Demarketing Nigel Bradley, Jim Blythe, 2013-10-23 We all understand the basic principles underpinning marketing activity to identify unfulfilled needs and desires and boost demand for the solutions a product is offering The mantra is always sell more De marketing tries for the very opposite Why would a company actively try to decrease demand There are many good reasons to do so a firm cannot supply large enough quantities or wants to limit supply to a region of narrow profit margin Or crucially to discourage undesirable customers those that could be bad for brand reputation or in the case of the finance sector high risk De marketing can yield effective solutions to these issues effectively curtailing demand yet crucially not destroying it Nevertheless the fundamental negativity of de marketing strategies often causes organisations to hide them from view and as a result they are rarely studied This then is the first book to cast light on the secretive counterintuitive world of de marketing deconstructing its mysteries and demonstrating how to incorporate them into a profit driven marketing plan A selection of thought leaders in strategic marketing mix theory with illustrative global cases providing insight into how these strategies have been employed in practice and measuring their successes and failures It s a must read for any student or researcher that wants to think differently about marketing

Innovation Behavior Towards Consumer Goods of People in the age Group 50 and Above in Germany Sebastian Hof, 2012-03-08

Inhaltsangabe Introduction 1 1 Problem Statement It is a widely spread fact that everybody wants to become old but the fewest want to be old But it is also a fact that we cannot stop the age It may exist ways and means to keep your mental and physical skills in a good shape but with every day we will become older one day anyway The only alternative of getting older by the way doesn't seem to be much tempting why people accept the tide someday What in this case only is concerning the single one also applies to whole societies Tomorrow everybody will be older the group of the over 50s is continuously increasing So the aged will become more but will they also become older mental or physically as a consequence Nowadays an increasingly number of seniors is more healthy and powerful than their parent generation And they are highly attractive for companies but were disregarded for a long time when for example addressing advertisements May it be because they are seen as less open for new products or due to the fact that they are supposed to show less involvement when confronted with advertisement The reasons are multifarious But the same as our society will continuously change the over 50s have also changed in their behavior Companies haven't dealt with the over 50s as a target group for a long period of time Older people are often associated with gridlocked habits and a certain rejection to new things like already mentioned But is this true Do they act or react different due to their age than their younger counterparts Are the above mentioned prejudices in fact only the opinion of some companies This questions need to be answered especially when regarding the society change creeping over us

1.2 Terminologies All relevant terms concerning the title of this thesis will be explained in the following chapters For example the meaning of innovation is explained in chapter 4 Innovativeness and the meaning of consumer good will be explained in chapter about 3 Consumer Behavior The idea behind this is to guarantee that the words are understood when they are needed in a logical way

1.3 Goals and Structure of the Thesis This thesis aims to answer several questions First the reader should get a feeling for the socio demographic change we are facing in Germany and the consequential change not only for our society but also for our economy In the following it should be understood the over 50s main characteristics how they
