Management in South Africa and Africa Fanie Cloete, Babette Rabie, Christo De Coning, 2014-12-01 This blind peer reviewed book systematically records analyses and assesses for the first time in a single volume the implications of the global development and management of professional evaluation for the African continent The book deals with the most strategic contemporary evaluation themes Each of these themes contains discussions of theoretical issues illustrated with one or more short case studies while selected longer case studies and other relevant documentation are also taken up in annexures at the end of the book The book therefore comprises a guide to best M E practices for purposes of systematic policy programme and project evaluations It is suitable for both professional M E institutionalisation and capacity building projects as well as for evaluation information dissemination and education at different levels in the public private and voluntary sectors in society especially in a developmental context The Future of Evaluation in Society Stewart I. Donaldson, 2013-09-01 The impetus for this volume lives in a rich and vibrant past It is organized to honor one of the founders and most prolific contributors to the profession and transdiscipline of evaluation Professor Michael Scriven and to illuminate the future of evaluation in society Professor Scriven often shares stories of his meetings with Albert Einstein and the frame breaking evaluation revolution he has led against the value free doctrine of the social sciences Both his wide eyed graduate students and the more grizzled evaluation veterans in his professional development workshops quickly learn that Scriven is well traveled and has exchanged some of the boldest ideas and visions with the most brilliant thinkers of his time Scriven insisted that the 2011 Stauffer Symposium and this volume be organized in that genre He urged us to invite the most thoughtful and influential evaluation theorists and practitioners we could find to join him in a conversation about the future of evaluation in society Scriven challenges us to examine the five great paradigm shifts that have revolutionized the foundations of evaluation and that he believes will form the basis for a much brighter future for evaluation in society Scriven s revolutionary ideas are followed and challenged by a group of thought leaders in evaluation who do not necessarily shared his views on evaluation but who have earned his deepest respect and whose evaluation work he admires including Michael Quinn Patton Ernest House Daniel Stufflebeam Robert Stake Jennifer Greene Karen Kirkhart Melvin Mark Rodney Hopson and Christina Christie However despite his insistence that his colleagues stay focused on the future of evaluation you will find that many have recounted their adventures exchanges and debates with him over the years as well as pointed out the many contributions that he has made to the development of evaluation and to the improvement of society through his amazing portfolio of evaluation contributions The Future of Evaluation in Society A Tribute to Michael Scriven will be of great interest to evaluation scholars practitioners and students of evaluation It will be appropriate for use in a wide range of evaluation courses including Introduction to Evaluation Evaluation Theory and Evaluation Practice courses Purposeful Program Theory Sue C. Funnell, Patricia J. Rogers, 2011-03-15 Between good intentions and great results lies a program theory not just a list of tasks but a vision of what needs to happen and how Now widely used in government and not for profit organizations program theory provides a coherent picture of how change occurs and how to improve performance Purposeful Program Theory shows how to develop represent and use program theory thoughtfully and strategically to suit your particular situation drawing on the fifty year history of program theory and the authors experiences over more than twenty five years From needs assessment to intervention design from implementation to outcomes evaluation from policy formulation to policy execution and evaluation program theory is paramount But until now no book has examined these multiple uses of program theory in a comprehensive understandable and integrated way This promises to be a breakthrough book valuable to practitioners program designers evaluators policy analysts funders and scholars who care about understanding why an intervention works or doesn't work Michael Quinn Patton author Utilization Focused Evaluation Finally the definitive guide to evaluation using program theory Far from the narrow one true way approaches to program theory this book provides numerous practical options for applying program theory to fulfill different purposes and constraints and guides the reader through the sound critical thinking required to select from among the options The tour de force of the history and use of program theory is a truly global view with examples from around the world and across the full range of content domains A must have for any serious evaluator E Jane Davidson PhD Real Evaluation Ltd Companion Web site josseybass.com go funnellrogers Consulting and Evaluation with Nonprofit and Community-based Organizations Judah J. Viola, Susan Dvorak McMahon, 2010 The need for consultation and evaluation among nonprofits and government agencies has soared in recent years as funders have demanded accountability and agencies are ill equipped to provide the types of data based information needed Consulting and Evaluation with Nonprofit and Community Based Organizations fills a critical gap in the academic literature for nonprofit management This unique text is a collection of advice and voices from a diverse group of successful practicing consultants who work with nonprofits and government agencies Through surveys and interviews these experts relate detailed information on how they got started in consulting what types of services they provide what types of clients they serve the biggest challenges they face and much more The book also integrates current topics from a wide variety of sources so that interested readers can easily access important information all in one book Book jacket
