The Urdu Teacher Jawahir Singh, 1898 The Roman-Urdu Journal, 1878 Behavioural Science Research in India, a Directory Uday Narain Pareek, 1966 Beyond Macaulay Parimala V. Rao, 2024-12-10 Beyond Macaulay provides a radical and comprehensive history of Indian education in the early colonial era from 1780 to 1860. It critically explores data of 16,000 indigenous schools which shows that indigenous education was not oral informal and Brahmin centric but written formal and egalitarian. Based on rich archival evidence, the book challenges the conventional theory that the British administration imposed the English language and modern education on Indians. By including hitherto unused 41 Educational Minutes of Macaulay, the volume examines his educational ideas, his insistence on compulsory teaching of Indian languages in English schools, his encouragement of the Hindi language, his opposition to making Arabic as a medium of instruction in medical and technical education, opens up hitherto unknown perspectives on Orientalist/Modernist debates. Contrasting the educational ideas of the British elites and the Orientalists with dissenting Scottish voices, it shows that the colonial administration was not monolithic. The book discusses post-Macaulayan educational policies, closing down of Macaulay's schools and the Woods Despatch of 1854, as well as how people protected English schools during the revolt of 1857. This second edition is supplemented with complete student essays which reveal the students' use of the English language, classical imageries, the debates in Europe, and finally their own location in Indian society. The essays by upper caste, OBC, and Dalit students demonstrate their extraordinary competency and command over the English language. The book will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of education history, Indian history, the history of English language teaching in India, sociology, and political science.

Published By Thakur Publication Same-Sex Love in India R. Vanita, S. Kidwai, 2016-08-02 Same Sex Love in India presents a stunning array of writings on same sex love from over 2000 years of Indian literature. Translated from more than a dozen languages and drawn from Hindu, Buddhist, Muslim, and modern fictional traditions, these writings testify to the presence of same sex love in various forms since ancient times without overt persecution. This collection defies both stereotypes of Indian culture and Foucault's definition of homosexuality as a nineteenth century invention, uncovering instead complex discourses of Indian homosexuality, rich metaphorical traditions to represent it, and the use of names and terms as early as medieval times to distinguish same sex from cross sex love. An eminent group of scholars have translated these writings for the first time or have re-translated well known texts to correctly make evident previously underplayed homoerotic content. Selections range from religious books, legal and erotic treatises, story cycles, medieval histories, and biographies, modern novels, short
