- I've chose cosmetology for many reasons. For a couple years now I've been wanting to do it. When I was growing up, my baby sitter did it and she loved it. I know a little bit about it now and it seems like a fun job! Being a cosmetologist means you can do hair, nails, makeup, and care for skin.

Rites of Way Mark Kingwell, Patrick Turmel, 2011-04-07 There are many ways to approach the subject of public space the threats posed to it by surveillance and visual pollution the joys it offers of stimulation and excitement of anonymity and transformation its importance to urban variety or democratic politics But public space remains an evanescent and multidimensional concept that too often escapes scrutiny The essays in Rites of Way The Politics and Poetics of Public Space open up multiple dimensions of the concept from architectural political philosophical and technological points of view There is some historical analysis here but the contributors are more focused on the future of public space under conditions of growing urbanization and democratic confusion The added interest offered by non academic work visual art fiction poetry and drama is in part an admission that this is a topic too important to be left only to theorists It also makes an implicit argument for the crucial role that art not just public art plays in a thriving public realm Throughout this work contributors are guided by the conviction not pious but steely that healthy public space is one of the best living parts of a just society The paths of desire we follow in public trace and speak our convictions and needs our interests and foibles They are the vectors and walkways of the social the public dimension of life lying at the heart of all politics
