Who is God? A. B. Leaver, 2019-05-22 Who is God It is a question that has been asked throughout the expanse of human history and has been answered in a myriad of ways. Answers have ranged from the worship of inanimate objects, nature's wonders and fictitious characters to the worship of the true and everlasting God as revealed in the Bible. However, even using the Bible as a common reference, there have been a multitude of different interpretations of who God is, what His character is, what His desire is for us, and how we relate to Him. This book draws from the biblical record a view of God that is supported by Scripture rather than from conjecture and outside sources. Where there seem to be inconsistent perspectives present in the Scripture, I have tried to identify them but conclude with the predominate perspective as the most tenable. It makes sense that God, in communicating to people, would help us by making the correct view predominate. In drawing from the Bible, I have found that God is a loving Father in heaven that all people are His children, that He loves His children and desires that all be saved, that He has provided a means by which all may be saved through His Son Jesus Christ, that in our day God reveals Himself through the Holy Ghost among other ways, and that the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost comprise one God. You will find that the bulk of this work is a quotation of Scripture organized by topic in relation to the identity of God. Commentary has been added in an attempt to summarize the concepts I believe are conveyed in the Scriptures; however, the commentary comprises a lesser portion of the work. The work may almost be thought of as a topical concordance concerning the identity of God with limited commentary. At any rate, the reader is invited to review the cited scriptural references in addition to all others contained in the Scriptures and draw his or her own conclusion based on the content and on the witness of the Holy Ghost. The Scriptures declare that the Holy Ghost is the testator of all truth, and that when we sincerely seek the truth, we shall find it. I have found the references cited in this work helpful in aiding my own search for the answer to the question, who is God. I am confident that they will do the same for you.

Who Is God and Where Does He Come from Joel Kerr, 2010-05. God has created the heavens and the earth; He has outlined the path required for human happiness. The Alpha and the Omega is everywhere and immutable. He has provided us with all the answers, but do we ask the right questions? For more than twenty years, author Joel Kerr has been striving to find the answers set before him. Despite his best intentions, fear, insecurity, and doubt overwhelmed him, preventing him from accepting the message he desperately craved. After a debilitating back injury, he finally got the message. Who Is God and Where Does He Come From provides a fresh perspective on the relationships between God, Jesus, Satan, and humanity. Kerr examines critical questions about where God comes from, His intentions for mankind, and how each human being can purge Satan's treachery from our minds and souls.

Who Is God? Henry Loyd Copeland, 2008-02-04. About Who Is God. Who is God? is written for all humankind. It contains a most powerful message about two-way communications between the reader and God. Getting to know God requires communication. In other words, the prerequisite to getting to know is two-way communications between the reader and God. The reader actually becomes interactive with God. A fundamental communications model is presented, illustrating some of the simplicities and some of the complexities associated with communicating. However, the book proceeds to make two way communicating quite simple between the reader and God This simplicity is achieved by identifying defining and elaborating on terms relevant to good communications The reader asks Who am I and an answer is provided This is followed by an introduction to God followed by an introduction to Jesus Christ The Holy Spirit The Holy Trinity and love With this background the reader communicates with God and God communicates with the reader Who is god informs the reader as to how God communicates with the reader how the reader communicates with God some of Gods messages to the reader some of the reader s messages to God and finally the reader s conclusions after knowing himself or herself and God better The profound impacts of Who is god on the reader are 1 recognition of the true God God of the Holy Bible 2 realization that God has established the ultimate communication model and 3 realization that this type of relationship with God is both a the source of peace and joy and b the solution to terrorism crime addiction prejudice and deprivation

Jesus Christ is God      Who Is God? (Acadia Studies in Bible and Theology) Richard Bauckham, 2020-07-21 Internationally respected scholar Richard Bauckham offers a brief engaging study of divine revelation in Scripture He probes the deep meaning of well known moments in the biblical story in order to address the key question the Bible is designed to answer Who is God Accessible for laypeople and important to scholars this volume begins by exploring three key events in the Bible in which God is revealed Jacob's dream at Bethel the revelation of the divine presence Moses at the burning bush the revelation of the divine Name and Moses on Mount Sinai the revelation of the divine character In each case Bauckham traces these themes through the rest of Scripture He then shows how the New Testament builds on the Old by exploring three revelatory events in Mark's Gospel events that reveal the Trinity Jesus's baptism transfiguration and crucifixion This book is based on the Frumentius Lectures for 2015 at the Ethiopian Graduate School of Theology in Addis Ababa and on the Hayward Lectures for 2018 at Acadia Divinity College Nova Scotia      Authority in the Darkness: Who is God? The Light did Shine... He Is... Dr. Dee Jenkins, 2021-11-23 As you read this book you will absolutely be filled with incredible faith and hope for the future Faith comes by hearing the Word of God The Lord has carved out a pathway for all of us to walk He promises to walk with us on this journey and bring us through every trial and every temptation The Lord's sacrifice for us on the cross has made sure that we will overcome every obstacle that is put in our way and every word that is written on these pages is completely true as it has been revealed to Dr Jenkins As the world spins on the brink of chaos never forget you are a winner if you choose to follow God's plan until the end of time For darkness may endure for a night but joy will come in the morning light      The One Who Is Dr. Kenny Rhodes, 2015-02-27 This book is a comprehensive and concise treatment of the philosophical theological and biblical issues related to the doctrine of God Within its pages the nature existence and tri-unity of God are presented in an understandable and clear manner The author's objective was to hold in highest regard the text of Holy Scripture while reflecting the biblical position of the historic orthodox faith The book's tone is polemic and passionate sincere and scholarly with a commitment to communicate the truth of God's Word with simplicity and profundity Also between its covers you will find a wealth of information with numerous references and explanatory notes for clarification and further personal study The book is arranged around the concept of the term logos which suffixes many other words and turns them into fields of study as in the phrase theology Theos logos The term Logos refers to the concepts of epistemology ontology and hermeneutics Applied to the doctrine of God its organization deals with Knowing God the Being of God and Communicating God This corresponds to Thomas Aquinas's approach to understanding God in the questions what is God we define God by negation what He is not how do we know God we know him by His effects how do you communicate or explain God God is communicated to us by His names that is His attributes The book furthermore presents a classic and newly reworked argument for the existence of God called the Existential Argument which is based on the notion of being      The Oneness and Simplicity of God Barry D. Smith, 2013-11-13 That YHWH is numerically one is foundational to the theology of the Hebrew Bible Christian theologians historically have affirmed that there is a more fundamental type of oneness attributable to God God is one not merely in the sense of being the only God but also in the sense of being simple or non composite having no parts of any kind In this way God is said to be an absolute unity After a consideration of all the evidence Barry D Smith reaches the conclusion that there is no basis for ascribing simplicity to God The simplicity doctrine is not found in Scripture and the traditional arguments used to establish it are unconvincing In addition the recent defenses of the simplicity doctrine prompted by Alvin Plantinga s work Does God Have a Nature are unsuccessful It should not be thought however that the rejection of divine simplicity means that by default God must be conceived as composite not even as a perfect composite with maximally great God making properties Rather there is a third option God should not be conceived as either simple or composite The question of in which mode God has attributes or exemplifies properties should be set aside

God in History; Or, The Progress of Man's Faith in the Moral Order of the World Christian Carl Josias von Baron Bunsen, 1868      God, Evidences, and Creation: Who God Is and Reasons for Believing David Pratte, 2019-12-25 A study of Bible teaching about the nature of God evidences for God Jesus and the Bible including a careful study of creation vs evolution Topics studied are God s power wisdom love and holiness The providence of God The number of individuals in the Godhead The Deity of Jesus The Holy Spirit and spiritual gifts Fulfilled prophecy miracles and the resurrection The significance of the Bible doctrine of creation The consequences of evolution Humanism compared to the Bible The length of the days of creation      Who Is God Martín Rivero, 2012-08-05 INTRODUCTION My view in religions is that throughout civilization humans has developed a highly spiritual concept in their culture created Gods for just about everything known to man and from supernatural phenomenon to be from God and prophesied on it Some has an agnostic view of God and certain claims about the existence or non existence and some self proclaiming to be prophets from God and considers the question of the existence of God as neither meaningful nor relevant to his or her life and some are considered to have a special access or relationship to the divine and believed that all living things has a divine creation but some scientists have a theory of evolution and is supported within some of the scientific community on research and some evidence that evolution has occurred but not all living things can be tied to evolution and have a divine creation Through out civilization mythology has kept the faith in religions alive You can do some reading on religious sacred books like Holy scriptures of the old and the new testaments the Qur an and others old sacred books for you will find some of the answers on your quest who is God or If you can ask a Judaism rabbi a pastor a minister or the priest of a church Who has mastered and memorized the bible or a hafiz who has memorized the Qur an they may have some of the answers Be rational this book will give you inspiration on who God is from my ow testimony divine experience from quotes to poems and prayers I will help answer the questions who is God that God exists and you can t see him but you can feel him and you know he s there and it leaves the question open is God among us are we alone in the universe The book will show you the divine inspiration in life and some people will be offended

by it but all should have the strength and salvation to find the light within All my testimony is true no scriptures verse only my divine inspiration on who is God to me The testimony in this book is my own personal true miracle who is GOD By Martin Rivero God is divinity of my life
