Why Did You Leave The Horse Alone:

Why Did You Leave the Horse Alone? Mahmoud Darwish, Mohammad Shaheen, 2014-11-01 A stunning new translation of Mahmoud Darwish's intertwining poetic narrative presenting a profound portrait of the Palestinian people the human condition and Darwish's own hopes and dreams Since Mahmoud Darwish's death his poetic writings continue to be read by an audience in awe This is a collection of autobiographical poetry designed to give an insight into the wider human condition Darwish explores the meaning of life identity and the impact of exile Hailed as the most important Arab poet of the modern day Darwish's voice has come to represent a generation and the Palestinian people in the midst of the tense political situation in the Middle East While Darwish explored themes of lost Eden exile and life after death he resisted classification as a spokesperson for the Palestinian cause and refused to use his art for purely political ends Darwish's was a nomadic existence much of it spent in international exile and these experiences lent his writing a cosmopolitan edge they partake of a worldwide mythology

Sacred Landscape Meron Benvenisti, 2000-03-01 As a young man Meron Benvenisti often accompanied his father a distinguished geographer when the elder Benvenisti traveled through the Holy Land charting a Hebrew map that would rename Palestinian sites and villages with names linked to Israel's ancestral homeland These experiences in Benvenisti's youth are central to this book and the story that he tells helps explain how during this century an Arab landscape physical and human was transformed into an Israeli Jewish state Benvenisti first discusses the process by which new Hebrew nomenclature replaced the Arabic names of more than 9 000 natural features villages and ruins in Eretz Israel Palestine his name for the Holy Land thereby defining it as a land of Jews and Arabs He then explains how the Arab landscape has been transformed through war destruction and expulsion into a flourishing Jewish homeland accommodating millions of immigrants The resulting encounters between two peoples who claim the same land have raised great moral and political dilemmas which Benvenisti presents with candor and impartiality Benvenisti points out that five hundred years after the Moors left Spain there are sufficient landmarks remaining to preserve the outlines of Muslim Spain Even with sustained modern development the ancient scale is still visible Yet a Palestinian returning to his ancestral landscape after only fifty years would have difficulty identifying his home Furthermore Benvenisti says the transformation of Arab cultural assets into Jewish holy sites has engendered a struggle over the signposts of memory essential to both peoples Sacred Landscape raises troublesome questions that most writers on the Middle East avoid The now buried Palestinian landscape remains a symbol and a battle standard for Palestinians and Israelis But it is Benvenisti's continuing belief that Eretz Israel Palestine has enough historical and physical space for the people of both nations and that it can one day be a shared homeland

The Cross in Contexts Raheb, Mitri, Henderson, Suzanne Watts, 2017-04-20 Why did Jesus die And in what ways did his crucifixion offer redemption to the world Those questions which lie at the heart of Christian faith remain a pressing concern for theological reflection What sets this work apart is that the authors a Palestinian theologian from Bethlehem and a New Testament scholar from the United States explore the meaning of the cross in light of both first and twenty first century Palestinian contexts Together their insights coalesce around themes that expose the divine power of the cross both for Jesus first followers and for contemporary readers alike

Conflict, Hegemony and Ideology in the Mutual Translation of Modern Arabic and Hebrew Literatures Mahmoud Kayyal, 2022-07-04 Can translations fuel intractable conflicts or contribute to calming them To what extent do translators belonging to conflicting cultures find themselves committed to their ethnic identity and its narratives How do translators on the seam line between the two cultures behave Does colonial supremacy encourage translators to strengthen cultural and linguistic hegemony or rather undermine it Mahmoud Kayyal tries to answer these questions and others in this book by examining mutual translations in the shadow of the Arab Israeli conflict and the hegemony relations between Israel and the Palestinians

Travel and Transformation Garth Lean, Russell Staiff, 2016-02-24 Travel and tourism have a long association with the notion of transformation both in terms of self and social collectives What is surprising however is that this association has on the whole remained relatively underexplored and unchallenged with little in the way of a corpus of academic literature surrounding these themes Instead much of the literature to date has focused upon describing and categorising tourism and travel experiences from a supply side perspective with travellers themselves defined in terms of their motivations and interests While the tourism field can lay claim to several significant milestone contributions there have been few recent attempts at a rigorous re theorization of the issues arising from the travel transformation nexus The opportunity to explore the socio cultural dimensions of transformation through travel has thus far been missed Bringing together geographers sociologists cultural researchers philosophers anthropologists visual researchers literary scholars and heritage researchers this volume explores what it means to transform through travel in a modern mobile world In doing so it draws upon a wide variety of traveller perspectives including tourists backpackers lifestyle travellers migrants refugees nomads walkers writers poets virtual travellers and cosmetic surgery patients to unpack a cultural phenomenon that has captured the imagination since the very first works of Western literature

Multiculturalism in Israel Adia Mendelson-Maoz, 2015-03-15 By analyzing its position within the struggles for recognition and reception of different national and ethnic cultural groups this book offers a bold new picture of Israeli literature Through comparative discussion of the literatures of Palestinian citizens of Israel of Mizrahim of migrants from the former Soviet Union and of Ethiopian Israelis the author demonstrates an unexpected richness and diversity in the Israeli literary scene a reality very different from the monocultural image that Zionism aspired to create Drawing on a wide body of social and literary theory Mendelson Maoz compares and contrasts the literatures of the four communities she profiles In her discussion of the literature of the Palestinian citizens of Israel she presents the question of language and translation and she provides three case studies of particular authors and their reception Her study of Mizrahi literature adopts a chronological approach starting in the 1950s and proceeding toward contemporary Mizrahi writing while discussing questions of authenticity and self determination The discussion of Israeli literature written by immigrants from the former Soviet Union focuses both on authors who write Israeli literature in Russian and of Russian immigrants writing in Hebrew The final section of the book provides a valuable new discussion of the work of Ethiopian Israeli writers a group whose contributions have seldom been previously acknowledged The picture that emerges from this groundbreaking book replaces the traditional homogeneous historical narrative of Israeli literature with a diversity of voices a multiplicity of origins and a wide range of different perspectives In doing so it will provoke researchers in a wide range of cultural fields to look at the rich traditions that underlie it in new and fresh ways In the Wake of the Poetic Najat Rahman,2015-09-28

Heralding a new period of creativity In the Wake of the Poetic explores the aesthetics and politics of Palestinian cultural expression in the last two decades As it increasingly gains a significant presence on the international scene much of Palestinian art owes a debt to Mahmoud Darwish one of the finest contemporary poets and to Palestinian writers of his generation Rahman maps the immense influence of Darwish s poetry on a new generation of performance artists visual artists spoken word poets and musicians Through an examination of selected works by key artists such as Suheir Hammad Ghassan Zaqtan Elia Suleiman Mona Hatoum Sharif Waked and others Rahman articulates an aesthetic founded on loss dispersion dispossession and transformation It interrupts dominant regimes constituting acts of dissension and intervention It reinscribes belonging and is oriented toward solidarity and future This innovative wave of experimentation transforms our understanding of the national through the diasporic and the transnational and offers a profound meditation on identity

Doll's Eye Sami Shalom Chetrit,2013-04-12 An American TV correspondent the daughter of a Palestinian mother and a Jewish father finds herself against her will at the heart of the Israeli Palestinian conflict She is dragged into a story of life and death which tears her apart with no solution This is a fascinating and exciting psychological political thriller which digs deep down into the complex Palestinian point of view in a way that was never done in fiction literature before Sami Shalom Chetrit is a writer and a poet He is a professor of Hebrew and Middle Eastern studies at Queens College CUNY Narratives of Transformative Reconciliation Gopi Devdutt Tripathy,Anurita Jalan,2025-09-26 This book looks at ethnographies of survival reconciliation and resilience in communities and individuals It interrogates the definition of happiness hope and despair and explores how communities and individuals navigate life when besieged by trauma and the processes they must go through to enable healing Devastations caused by violence force people to look for ways to deal with seemingly irreconcilable life circumstances Sometimes these efforts are individual and sometimes collective People draw on a variety of resources such as religion culture family and kinship networks friends literature storytelling art theatre and counselling to come to grips with their circumstances This volume discusses such efforts through a multidisciplinary lens It looks at ethnographic accounts of communities and individuals that showcase methods used to renegotiate reconfigure the pain and to enable a life of dignity healing and social transformation It also looks at violence memory trauma dislocation through different prisms Part of the Social Movements and Transformative Dissent series this book will be of interest to students academicians activists and all those engaged with the study of trauma studies mental health philosophy of psychology behavioural sciences philosophy humanities clinical psychology gender and peace and conflict studies      The Drone Eats with Me Atef Abu Saif,2016-07-05 An ordinary Gazan s devastating contemporary war journal that chronicles his fear sadness and boredom during Israel s 2014 invasion of Gaza Michael Ondaatje author of The English Patient The Drone Eats with Me is an unforgettable rendering of everyday civilian life shattered by the realities of twenty first century warfare Israel s 2014 invasion of Gaza lasted 51 days killed 2 145 Palestinians 578 of them children injured over 11 000 people and demolished more than 17 000 homes Atef Abu Saif a young father and novelist puts an indelibly human face on these statistics providing a rare window into the texture of a community and the realities of a conflict that is too often obscured by politics      Arabic Literature for the Classroom Mushin al-Musawi,2017-04-21 This book presents theoretical and methodical cultural concerns in teaching literatures from non American cultures along with issues of cross cultural communication cultural competency and translation Covering topics such as the 1001 Nights Maqamat Arabic poetry women s writing classical poetics issues of gender race and class North African concerns language acquisition through literature Arab spring writing women s correspondence issues connected with the so called nahdah revival movement in the 19th century and many others the book provides perspectives and topics that serve in both the planning of new courses and accommodation to already existing programs      Israel Denial Cary Nelson,2019-06-07 A work of rigorous intellectual inquiry critiquing the BDS movement in academia Jewish Journal Israel Denial is the first book to offer detailed analyses of the work faculty members have published individually and collectively in support of the Boycott Divestment and Sanctions BDS movement it contrasts their claims with options for promoting peace The faculty discussed here have devoted a significant part of their professional lives to delegitimizing the Jewish state While there are beliefs they hold in common including the conviction that there is nothing good to say about Israel they also develop distinctive arguments designed to recruit converts to their cause in novel ways They do so both as writers and as teachers Israel Denial is the first to give substantial attention to anti Zionist pedagogy No effort to understand the BDS movement s impact on the academy and public policy can be complete without the kind of understanding this book offers A co publication of the Academic Engagement Network      Mahmoud Darwish Dalya Cohen-Mor,2019-08-05 Mahmoud Darwish Palestine s Poet and the Other as the Beloved focuses on Palestinian national poet Mahmoud Darwish 1941 2008 whose poetry has helped to shape Palestinian identity and foster Palestinian culture through many decades of the Israeli Palestinian conflict Dalya Cohen Mor explores the poet s romantic relationship with Rita an Israeli Jewish woman whom he had met in Haifa in his early twenties and to whom he had dedicated a series of love poems and prose passages among them the iconic poem Rita and the Gun Interwoven with biographical details and diverse documentary materials this exploration reveals a fascinating facet in the poet s personality his self definition and his attitude toward the Israeli other Comprising a close reading of Darwish's love poems coupled with many examples of novels and short stories from both Arabic and Hebrew fiction that deal with Arab Jewish love stories this book delves into the complexity of Arab Jewish relations and shows how romance can blossom across ethno religious lines and how politics all too often destroys it      Resignifying Migration and Minorities' Cultural Contact in Brazil Sylvia Dantas, Paulo Daniel Farah, 2025-06-14

This volume provides in depth discussions on the challenges of intercultural encounters in Brazil It analyzes existing policies related to migration and minorities and proposes innovative approaches to policy making It also highlights policies that have had a real social impact The volume consolidates theoretical contributions from authors of different but convergent fields to indicate the role of culture and cultural processes in a wide range of phenomena such as psychosocial intervention with immigrants emigrants returnees and refugees homelessness mental health and interculturality mobility in urban settings monolingualism and monocultural curriculum at Brazilian schools and universities besides narratives of new and older immigrants Displacement is one of the 21st century's greatest challenges and this volume provides interdisciplinary perspectives on mobility and people in cultural contact in Brazil the largest country in South America and the fifth most populous in the world Although seen from a Brazilian scenario issues discussed here permeate all other countries that are diverse and receive immigrants and shed light on the complex socio cultural world in which we live      The Routledge Handbook of Muslim-Jewish Relations

Josef Meri, 2016-06-23 The Routledge Handbook of Muslim Jewish Relations invites readers to deepen their understanding of the historical social cultural and political themes that impact modern day perceptions of interfaith dialogue The volume is designed to illuminate positive encounters between Muslims and Jews as well as points of conflict within a historical framework Among other goals the volume seeks to correct common misperceptions about the history of Muslim Jewish relations by complicating familiar political narratives to include dynamics such as the cross influence of literary and intellectual traditions Reflecting unique and original collaborations between internationally renowned contributors the book is intended to spark further collaborative and constructive conversation and scholarship in the academy and beyond

Lemony Maria Durand, 2023-06-05 At the age of almost eleven and almost thirteen years it's finally time for Mosquito's and Jo's first riding lesson At the neighbouring equestrian centre the Spanish riding teacher Joseba is taking them on and teaching them to ride according to old tradition and skill Besides their new four legged friends Trudy and Kimba they also get to know Lemony Arguably the most beautiful horse in the whole world is also the scariest horse at the stable Just as Jo and Mosquito start to get to know Lemony better he disappears overnight and Cloudlet takes over his place Grief stricken Jo soon finds out that something is wrong with Cloudlet But what And where did Lemony disappear to Read the whole story

Report, 1889      Classics Transformed in Jewish, Israeli, and Palestinian Receptions, 2025-02-19 Classics Transformed in Jewish Israeli and Palestinian Receptions invites the reader to view classical antiquity through the writings of poets translators and scholars emerging from modern Jewish diasporas Mandatory Palestine and the State of Israel who engaged with Greek and Roman literary precedents Whereas these voices have up to now been mostly studied independently of one another as separate fields of research this volume brings some of these distinct voices who nevertheless share a connection to Greco Roman antiquity into conversation with one another Taking its cue from the crisis of humanism following the Holocaust the chapters take as their themes the destruction of home displacement and different forms of wandering and homecomings drawing connections to acts of translation and transmission of the classics to form a picture of cultural and textual states of alterity The volume shows that Jewish Israeli and Palestinian responses to the classics are entangled and even complementary despite their different trajectories The chapters included here focus particularly on critical moments in Jewish and Palestinian existence when the reception of classical humanism is closely linked to issues of survival On offer here is a historically grounded investigation into the ways Jews Israelis and Palestinians have used classical antiquity and classical philology to validate their identity in a rapidly changing society

Exile and Expatriation in Modern American and Palestinian Writing Ahmad Rasmi Qabaha, 2018-05-23 This book examines the distinction between literary expatriation and exile through a contrapuntal reading of modern Palestinian and American writing It argues that exile in the Palestinian case especially is a political catastrophe it is banishment by a colonial power It suggests that unlike expatriation a choice of a foreign land over one's own exile is a political rather than an artistic concept and is forced rather than voluntary while exile can be emancipatory it is always an unwelcome loss In addition to its historical dimension exile also entails a different perception of return to expatriation This book frames expatriates as quintessentially American particularly intellectuals and artists seeking a space of creativity and social dissidence in the experience of living away from home At the heart of both literary discourses however is a preoccupation with home belonging identity language mobility and homecoming Like a Straw Bird It Follows Me Ghassan Zaqtan, 2012-04-24 A translation of the works of one of a key Palestinian poet contains his 10th and most recent poetry collection along with selected earlier poems that illuminate the vision of what Arabic and Palestinian poetry are capable of
