Accounting Education for the 21st Century Jane O. Burns, Belverd E. Needles, 2014-06-28 Accounting practice whether in business or government is more dynamic more complex and addresses a wider array of issues than it did as little as five years ago Significant and rapid social political technological and economic changes are taking place in the world economy and it is increasingly recognised that accountants in all countries play a key role in the process of economic development Accounting education is undergoing a thorough review on a worldwide basis and major developments are taking place to produce quality accounting education that can keep pace with dramatic world change This book provides an up to date view of the state of accounting education throughout the world and focusses on the global challenges facing accounting education as we approach the millenium Encyclopedia of Library and Information Science Allen Kent, 1997-05-08 Supplement 23 AIDS HIV Programs and Services in Libraries to User Interface Evaluation The Neglected War Hermann Hiery, 1995-12-01 In the summer of 1914 Germany's Pacific colonies were a quiet backwater of its empire But the shots of Sarajevo shattered the Pacific as well as Europe Within weeks of the outbreak of World war I Western Samoa German territory to be taken in the war New Guinea and the Micronesian lands were occupied by Australian New Zealand and Japanese forces Current historiography claims that World War I made little difference to the indigenous populations of the Pacific and that this change in colonial masters had little effect on those they ruled The Neglected War challenges this interpretation World War I and its aftermath Hermann Hiery claims had a tremendous effect on the Pacific Islands Hiery details the policies pursued by Australia New Zealand and Japan showing how each viewed and treated the indigenous populations Administered by military officers with little civil oversight the new colonial regimes employed the mandates they had received at the Paris Peace Conference with impunity Hiery's scrupulous review of the evidence gathered from largely unknown primary sources has uncovered a story of masquerades and coverups negligence and duplicity leading in some cases to full blown atrocities Most of all he tells the story of Pacific Islanders how they coped with the dramatic changes brought about by the war and how they tried to influence its consequences Many Islanders were fully aware that their political destiny was to be redefined after the war and a few even saw it as an opportunity to achieve independence This is also the story of their failure Behind the evidence gathered here lie fundamental questions How important are the differences in the nature of particular colonial regimes and what effect do such differences have on indigenous peoples How do indigenous peoples interpret disparities in colonial rule This revisionist work addresses these issues while shedding light on a crucial time in the history of the Pacific Pangu Returns to Power Peter King, 1989 Examines the political background to the 1982 elections transverses such campaign issues as corruption and extravagance in government relations ith Indonesia

The Rise of Pacific Literature Matthew Hayward, Maebh Long, 2024-09-03 In the 1960s and 1970s the staff and students of two newly founded universities in the Pacific Islands helped foster a golden age of Oceanian literature At the University of Papua New Guinea and the University of the South Pacific bold experiments in curriculum design recentered literary studies around a Pacific modernity Rejecting the established British colonial model writer scholars placed Pacific oratory and a growing body of Oceanian writing at the heart of the syllabus From this local core students ventured outward to contemporary postcolonial literatures where they saw modernist techniques repurposed for a decolonizing world Only then did they turn to foundational modernist texts encountered at last as a set of creative tools rather than a canon to be copied or learned by rote The Rise of Pacific Literature reveals the transformative role and radical adaptations of global modernisms in this golden age Maebh Long and Matthew Hayward examine the reading and teaching of Pacific oral narratives European and American modernisms and African Caribbean and Indian literature tracing how Oceanian writers appropriated and reworked key texts and techniques They identify the local innovations and international networks that spurred Pacific literature's golden age by reading crucial works against the poetry prose and plays on the syllabi of the new universities Placing internationally recognized writers such as Albert Wendt Subramani Konai Helu Thaman Marjorie Crocombe and John Kasaipwalova alongside lesser known authors of works published in Oceanian little magazines this book offers a wide ranging new account of Pacific literary history that tells a fresh story about modernism's global itineraries and transformations

Photographing Papua Max Quanchi, 2009-03-26 Photographing Papua is a study of photography in the public domain in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries It argues that southeastern New Guinea known as British New Guinea and then as Papua when it became an Australian colony was created as a geographical place through visual representation in illustrated magazines and newspapers lavishly illustrated travelogues and mission hagiography serial encyclopedia lantern slides and postcards Readers knew Papua because many thousands of black and white photographs of Papuans villages and material culture rapidly swamped the reading public once the process of halftone newsprint reproduction became possible In an innovative and breakthrough fashion Photographing Papua switches attention from a few well known prints in museums and archives in some cases repeatedly reproduced but mostly rarely seen outside of scientific and scholarly circles It deals instead with thousands of photographs often used in ways not intended when the photograph was taken but which editors and publishers and subsequent photographers gradually made conform to an iconographic imperative a sort of abbreviated visual gallery of natives and a quick access pathway to the actual and imagined lives of Papuans in the last Unknown as New Guinea was titled It is a study of representation colonialism cross cultural encounters and the early world of illustrated media and photo journalism
