left Cootamundra his small town in New South Wales Australia boarding a ship bound for Europe His letters home relayed the tales and adventures from England Europe and then from across the pond in North America Howse first wrote from onboard the S S Otranto en route across the Ocean to Europe from various ports along the way and once docked offering up keen impressions of the other side of the world From sleeping in haystacks along the road in Belgium working in the mines of Northern England to seeing some of the great stage actors in London and musicians in New York City the reader is given a rare look through the adventurous eyes of a young man coming of age When Howse returned back to his home 14 years later he found his mother had kept all of his letters in a leather travel bag atop her bedroom wardrobe A few years later after her death the bag had migrated to a back bedroom Subsequent visits found it progressively on the back porch to a shelf in the garage and finally rather unceremoniously under an awning but otherwise exposed to the Australian critters and weather Luckily Howse then reclaimed the letters These many letters are a joy to read giving the reader a window unto the optimistic possibilities of the 1950 s for a young traveler and the idea that even then the world was both enormous and familiar as there was always another young traveler easily found The stories in the letters will bring laughter wonder and hopefully tap into a sense of adventure for the reader to explore the world themselves
