Wildlife Wars Richard Leakey :

Wildlife Wars Richard Leakey, 2011-11-21 Richard Leakey spent years trying to save Africa's animals. Now he's trying to save a nation. Leakey began his career following in the footsteps of his famous parents Mary and Louis and becoming a renowned paleoanthropologist and head of Kenya's National Museums. In 1989 Kenyan president Daniel arap Moi put Leakey in charge of the Kenyan Wildlife Service. Ivory poachers were killing hundreds of elephants annually and the organisation was close to collapse. Leakey sacked corrupt rangers and brought in millions of dollars from international donors to help enforce a ban on the ivory trade. But when Moi accused the service of corruption, Leakey quit, later forming an opposition party. He clashed with Moi but in July 1999 Moi appointed him head of Kenya's civil service and secretary to the Cabinet. He is now charged with ridding the government of corruption and jumpstarting the economy. Leakey's clashes with poachers and the dictator Moi will provide a dramatic focus for the book. He will also detail the challenge he faced when he lost both his legs in a plane crash that many believe to have been caused by sabotage. He has had over 30 operations to allow him to walk again.

Wildlife Wars Richard Leakey, Virginia Morell, 2014-06-17 Leakey tells his story well in this wonderful inside look at the politics of wildlife protection in a developing country. Booklist In this engrossing memoir, one of the most controversial, influential, and inspirational figures in African politics today gives the full story of his crusade to save Kenya's natural resources and specifically the African elephant, a crusade that set him against internal corruption, poverty, and dangerous criminals. Sometimes at the risk of his own life, Leakey's love of Kenya and his convictions about the direction his country and all of sub-Saharan Africa must take to survive have been unshakeable. Wildlife Wars is the odyssey of an extraordinary man in an extraordinary land. A brisk and vividly personal story, the memoir will fascinate anyone interested in conservation or East African politics. Publishers Weekly As an effective champion of wildlife, Leakey appears to have few equals. Highly recommended. Library Journal

Wildlife Wars Richard E. Leakey, Virginia Morell, 2001 In this engrossing memoir, one of the most controversial, influential, and inspirational figures in African politics today gives the full story of his crusade to save Kenya's natural resources and specifically the African elephant, a crusade that set him against internal corruption, poverty, and dangerous criminals. Sometimes at the risk of his own life, Leakey's love of Kenya and his convictions about the direction his country and all of sub-Saharan Africa must take to survive have been unshakeable. Wildlife Wars is the odyssey of an extraordinary man in an extraordinary land. Crass Struggle R. T. Naylor, 2011 From class struggle to crass struggle, that is the defining feature of the times. And the genius of today's political economy has been to convert what used to be a potential life and death conflict between haves and have-nots into a minor disagreement between have-lots and wanna-have-mores. Why do those who are extremely well off spend their money in socially and environmentally damaging ways? How do crooks, con artists, and counterfeiters function in the hypercharged markets catering to the whims and fancies of the very rich, and why do so many of the less fortunate insist on slavishly emulating the uber-rich spending way beyond what their limited means allow A critique of the lifestyles of today's ultra rich bolstered by old fashioned muckraking Crass Struggle provides a sharp original and often humorous commentary on the bad side of the good life The underbelly of the potbelly Taking the reader inside today's luxury trades R T Naylor visits gold mines spewing arsenic and diamond fields spreading human misery knocks on the doors of purveyors of luxury seafood as the oceans empty samples wares of merchants offering top vintage wines or at least top vintage labels calls on companies running trophy hunting expeditions and dealers in exotic pets high on endangered lists and much more What stands out is that so many high priced items glitter on the outside but have more than a spot of rot at the core Through a series of outrageous but all too true stories Crass Struggle reveals the appalling consequences of consumerism run amok and its links to repetitive financial swindles And The alarming degradation of the biophysical environment

The Science of Positivity Loretta Graziano Breuning, 2016-12-02 The Science of Positivity teaches you how cynical thought habits are formed and how you can rewire yourself to go beyond them

Rethinking Evolution in the Museum Monique Scott, 2007-11-19 Rethinking Evolution in the Museum explores the ways diverse natural history museum audiences imagine their evolutionary heritage In particular the book considers how the meanings constructed by audiences of museum exhibitions are a product of dynamic interplay between museum iconography and powerful images museum visitors bring with them to the museum In doing so the book illustrates how the preconceived images held by museum audiences about anthropology Africa and the museum itself strongly impact the human origins exhibition experience Although museological theory has come increasingly to recognize that museum audiences make meaning in exhibitions or make their own complex interpretations of museum exhibitions few scholars have explicitly asked how Rethinking Evolution in the Museum however provides a rare window into visitor perceptions at four world class museums the Natural History Museum and Horniman Museum in London the National Museums of Kenya in Nairobi and the American Museum of Natural History in New York Through rigorous and novel mixed methods quantitative and qualitative covering nearly 500 museum visitors this innovative study shows that audiences of human origins exhibitions interpret evolution exhibitions through a profoundly complex convergence of personal political intellectual emotional and cultural interpretive strategies This book also reveals that natural history museum visitors often respond to museum exhibitions similarly because they use common cultural tools picked up from globalized popular media circulating outside of the museum One tool of particular interest is the notion that human evolution has proceeded linearly from a bestial African prehistory to a civilized European present Despite critical growths in anthropological science and museum displays the outdated Victorian progress motif lingers persistently in popular media and the popular imagination Rethinking Evolution in the Museum sheds light on our relationship with natural history museums and will be crucial to those people interested in understanding the connection between the visitor the museum and media culture outside of the museum context

The Extinction Market Vanda Felbab-Brown, 2017 Emphasizes the disturbing consequences poaching and trafficking pose globally in terms of both biodiversity and public health Nature's Strongholds Laura Riley, William Riley, 2005 Covers more than 600 reserves in over 80 countries includes information on how to visit these extraordinary sites their ecological significance and some historical background Securing Wilderness Landscapes in South Africa Harry Wels, 2015-05-12 Private wildlife conservation is booming business in South Africa Nick Steele stood at the cradle of this development in the politically turbulent 1970s and 1980s by stimulating farmers in Natal now KwaZulu Natal to pool resources in order to restore wilderness landscapes but at the same time improve their security situation in cooperative conservancy structures His involvement in Operation Rhino in the 1960s and subsequent networks to save the rhino from extinction brought him into controversial military oriented networks around the Western world The author's unique access to his private diaries paints a personal picture of this controversial conservationist Environmental Ethics Bob Jickling, Heila Lotz-Sisitka, Lausanne Olvitt, Rob O'Donoghue, Ingrid Schudel, Dylan McGarry, Blair Niblett, 2021-12-07 This well constructed and highly original sourcebook integrates educational materials for teaching environmental ethics with theoretical reflections The book is set to contribute immensely to its aim of taking ethics out of philosophy departments and putting it into the streets into villages and on the Earth to make ethics an everyday activity not something left to experts and specialists Context based activities are presented in almost every chapter While it acknowledges foundational theories in environmental ethics and the work that they continue to do it wholeheartedly embraces a growing body of literature that emphasises contextual process oriented and place based approaches to ethical reflection deliberation and action It walks on the ground and isn't afraid to get a little dirty or to seek joy in earthly relationships And it ultimately breaks with much Western academic tradition by framing ethics in a storied world thus making room to move beyond Euro American perspectives in environmental issues This work will be of interest to school teachers and other non formal and informal educators teacher educators college instructors university professors and other professionals who wish to bring environmental ethics to the forefront of their pedagogical practices

Tales of an Ecotourist Mike Gunter Jr., 2017-11-21 Combining humor and memorable anecdotes five famous ecotourist destinations offer a breathtaking backdrop to better understanding climate change Crossing the far corners of the globe Tales of an Ecotourist showcases travel from the hot and humid Amazon jungle to the frozen but dry Antarctic as a simple yet spellbinding lens to better understand the complex issue of climate change At its core climate change is an issue few truly understand in large part due to its dizzying array of scientific economic cultural social and political variables Using both keen humor and memorable anecdotes while weaving respected scientific studies along the way Mike Gunter Jr transports the reader to five famous ecodestinations from the Galapagos Islands to the Great Barrier Reef revealing firsthand the increasing threats of climate change Part travelogue part current events expos with a healthy dose of history ecology and politics these tales of ecoadventure tackle such obstacles head on while fleshing out much needed personal context to perhaps society's greatest threat of all Gunter takes us to the far corners of the globe to understand the lived experience of climate change

More than a travelogue Tales of an Ecotourist explains how getting outside out of our houses immediate surroundings and comfort zones can awaken all of us to the realities and urgency of a warming world This is a rich beautifully written and compelling book Paul Wapner author of Living Through the End of Nature The Future of American Environmentalism In Tales of an Ecotourist Mike Gunter Jr takes you on a remarkable journey both figuratively and literally as he recounts his experiences visiting some of the most amazing places on our planet As a genuine true to principles ecotourist he has an important lesson for us If we are to veer from our current path of global environmental degradation we will have to come to appreciate firsthand its remarkable wonder and beauty Michael E Mann coauthor of The Madhouse Effect How Climate Change Denial Is Threatening Our Planet Destroying Our Politics and Driving Us Crazy The Journey Within Dinesh Patel,2015-06-22 This book represents one photographers effort to share his personal perspective of Africas wildlife heritage Drawing on his vast collection of photographs from hundreds of safaris in Eastern Africa over the past five decades Dinesh Patel has successfully made the African safari universally accessible What distinguishes the book from the myriad others are two striking features First is its simplicity and puritythe wildlife photography in the book is uncomplicated and pure capturing snapshots of the wild as it is intended to be devoid of human factors Second building on this simplicity unfettered with commentary the photographer has successfully created a world that gives the reader an experience of being there accompanying the photographer as he moves on his journey Whether these photographs are viewed with awe or admired for their majesty they convey an important message The African wilderness is in rapid retreat Too many of the creatures exhibited here are on the lamentable list of endangered species and face a bleak future So the challenge ahead is serious and the task difficult but essential Africa needs a future that befits its unique place in the grandeur of nature By nurturing these natural jewels and by playing to its strengthsits unique and spectacular wild legacyAfrica must become prosperous by preserving its heritage It is the essential duty of the wildlife photographer to spread this message by conveying the spectacle and magnificence of Africas wild wonders Dinesh Patel has accomplished this task with distinction Safari Journal Boyd Norton,2006-12 This beautiful and informative journal makes it easy to capture the adventures and wonders of your safari

Kenya Josie Elias,Robert Pateman,2014-01-01 This book introduces the geography history economy cultures and people of Kenya All books of the critically acclaimed Cultures of the World series ensure an immersive experience by offering vibrant photographs with descriptive nonfiction narratives and interactive activities such as creating an authentic traditional dish from an easy to follow recipe Copious maps and detailed timelines present the past and present of the country while exploration of the art and architecture help your readers to understand why diversity is the spice of Life Realer Than Reel David Hogarth,2009-11-20 Television and globalization have transformed the traditional documentary almost beyond recognition converting what was once a film genre devoted to public service and education into a popular televisual commodity with productions ranging from serious public affairs programming to TV reality shows and docusoaps Realer Than

Reel offers a state of the art overview of international documentary programming that investigates the possibilities documentary offers for local and public representation in a global age as well as what actually constitutes documentary in a time of increasing digitalization and manipulation of visual media David Hogarth focuses on public affairs nature and reality shows from around the world drawing upon industry data producer interviews analyses of selected documentary programs and firsthand observations of market sites He looks at how documentary has become a transnational product through exports co ventures and festival contacts how local and regional place is represented in global documentary especially by producers such as Discovery Networks International and the National Geographic Channel how documentary addresses the needs of its viewers as citizens through public service broadcasting and how documentary is challenging accepted conventions of factuality sense and taste The concluding chapter considers the future of both documentary as a genre and television as a global factual medium asking whether TV will continue to document the world in any meaningful sense of the term Swara,2001 Overbooked Elizabeth Becker,2016-02-23 Travel is no longer a past time but a colossal industry arguably one of the biggest in the world and second only to oil in importance for many poor countries One out of 12 people in the world are employed by the tourism industry which contributes 6 5 trillion to the world s economy To investigate the size and effect of this new industry Elizabeth Becker traveled the globe She speaks to the Minister of Tourism of Zambia who thinks licensing foreigners to kill wild animals is a good way to make money and then to a Zambian travel guide who takes her to see the rare endangered sable antelope She travels to Venice where community groups are fighting to stop the tourism industry from pushing them out of their homes to France where officials have made tourism their number one industry to save their cultural heritage and on cruises speaking to waiters who earn 60 a month then on to Miami to interview their CEO Becker s sharp depiction reveals travel as a product nations as stewards Seeing the tourism industry from the inside out the world offers a dizzying range of travel options but very few quiet getaways The White Spaces of Kenyan Settler Writing

Terrence L. Craig,2017-03-27 The White Spaces of Kenyan Settler Writing provides an overview of Kenyan literature by white writers in the half century before Independence in 1964 Such literature has been over shadowed by that of black writers to the point of critical ostracism It deserves attention for its own sake as the expression of a community that hoped for permanence but suffered both disappointment and dispossession It deserves attention for its articulation of an increasingly desperate colonial and Imperial situation at a time when both were being attacked and abandoned in Africa as in other colonies elsewhere and when a counter discourse was being constructed by writers in Britain as well as in Africa Kenya was likely the best known twentieth century colony for it attracted publicity for its iconic safaris and its Happy Valley scandals Yet behind such scenes were settlers who had taken over lands from the native peoples and who were trying to make a future for themselves based on the labour willing or forced of those people This situation can be seen as a microcosm of one colonial exercise and can illuminate the historical tensions of such times The bibliography is an attempt to collect the literary resources of white Kenya in this historically significant period War and Peace with the Beasts Brian Griffith,2020-09-01

The animals that one culture likes are often hated in the next and it seems that the animals themselves know it well Basically one culture s animal partner is often another culture s nightmare from hell Naturally I wonder how relations between people and animals got to be so different around the world How did it happen that some cultures treat bats snakes wolves or ravens as embodiments of evil while other people treat the same animals with affection or even reverence Our wars with the animals go way back Beyond the light cast by our prehistoric campfires the eyes glowing in the night seemed to represent a great hostile force As we began to cultivate crops and husband a few favoured animals we generally regarded other creatures as threats to our chosen few Using the logic of war we sought to maximize the populations of certain creatures and the destruction of others In the past that war effort was our great crusade for the advancement of civilization as we knew it The war had a frontier a front line and an ongoing battle on the home front Expanding outward from our various cradles of civilization we progressively tamed the forests and grasslands converting them to monocrop plantations or pastures Then we had to defend our monocrops from encroaching weeds insects and wild animals In this immediately engaging story and fact filled page turner of a book Brian Griffith looks at the range of ways we relate to animals and the stories we tell about them He asks how we choose whether buddyhood fearful respect businesslike predation or genocidal war is the most appropriate response to each species we meet He watches how our treatment of inferior beings affects our treatment of inferior people and traces some of the chain reactions we unleash when we try to weed out species we don t like Without much hope of making animals fit my personal preferences he writes I wonder how good our relations can get Ivory Keith Somerville,2019-10-30 Comprehensive exploration of history and politics of ivory in Africa
