Youth, Globalization, and Society in Africa and Its Diaspora Jepkorir-Rose Chepyator-Thomson, Akinloye Ojo, Karim Traore, Katja Sonkeng, 2020-02-11 This edited collection provides a window into Africa's diversity. A wide-ranging body of authors offers a valuable glimpse into the challenges and opportunities presented by globalization to the youth in Africa and its diaspora while issuing a stern call for action to local governments to act now and tap into the energy of Africa's burgeoning youth population. In doing so, the authors expand extant literature on the continent's coping with globalization in the context of young people in various African nations. Featured in the collection are views on education, language, agriculture, sport, and technology deeply interwoven into the schooling behavior and health of youth. Specifically, these practices are found in both formal and non-formal education, agricultural production and food nutrition, computer technology, and sport's amelioration of health issues throughout Africa.

consists of a linked series of thirteen essays about subjects ranging from deciding to castrate a dog evaluating recent dog memoirs observing animals in Spain reading about the training of big cats watching Animal Planet and being unable to kill a racoon in Texas So often personal even while analyzing novels such as Water for Elephants or movies such as Giant or Into the Wild the essays offer both an implicit critique and a continuation of recent discursive trends in animal studies whose language is too haplessly abstracted from the animals in whose name we humans strive to speak as well as narrate

Management Principles Pieter Johannes Smit, 2012 Handbook of Research on Multidisciplinary Perspectives on Managerial and Leadership Psychology Johnson, Rick D., 2021-01-22 The subject of leadership and managerial psychology exists as a sub branch of psychology within the fields of industrial and organizational psychology There still appears to be ongoing debate regarding the core pathology for gaining managerial expertise in professional roles relative to having

J. Smit, 2007 Book CD To improve on an award winning book poses a major challenge to its authors The authors of this book took the challenge head on by conducting a major research study to determine what exactly the outcomes are that managers at different levels must deliver in contemporary organisations in South Africa and the rest of Africa The findings of this study which dealt with current and near future management issues as well as classical and contemporary thinking about management were used as the blueprint for the updating of this book After placing management in context the authors deal with the knowledge skills and dispositions required of managers to perform the management functions of planning organising leading and controlling in a volatile business world Examples of how the functions are applied in practice are cited throughout the book These examples refer mainly to South African organisations and situations that managers in South Africa and Africa have to deal with to create and sustain a competitive advantage for their organisations The book endeavours to break down the silo effect of seeing the management functions as separate activities This is done by continuously placing the management function at hand in a bigger context This enables learners of management to assess the implications of management decisions on different people processes systems and so on that make up the organisation The International Journal of Indian Psychology, Volume 4, Issue 1, No. 74 IJIP.In, 2016-10-30 The International Journal of Indian Psychology e ISSN 2348 5396 P ISSN 2349 3429 is an psychological peer reviewed academic journal that examines the intersection of Psychology Education and Home science The journal is an international electronic and print journal published in quarterly Safety and Health Competence Ulrike Bollmann, George Boustras, 2020-06-11 Global and technological transformation is changing
