MANDALA

Journey to the Centre

Foreword by Dr. Brigitte Spillmann-Jenny, President, C. G. Jung Institute Zürich

A large, intricate mandala artwork is centered on the page. It features a complex, multi-layered design with a color gradient from deep blue and purple at the edges to bright yellow and orange in the center. The pattern is symmetrical and resembles a stylized flower or a celestial body. The background of the entire cover is a textured, light blue-grey.

Unashamedly a book for the bookish yet accessible and frequently entertaining this is the first book devoted to how libraries are depicted in imaginative writing Covering fiction poetry and drama from the late Middle Ages to the present it runs the gamut of British and American literature as well as examining a range of fiction in other languages from Rabelais and Cervantes to modern and contemporary French Italian Japanese and Russian writing While the tropes of the complex catalogue and the bibliomaniacal reader persist throughout the centuries libraries also emerge as societal battle sites where issues of personality gender cultural power and national identity are contested repeatedly and often in surprising ways As well as examining how libraries were deployed in their work by canonical authors from Cervantes Shakespeare and Swift to Jane Austen George Eliot and Jorge Luis Borges the volume also examines in detail the haunted libraries of Margaret Oliphant and M R James and a range of much less familiar historic and contemporary authors Alert to the depiction of librarians as well as of book rooms and institutional readers this book will inform entertain and delight At a time when traditional libraries are under pressure Libraries in Literature shows the power of their lasting fascination
