Maria Leonard Olsen

Wild By Cheryl Strayed Knopf July 15 22:

Nature Shock Jon T. Coleman, 2020-08-12 An award winning environmental historian explores American history through wrenching tragic and sometimes humorous stories of getting lost The human species has a propensity for getting lost The American people inhabiting a mental landscape shaped by their attempts to plant roots and to break free are no exception In this engaging book environmental historian Jon Coleman bypasses the trailblazers so often described in American history to follow instead the strays and drifters who went missing From Hernando de Soto's failed quest for riches in the American southeast to the recent trend of getting lost as a therapeutic escape from modernity this book details a unique history of location and movement as well as the confrontations that occur when our physical and mental conceptions of space become disjointed Whether we get lost in the woods the plains or the digital grid Coleman argues that getting lost allows us to see wilderness anew and connect with generations across five centuries to discover a surprising and edgy American identity

50 After 50 Maria Leonard Olsen, 2018-06-15 At age 50 Maria Leonard Olsen drank her way out of a 25 year marriage She had against advice put all her eggs in the motherhood basket willfully derailing her successful law career As teenagers her precious children did not need her in the hands on way they previously had Her husband and she had grown apart because among other things they failed to nurture that important relationship She was depressed and stuck When she turned 50 she had the distinct feeling that she was on the downward slope of her life Actuarially speaking she was So when she turned 50 her gift to herself was to go on a crusade to make the most of whatever time she had left She set out to do 50 new things that were significant at least to her The list spanned physical challenges adventure travel and lifestyle changes Each taught her something about herself and about how she wanted to lead the next years of her life to come This work follows the work she did to accomplish those 50 new things and shows readers how to make their own action lists whether it be joining a knitting club or hiking the Himalayas every item has significance for each individual and speaks to her needs and desires The list is the match to spark the fire that will light the years after 50 Readers will hear about Maria's adventures and the rewards of each Accomplishing new things learning new skills deepening personal and spiritual relationships and seeking out challenges will add the spice to a life that may feel repetitive insignificant inauthentic or just plain boring Colonialism
