Wife Pegs Husband:

Bond Plays: 2 Edward Bond, 2014-01-01 The internationally acclaimed dramatist Edward Bond endures as one of the towering figures of contemporary British theatre His plays are read at schools and university level Edward Bond is the most radical playwright to have emerged from the sixties Lear Bond s greatest and biggest play It is even more topical now and will become more so as man s inhumanity gains subtle sophistication with the twenty first century s approach The Times The Sea It blends wild farce with tragedy and ends with a sliver of hope what makes the play fascinating is Bond s bleak poetry and social comedy Guardian Narrow Road to the Deep North His best piece so far No one else could have written it The Times Black Mass written for performance at an anti apartheid demonstration A Georg Grosz picture come to life the only possible kind of artistic imagery through which to speak of such evil Listener Passion a play for CND Mingles comedy and high anger with absolute sureness Guardian Edward Bond is one of our outstanding playwrights He is already an acknowledged classic Plays and Players Lear Edward Bond, 2013-11-12 Edward Bond s version of Lear s story embraces myth and reality war and politics to reveal the violence endemic in all unjust societies He exposes corrupted innocence as the core of social morality and this false morality as a source of the aggressive tension which must ultimately destroy that society In a play in which blindness becomes a dramatic metaphor for insight Bond warns that it is so easy to subordinate justice to power but when this happens power takes on the dynamics and dialectics of aggression and then nothing is really changed

The Parihaka Woman Witi Ihimaera, 2011-10-07 A wonderfully surprising inventive and deeply moving riff on fact and fiction history and imagination from one of New Zealand s finest and most memorable storytellers There has never been a New Zealand novel quite like The Parihaka Woman Richly imaginative and original weaving together fact and fiction it sets the remarkable story of Erenora against the historical background of the turbulent and compelling events that occurred in Parihaka during the 1870s and 1880s Parihaka is the place Erenora calls home a peaceful Taranaki settlement overcome by war and land confiscation As her world is threatened Erenora must find within herself the strength courage and ingenuity to protect those whom she loves And like a Shakespearean heroine she must change herself before she can take up her greatest challenge and save her exiled husband Horitana His Studio Wife V. Jane Gordon, 1928 Making Marriage Work

Kristin Celello, 2009 By the end of World War I the skyrocketing divorce rate in the United States had generated a deep seated anxiety about marriage This fear drove middle class couples to seek advice both professional and popular in order to strengthen their relationship Wives and Husbands Loretta Fowler, 2012-10-01 In Wives and Husbands distinguished anthropologist Loretta Fowler deepens readers understanding of the gendered dimension of cultural encounters by exploring how the Arapaho gender system affected and was affected by the encounter with Americans as government officials troops missionaries and settlers moved west into Arapaho country Fowler examines Arapaho history from 1805 to 1936 through the lens of five cohorts groups of women and men born during different year spans Through the life stories of individual

Arapahos she vividly illustrates the experiences and actions of each cohort during a time when Americans tried to impose gender asymmetry and to undermine the Arapahos hierarchical age relations Fowler examines the Arapaho gender system and its transformations by considering the partnerships between rather than focusing on comparisons of women and men She argues that in particular cohorts partnerships between women and men both in households and in the community shaped Arapahos social and cultural transformations while they struggled with American domination Over time Arapahos both reinforced and challenged Arapaho hierarchies while accommodating and resisting American dominance Fowler shows how in the process of reconfiguring their world Arapahos confronted Americans by uniting behind strategies of conciliation in the early nineteenth century of civilization in the late nineteenth century and of confrontation in the early twentieth century At the same time women and men in particular cohorts were revamping Arapaho politico religious ideas and organizations Gender played a part in these transformations giving shape to new leadership traditions and other adaptations The St.

The Anatomy of Meaning N. J. Enfield, 2012-10-04 How do we understand what others are trying to say The answer cannot be found in language alone Words are linked to hand gestures and other visible phenomena to create unified composite utterances In this book N J Enfield presents original case studies of speech with gesture based on fieldwork carried out with speakers of Lao a language of Southeast Asia He examines pointing gestures including lip and finger pointing and illustrative gestures examples include depicting fish traps and tracing kinship relations His detailed analyses focus on the semiotic unification problem that is how to make a single interpretation when multiple signs occur together Enfield s arguments have implications for all branches of science with a stake in meaning and its place in human social life The book will appeal to all researchers interested in the study of meaning including linguists anthropologists and psychologists

The Powerful Ephemeral Carla Bellamy, 2011-08-05 The violent partitioning of British India along religious lines and ongoing communalist aggression have compelled Indian citizens to contend with the notion that an exclusive fixed religious identity is fundamental to selfhood Even so Muslim saint shrines known as dargahs attract a religiously diverse range of pilgrims In this accessible and groundbreaking ethnography Carla Bellamy traces the long term healing processes of Muslim and Hindu devotees of a complex of dargahs in northwestern India Drawing on pilgrims narratives ritual and everyday practices archival documents and popular publications in Hindi and Urdu Bellamy considers questions about the nature of religion in general and Indian religion in particular Grounded in stories from individual lives and experiences The Powerful Ephemeral offers not only a humane highly readable portrait of dargah culture but also new insight into notions of selfhood and religious difference in contemporary India

Isaiah Leslie J. Hoppe, 2012 Although the circumstances under which this book took its present form remain in scholarly dispute Leslie Hoppe highlights its literary and theological purpose to provide the people of Judah and Jerusalem with hope for the future and the will to re embrace their ancestral religious traditions

God's Marriage Code of Conduct Joy Callahan, 2012-03-06 For unhappy marriages or for married couples who act more as roommates than husband and wife God s Marriage Code of Conduct can help hurting couples overcome the loneliness and trials within their marriage Author Joy Callahan shares what she learned from her own failing marriage and how she used God s blueprint to save it She lays out Biblical principles and God s laws that if not followed can cripple a marriage By embracing His truth marriages can be restored to a lifetime of passion and peace The uncivilized races of men in all countries of the world; vol. 2 of 2 J. G. Wood,2023-07-10 In the second volume of The Uncivilized Races of Men in All Countries of the World J G Wood delves into the ethnographic study of various indigenous cultures exploring their social structures traditions and interactions with the encroaching modern world Written in the 19th century Wood s literary style combines vivid descriptive prose with a scientific rigor typical of the Victorian curiosity about human diversity He employs detailed observations reflective insights and an often romanticized narrative to portray the lives of these uncivilized peoples challenging readers to reconsider their preconceptions about civilization and cultural hierarchy J G Wood was a prominent naturalist author and educator whose passion for exploration and anthropology profoundly shaped his works His experiences as a natural historian combined with his deep rooted interest in the complexities of human cultures inspired him to produce comprehensive studies that resonate with the socio political dynamics of his time Wood s writings reflect the period s fascination with the exotic yet they also resonate with the underlying tensions stemming from colonial attitudes and the quest for a deeper understanding of mankind s varied expressions This volume is essential reading for scholars and enthusiasts of anthropology history and colonial studies Wood s blend of narrative and scholarly inquiry invites readers into a complex dialogue about race culture and civilization As such it serves not only as a historical document but also as a catalyst for contemporary discussions on cultural diversity and the ethical implications of Western perceptions of the other The Uncivilized Races of Men in All Countries of the World John George Wood,1876
