Brinkley, James M. McPherson, 2003 The Educational Leader's Guide for School Scheduling Elliot Y. Merenbloom, Barbara A. Kalina, 2017-04-07 This essential resource provides strategies for the effective and equitable distribution of available FTEs throughout the district while helping you work through the many critical questions and decisions involved in the scheduling process Holt United States History Holt Rinehart & Winston, 2007 Rigorous Curriculum Design Larry Ainsworth, 2010 The need for a cohesive and comprehensive curriculum that intentionally connects standards instruction and assessment has never been more pressing For educators to meet the challenging learning needs of students they must have a clear road map to follow throughout the school year Rigorous Curriculum Design presents a carefully sequenced hands on model that curriculum designers and educators in every school system can follow to create a progression of units of study that keeps all areas tightly focused and connected Improving Instructional Practice Wafa Hozien, 2017-06-07 This book constitutes a collection of case studies that explore issues faced by school principals as is related to instructional leadership The scenarios presented here allow students to gain a more thorough understanding of the Professional Standards for Educational Leaders PSEL 2015 and their performance competencies These scenarios are designed to develop new school leaders These cases provide opportunities to create meaningful learning experiences for courses professional development programs and the mentoring of new school principals giving them exposure to the kinds of dilemmas they will encounter as they take on their leadership roles or start out on supervisory positions The cases are based on real life dilemmas reflect contemporary issues in our school buildings and are designed to be easily used or adapted across all school types The cases are taken from many years of experience as an educator administrator consultant and researcher in rural suburban and urban school districts Educating African American Students Gloria Swindler Boutte, 2022-07-12 This straightforward and reader friendly text provides strategies for P 12 educators who are interested in ensuring the cultural and academic excellence of African American students It presents a careful balance of published scholarship a framework for culturally relevant teaching and research based cases of teachers who excel at teaching Black children Examples from multi ethnic teachers across P 12 grades and content areas e g ELA science mathematics social studies arts are presented so that others can extrapolate in their respective educational settings This book explains Black culture anti Black racism African Diaspora Literacy African American Language and pro Black and actionable steps that educators can adopt and implement Examples of culturally relevant family and community involvement are provided As with the previous edition readers will appreciate a multitude of resources After reading this book educators will view educating African American students as exhilarating and rewarding and Black students will flourish Creating Literacy-Rich Schools for Adolescents Gay Ivey, Douglas Fisher, 2006-03-15 We know that literacy is the key to learning in school yet millions of middle and high school students lack the literacy skills they need to succeed What can educators do In Creating Literacy Rich Schools for Adolescents authors Gay Ivey and Douglas Fisher make a compelling case that all teachers across the content areas have a role to play in students development of literacy which they define as reading writing speaking listening and viewing Rather than focusing solely on reading instruction and the cliché that says all teachers are teachers of reading they urge teachers to incorporate rich literacy based learning experiences into their classrooms with the goal of helping students to learn and think across the curriculum With research based findings engaging examples and extensive lists of resources Ivey and Fisher encourage readers to Reexamine the materials experiences and expectations of the English language arts classroom Use strategies to improve literacy in all the content areas and seek alternatives to the traditional textbook Make independent reading an important part of students ongoing literacy development Design and use interventions that really work for struggling students and Consider the schoolwide elements professional development peer coaching leadership and assessment that should be in place to support teachers and students Essential questions provide the focus for each chapter and Quality Indicators for Secondary Literacy help readers gauge where they are on the continuum of providing a meaningful literacy experience for students Creating Literacy Rich Schools for Adolescents will inspire educators to take up this challenge in their own school with new confidence that the work is worthwhile and achievable Note This product listing is for the Adobe Acrobat PDF version of the book Professional Learning Journeys of Teacher Educators Brandon M. Butler, Jason K. Ritter, 2024-01-01 It is clear that teacher educators have ongoing professional learning and development needs Chief among these are continuing to learn about content developments and pedagogical practices useful for teaching a range of PK 12 students in varying contexts developing reflective competencies and sets of practices useful for teaching teacher candidates about teaching effectively balancing teaching commitments with institutional expectations for scholarship and service and forging useful understandings of identity across the spectrum of teacher educator responsibility and development over time including taking on managerial or administrative roles Working in institutions largely devoid of formal support mechanisms teacher educators are often left on their own to meet these needs and subsequently must create or seek out opportunities for their ongoing growth This volume explores in greater depth how exactly teacher educators engage in professional learning and development across their career trajectories University based teacher educator learning occurs in a range of settings and across the career span Contributors to this volume describe university based teacher educator learning spaces focused on their ongoing professional learning Such spaces include teacher educator communities of practice critical friendships self study learning groups faculty learning groups co mentoring and institutionally sponsored professional learning spaces America Pathways to the Present ,1995 Resources in Education ,2001
