Usmc Designated Marksman Manual:

Army, Navy, Air Force Journal & Register ,1955 Wanat ,2010 On 13 July 2008 nine American soldiers perished while fighting a pitched battle in the village of Wanat in Afghanistan's Waygal Valley. On that day the men of Company C 2d Battalion 503d Parachute Infantry Regiment endured four hours of intense close quarters combat and mounting casualties. The contingent of 49 United States and 24 Afghan National Army Soldiers valiantly defended their small outpost against a coordinated attack by a determined insurgent force armed with rocket propelled grenades and automatic weapons. Despite the initial advantage of tactical surprise and numerical superiority it was the insurgents who ultimately broke contact and withdrew from Combat Outpost Kahler. Army historians recognized the need to better understand the Battle of Wanat and ensure those who followed learned from the experiences of the courageous Soldiers who defended their outpost with such tenacity. As initial reports from the battle were received the Combat Studies Institute at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas began to prepare a historical analysis of the circumstances of the Battle of Wanat, launching an exhaustive research effort that produced a comprehensive and compelling example of contemporary history. This study offers an objective narrative of the events surrounding the Battle of Wanat. It does not seek to draw final conclusions or to second guess decisions made before or during the heat of battle. Rather it is an implement of learning allowing the reader to see the events of that day through the eyes of the leaders and Soldiers of Task Force Rock. It is meant to provide context to the chaos and complexity of modern conflict and to help the reader better understand and appreciate the nature of operations in an era of persistent conflict. Finally this study serves to honor and preserve the memories of the nine brave men who gave their lives at Combat Outpost Kahler.

Wanat : Combat Action In Afghanistan, 2008 [Illustrated Edition] Combat Studies Institute, 2014-08-15. Includes 16 maps, photos and plans. The Battle of Wanat occurred on July 13, 2008 when about 200 Taliban guerrillas attacked NATO troops near the Quam large clan village of Wanat in the Waygal district in Afghanistan's far eastern province of Nuristan. The position was defended primarily by U.S. Army soldiers of the 2nd Platoon, Chosen Company, 2nd Battalion 503rd Infantry Regiment, Airborne, 173rd Airborne Brigade Combat Team. The Taliban surrounded the remote base and its observation post and attacked it from the Quam and the surrounding farmland. They destroyed much of the Americans' heavy munitions, broke through U.S. lines and entered the main base before being repelled by artillery and aircraft. American casualties included nine killed and 27 wounded while four Afghan National Army (ANA) soldiers were wounded. The U.S. combat deaths represent the most in a single battle since the start of U.S. operations in 2001. The Battle of Wanat has been described as the Black Hawk Down of the War in Afghanistan as one of the bloodiest attacks of the war and one of several attacks on remote outposts. In contrast to previous roadside bombs and haphazard attacks and ambushes, this attack was well coordinated with fighters from many insurgent and terrorist groups with an effort that was disciplined and sustained, which was able to target key assets such as the TOW launcher with precision. The battle became the focus of widespread debate.

generating a great deal of interest and scrutiny among military professionals and from outside observers mainly due to the relatively significant number of coalition casualties
