arts will find themselves in the conversations of this book Whether one honors the ancients honors the moderns and postmoderns or honors the conversation between the three this is a must read for all college and university professors seriously concerned with liberal arts educations and its texts Peaceworks ,2006

African Literature and Its Times Joyce Moss,Lorraine Valestuk,2000 This volume focuses on major fiction poetry and non fiction from Africa Organized by title it discusses 50 works through detailed essays Medieval Africa , Understanding the Global Experience Thomas Arcaro,Rosemary Haskell,Chinedu Eke,Robert Anderson,Stephen Braye,Ann Cahill,Brian Digre,Anne Bolin,Mathew Gendle,Duane McClearn,Jeffrey Pugh,Laura Roselle,Jean Schwind,Kerstin Sorensen,Anthony Weston,2016-03-22 First Published in 2016 In this anthology of essays for Global Studies students the editors hope to encourage readers to live intelligent and thoughtful lives not only as citizens of their native countries but also as citizens of the world Son-Jara Fa-Digi Sisòkò,2003-10-30 The epic of Son Jara also known as Sunjata or Sundiata celebrates the exploits of the legendary founder of the Empire of Old Mali and is still widely recited among Mandekan speaking peoples of West Africa today As performed by griots or professional bards it embodies deeply rooted aspects of Mande cosmology and worldview This edition of the epic presents the full linear Mandekan text side by side with John William Johnson s important English translation Fully annotated and explained the text provides historical and contextual frameworks for understanding this African epic A complete recitation of the epic by Jeli fa Digi Sis k recorded in the town of Kita Mali is sold separately This powerful text and inspiring performance show why the epic of Son Jara has taken its place among the world s greatest epics

You Are What You Read Robert DiYanni,2022-10-25 How you can enrich your life by becoming a more skillful and engaged reader of literature We are what we read according to Robert DiYanni Reading may delight us or move us we may read for instruction or inspiration But more than this in reading we discover ourselves We gain access to the lives of others explore the limitless possibilities of human existence develop our understanding of the world around us and find respite from the hectic demands of everyday life In You Are What You Read DiYanni provides a practical guide that shows how we can increase the benefits and pleasures of literature by becoming more skillful and engaged readers DiYanni suggests that we attend first to what authors say and the way in which they say it rather than rushing to decide what they mean He considers the various forms of literature from the essay to the novel the short story to the poem demonstrating rewarding approaches to each in sample readings of classic works Through a series of illuminating oppositions he explores the paradoxical pleasures of reading solitary versus social reading submitting to or resisting the author reading inwardly or outwardly and more DiYanni closes with nine recommended reading practices thoughts on the different experiences of print and digital reading and advice on what to read and why Written in a clear inviting and natural style You Are What You Read is an essential guide for all who want to enrich their reading and their life The Oxford Guide to Literature in English

Translation Peter France,2000 Translation has been a crucial process in world culture over the past two millennia and more In the English speaking cultures many of the most important texts are translations from Homer to Beckett the Bible to Freud Although recent years have seen a boom in translation studies there has been no comprehensive yet convenient guide to this essential element of literature in English Written by eminent scholars from many countries the Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation meets this need and will be essential reading for all students of English and comparative literature It highlights the place of translation in our culture encouraging awareness of the issues raised making the translator more visible Concentrating on major writers and works it covers translations out of many languages from Greek to Korean from Swahili to Russian For some works e g Virgil s Aeneid which have been much translated the discussion is historical and critical showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions Elsewhere with less familiar literatures the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available The Guide is divided into two parts Part I contains substantial essays on theoretical questions a pioneering outline of the history of translation into English and discussions of the problems raised by specific types of text e g poetry oral literature The second much longer part consists of entries grouped by language of origin some are devoted to individual texts e g the Thousand and One Nights or writers e g Ibsen Proust but the majority offer a critical overview of a genre e g Chinese poetry Spanish Golden Age drama or of a national literature e g Hungarian Scottish Gaelic There is a selective bibliography for each entry and an index of authors and translators Black and White in Colour Vivian Bickford-Smith, Richard Mendelsohn, 2007 Black and White in Colour considers how the African past has been represented in a wide range of historical films Written by an eminent team of scholars the volume provides extensive coverage of issues that have been prominent in the written history of Africa Among the themes dealt with are the slave trade imperialism and colonialism racism and anti colonial resistance Many of the films will be familiar to readers they include Out of Africa Hotel Rwanda Lumumba Cry Freedom The Battle of Algiers and Ceddo VIVIAN BICKFORD SMITH works in the Historical Studies Department at the University of Cape Town RICHARD MENDELSON is currently the head of the Department of Historical Studies at the University of Cape Town North America Ohio U Press Southern Africa Double Storey Juta The Thinking Past Adrian Cole, Stephen Ortega, 2014-08-26 This book takes an analytical approach to world history Instead of proceeding through history descriptively it looks at several major questions and ideas such as the role of technology the development of universal religions global trade or participatory politics If this sounds thematic it is But it also progresses chronologically analyzing these themes as they apply in certain eras We use both primary sources in text and the latest scholarship as secondary source These we use frequently in each chapter both to employ the voices of scholars where they say things better than we could and footnote them for students reference We also hope to convey the sense that all this content is part of an ongoing debate amongst historians and scholars from different disciplines Finally we attempt to keep the text accessible by focusing on narrative elements of history and keeping in mind that the readers are undergraduates often with little exposure to the subject matter However the level of ideas remains high Provided by publisher The Middle Ages Frank N. Magill, 2012-11-12 Each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains 250 entries on the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history This is not a who's who Instead each entry provides an in depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual's life and achievements The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual's place in history All entries conclude with a fully annotated bibliography Teaching Africa Brandon D. Lundy, Solomon Negash, 2013-05-15 A valuable resource with useful ideas about how to enhance student engagement with the continent and expand Africa's presence within the curriculum Stephen Volz Kenyon College Teaching Africa introduces innovative strategies for teaching about Africa The contributors address misperceptions about Africa and Africans incorporate the latest technologies of teaching and learning and give practical advice for creating successful lesson plans classroom activities and study abroad programs Teachers in the humanities sciences and social sciences will find helpful hints and tips on how to bridge the knowledge gap and motivate understanding of Africa in a globalizing world
