Unleashing Social Justice through EU Public Procurement Antoinette Calleja, 2015-10-05 The dramatic results of the 2014 European Parliament elections have highlighted the European Union's urgent need for a review of the scope and purpose of its social objectives and for a reordering of European priorities This book advocates a radical and original alternative to the current philosophy that determines the set of rules for the awarding of EU public procurement contracts It calls for a reordering of the EU's economic and social priorities In doing so it advocates for a social dimension to be placed at the core of public procurement which could elicit a social model of integration in the EU in which the European citizen is the key actor This is achieved through an analytical approach as well as concise and contextualised explanations relating to free trade theories poverty and public interest theories This book will be of key interest to students and scholars of the European Union political theory and EU law

Defence Industrial Cooperation in the European Union Daniel Fiott, 2019-03-28 This book provides an empirical understanding of how EU level defence industrial cooperation functions in practice Using the Liberal Intergovernmental theoretical model the book argues that while national economic preferences are an essential factor of government interests they only explain part of the dynamic that leads to the development of defence industrial policy at EU level Moving beyond a simple adumbration of economic preferences it shows how the EU's institutional framework and corpus of law are used by governments to reaffirm their position as the ultimate arbiter and promoter of national economic preferences in the defence industrial sector To this end the work asks why and how EU member state governments European defence firms and EU institutions developed EU level defence industrial policy between 2003 and 2009 The book also analyses significant policy developments including the establishment of a European Defence Agency and two EU Directives on equipment transfers and defence procurement This book will be of much interest to students of EU policy defence studies security studies and International Relations in general

External Sector Report 2022 International Monetary Fund. Research Dept.,2022-08-04 Global current account balances the overall size of current account deficits and surpluses continued to widen in 2021 to 3.5 percent of world GDP and are expected to widen again this year The IMF's multilateral approach suggests that global excess balances narrowed to 0.9 percent of world GDP in 2021 compared with 1.2 percent of world GDP in 2020 The pandemic has continued to affect economies current account balances unevenly through the travel and transportation sectors as well as a shift from services to goods consumption Commodity prices recovered from the COVID 19 shock and started rising in 2021 with opposite effects on the external position of exporters and importers a trend that the war in Ukraine is exacerbating in 2022 The medium term outlook for global current account balances is a gradual narrowing as the impact of the pandemic fades away commodity prices normalize and fiscal consolidation in current account deficit economies progresses However this outlook is highly uncertain and subject to several risks Policies to promote external rebalancing differ with positions and needs of individual economies every part of the world It will comprise some two dozen volumes of which some provide synoptic views of the history of particular regions while others consider the world as a whole during a particular period of time The volumes are narrative in form giving balanced attention to social and cultural history in the broadest sense as well as to institutional development and political change Each provides a systematic account of a very large subject but they are also both imaginative and interpretative The Series is intended to be accessible to the widest possible readership and the accessibility of its volumes is matched by the style of presentation and production Trade Policy in Multilevel Government Christian

Freudlsperger, 2020-04-11 Trade Policy in Multilevel Government investigates how multilevel polities organize openness in a globalizing political and economic environment In recent years the multilevel politics of trade caught a broader public's attention not least due to the Wallonian regional parliament's initial rejection of the EU-Canada trade deal in 2016 In all multilevel polities competencies held by states and regions have increasingly become the subject of international rule setting This is particularly so in the field of trade which has progressively targeted so called behind the border regulatory barriers In their reaction to this deep trade agenda constituent units in different multilevel polities have shown widely varying degrees of openness to liberalizing their markets Why is that This book argues that domestic institutions and procedures of intergovernmental relations are the decisive factor Countering a widely held belief among practitioners and analysts of trade policy that involving subcentral actors complicates trade negotiations it demonstrates that the more voice a multilevel polity affords its constituent units in trade policy making the less the latter have an incentive to eventually exit from emerging trade deals While in shared rule systems constituent unit governments are directly represented along the entirety of the policy cycle in self rule systems territorial representation is achieved merely indirectly Shared rule systems are hence more effective than self rule systems in organizing openness to trade The book tests its theory's explanatory power on the understudied case of international procurement liberalization in extensive studies of three systems of multilevel government Canada the European Union and the United States Technology Offsets in International Defence Procurement Kogila

Balakrishnan, 2018-08-14 Technology offsets a nonconventional international trade financing tool is used by governments buyers to obtain industrial and technological benefits from companies sellers as part of international procurement Offsets deals involve billions of dollars and this practice exists in around 80 countries around the world Though offsets is a popular practice in defence it is increasingly gaining popularity in civil sectors Offsets is often tainted by controversy and receives bad press What then makes offsets popular Governments claim that offsets delivers technology and knowledge transfer skills in high technology sectors and employment and offsets expands export opportunities through participation in OEM supply chains For companies offsets is mainly employed as a tool to obtain a competitive edge and win sales in international business In the past there have been mixed results of case studies on the impact of offsets successes and failures Considering the mismanagement of globalisation unfair trade agreements and current political and economic discontent there is a stronger need for governments and companies to use vehicles such as offsets to create a relationship of trust and commitment for sustainable development This book fills the gap in offsets and focuses on how to manage offsets more effectively by addressing issues of strategy policy and implementation technology management governance and risk Technology Offsets in International Defence Procurement is designed for those studying international procurement international trade international business technology management defence policy and industrial policy This book will also be of interest to practitioners and policy makers in both government and industry Manual of the Legislature of New Jersey New Jersey. Legislature,1996 Public Procurement and the EU Competition Rules Albert Sánchez Graells,2015-06-25 Public procurement and competition law are both important fields of EU law and policy intimately intertwined in the creation of the internal market Hitherto their close connection has been noted but not closely examined This work is the most comprehensive attempt to date to explain the many ways in which these fields often considered independent of one another interact and overlap in the creation of the internal market This process of convergence between competition and public procurement law is particularly apparent in the 2014 Directives on public procurement which consolidate the principle of competition in terms very close to those advanced by the author in the first edition This second edition builds upon this approach and continues to ask how competition law principles inform and condition public procurement rules and whether the latter in their revised form are adequate to ensure that competition is not distorted The second edition also deepens the analysis of the market behaviour of the public buyer from a competition perspective Proceeding through a careful assessment of the general rules of competition and public procurement the book constantly tests the efficacy of these rules against a standard of the proper functioning of undistorted competition in the market for public procurement It also traces the increasing relevance of competition considerations in the case law of the Court of Justice of the European Union and sets out criteria and recommendations to continue influencing the development of EU Economic Law The United Kingdom Constitution N. W. Barber,2021-09-30 This volume provides an introduction to the United Kingdom s constitution that recognises and embraces its historical social political and legal dimensions It critically examines the radical changes to the UK constitution that have occurred over the last thirty years paying particular attention to the revival of the constituent territories of the UK Wales Scotland Northern Ireland and England and to the increasing role played by the judges in constitutional disputes The UK constitution is presented as being shaped by a set of constitutional principles including state sovereignty separation of powers democracy subsidiarity and the rule of law principles which set the overall structure of the constitution and inform statutes and the decisions of judges Adopting a principled approach to the UK constitution allows us to see both the clarity of the constitution s structure and also helps explain its complexities Copyright Class Struggle Hannibal Travis,2018-10-04 Employing law and philosophy of economics this book explores how copyright shapes ownership of ideas in the social media age Manajemen Pertahanan Assoc. Williamson, 2015-03-08 An irascible brilliant man trained as an economist Karl Helfferich became one of Wilhelmine Germany's leading financiers in the years after 1905 During World War I he held a series of important Reich offices and after 1918 became a leading right wing politician in the Weimar Republic As creator of the basic plan to stabilize the mark in 1923 he played a major role in ending the catastrophic postwar inflation John Williamson's biography of Helfferich thus reflects German controversies over the crucial political economic and social issues of the era 1895 1924 e.g. industrialization colonial development the Bagdad Railway and imperialism unrestricted submarine warfare wartime political reform war aims and postwar financial and foreign policy Originally published in 1971 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Shadow State Ivor Chipkin, Mark Swilling, Haroon Bhora, Mzukisi Qobo, Sikhulekile Duma, Lumkile Mondli, Camaren Peter, Mbongiseni Buthelezi, Hannah Friedenstein, Nicky Prins, 2018-07-01 A powerful analysis of events that helped galvanise resistance across civil society The 2017 publication of Betrayal of the Promise the report that detailed the systematic nature of state capture marked a key moment in South Africa's most recent struggle for democracy In the face of growing evidence of corruption and of the weakening of state and democratic institutions it provided for the first time a powerful analysis of events that helped galvanise resistance within the Tripartite Alliance and across civil society Working often secretly the authors consolidated for the first time large amounts of evidence from a variety of sources They showed that the Jacob Zuma administration was not simply a criminal network but part of an audacious political project to break the hold of whites and white business on the economy and to create a new class of black industrialists State Owned Enterprises SOEs such as Eskom and Transnet were central to these plans The report introduced a whole new language to discuss state capture showing how SOEs were repurposed how political power was shifting away from constitutional bodies to kitchen cabinets and how a shadow state at odds with the country's constitutional framework was being built. Shadow State is an updated version of the original explosive report that changed South Africa's recent history. Onufrienko, O.V. The convergence of public sector with civil society and private sector: Anglo-American and continental European approaches as opposing poles of the universal paradigm of public administration reforms in the 21st century. Olexii Onufrienko, Onufrienko O V. The convergence of public sector with civil society and private sector. Anglo American and continental European approaches as opposing poles of the universal paradigm of public administration reforms in the 21st century. Comparative research findings along with takeaways and forecasts strategies for post war reconstruction for Ukraine. a Monograph. Dnipro. GRANI 2022. 530 p. The monograph of O. Onufrienko testifying to the emergence of the comparative direction of the domestic doctrine of public governance to new scientific horizons summarizes the long term experience of comparative research of world regional and national paradigms of public sector reforms of the 21st century considered in the plane of complex and urgent issues of interaction between the main social actors: the state, civil society and private sector. The comparative research apparatus of the monograph directs scientific optics to the study of the motley map of the world practice of public governance and the results of its doctrinal understanding which usually remains invisible under national marking generalizing formulas such as the best world European experience. In accordance with the author's concept which introduced a number of new concepts and terms into scientific circulation, the monograph for the first time summarizes, systematizes and comprehensively interprets the leading conceptual and empirical approaches to the definition and interpretation of the desired parameters of the interaction of the public sector, civil society and the private sector generated by modern continental European and Anglo American doctrine and current practice of public administration reforms. As a result of the application of this concept, the author's hypothesis about the existence of a universal trend towards the convergence of the main social actors in developed countries where the state at the institutional level is represented by public administration bodies in general and the public service in particular was confirmed for the first time which however breaks down into distinctive approaches applied respectively in countries of the Anglosphere and EU countries. Based on the received new data, the probable consequences of Ukraine's strategic orientation on one or another foreign model basis are predicted. For scientists who represent the science of public governance including post graduate and doctoral students, for politicians and public servants who are interested in the trends in the practice of public sector reforms in foreign countries and the possibilities of reception of this experience on domestic soil.
