Uwc Application For 2015:

From Hope to Action through Knowledge Ramesh Bharuthram, Larry Pokpas, 2020-10-27 Its November 2001 A university in dire straits financially bankrupt burdening a debt in excess of R100 million a disillusioned and demoralised staff complement still reeling from the trauma of retrenchments coupled with an academic project facing collapse as student numbers dwindle by a third to less than 10 000 Is there a future for such an institution described by some as a basket case with very bleak prospects of survival This was the landscape that confronted the newly appointed Vice Chancellor and Chief Executive Officer CEO of the University of the Western Cape Fast forward to December 2014 The CEO retires from office bestowing upon his successor a financially sound institution with a flourishing academic project recording unprecedented achievements enriching the lives of more than 20 000 students and widely acknowledged as a research led university This book narrates how visionary leadership with the steadfast belief that your past does not determine your future galvanised an entire organisation into believing that a better outcome was indeed achievable and the will to move forward as a collective with a redefined purpose and commitment to achieve that which was once deemed impossible ICEL2015-10th International Conference on e-Learning Dr Carlton Watson, 2015-06-12 These proceedings represent the work of researchers participating in the 10th International Conference on e Learning ICEL 2015 which is being hosted this year by the College of the Bahamas Nassau on the 25 26 June 2015 ICEL is a recognised event on the International research conferences calendar and provides a valuable platform for individuals to present their research findings display their work in progress and discuss conceptual advances in the area of e Learning It provides an important opportunity for researchers and managers to come together with peers to share their experiences of using the varied and expanding range of e Learning available to them With an initial submission of 91 abstracts after the double blind peer review process there are 41 academic Research papers and 2 PhD papers Research papers published in these Conference Proceedings These papers come from some many different countries including Australia Belgium Brazil Canada China Germany Greece Hong Kong Malaysia Portugal Republic of Macedonia Romania Slovakia South Africa Sweden United Arab Emirates UK and the USA A selection of the best papers those agreed by a panel of reviewers and the editor will be published in a conference edition of EJEL the Electronic Journal of e Learning www.ejel.com These will be chosen for their quality of writing and relevance to the Journal s objective of publishing papers that offer new insights or practical help into the application e Learning The European Landing Obligation Sven Sebastian Uhlmann, Clara Ulrich, Steven J. Kennelly, 2018-12-19 This open access book provides a comprehensive examination of the European Landing Obligation policy from many relevant perspectives It includes evaluations of its impacts at economical socio cultural ecological and institutional levels It also discusses the feasibility and benefits of several potential mitigation strategies The book was timely published exactly at the time where the Landing Obligation was planned to be fully implemented This book is of significant interest to all stakeholders involved but also to the general public of Europe and to other jurisdictions throughout the world that are also searching for ways to deal with by catch and discard issues

Decolonising the Future Academy in Africa and Beyond Michaela Pelican, Karim Zafer, Michael Bollig, 2025-02-27 What does it mean to decolonise academia in Africa Is this important project limited to the humanities Is it a project for the future Are there forerunners at African universities today The contributors to this volume show different trajectories for anthropology as a discipline and for decolonising academia across the continent and beyond They offer a variety of perspectives especially regarding collaboration between African and German scholars in the areas of research teaching and institutional development While some are hopeful and take inspiration from earlier experiences of disciplinary and methodological developments in academic decolonisation and international collaborations others remain critical and call for more radical attempts at decolonisation

A Century of Geography at Stellenbosch University 1920-2020 Gustav Visser, Jan de Waal, 2020-09-28 A Century of Geography at Stellenbosch University 1920 2020 focuses on the establishment and development of geography as an academic discipline at Stellenbosch South Africa s founding geography department The ways in which the department currently operates are deemed fundamentally joined to its past and pave the way for the evolution of geography and its various subdisciplines going forward The investigation seeks to highlight the development of the discipline and its institutionalisation as part of the academic offerings of the university while providing details about the teaching and research conducted as well as of the people who contributed to these endeavours It also furnishes the academic geography community at Stellenbosch and geography more broadly with some insights into its past development and more recent changes along with a complete bibliography of conducted research

Dear Comrade President André Odendaal, 2022-08-01 In his annual presidential address on 8 January 1986 ANC president Oliver Tambo called on South Africans to make apartheid ungovernable through armed action and militant struggle But unknown to the world on that very day the quiet spoken mathematics teacher and aspirant priest turned reluctant revolutionary had also set up a secret think tank in Lusaka which he named the Constitution Committee giving it an ad hoc unique exercise that had no precedent in the history of the movement Knowing that all wars end at a negotiating table and judging the balance of forces to be moving in favour of the liberation movement Tambo wanted the ANC to hold the initiative after the fall of apartheid Assisted by Pallo Jordan he instructed his new think tank to formulate the principles and draft the outlines of a constitution that could unite South Africa when the time came to talk in the fledgling days of freedom and democracy The seven member team including Albie Sachs Kader Asmal and Zola Skweyiya started deliberating and reporting to Tambo In correspondence they typically addressed him as Dear Comrade President Drawing on the personal archives of participants Dear Comrade President explains how the purposeful first steps were taken in the making of South Africa's Constitution Why and how did this process happen What were the first written words When and where were they put on paper By whom What values did they espouse And how did the committee's work fit into the broader struggle This book answers these questions in new paradigm shifting ways
