Who's Stupid Now? Diagnosis: Bipolar A. Toni Le Boss, 2014-12-10 When I first became diagnosed with severe manic depression I knew my life would never be the same When you are on medication for this illness you must take it the rest of your life I would not be able to have my own child because of the risk it would be deformed This was devastating to me Of course there was always adoption but this was not an option for me Perhaps if I married someone with children then they would become mine too This was not something I had to consider at the present time I had to find a positive path to making my life worthwhile I was single and alone My friends and family did not understand what I was going through The confusion the suffering the day to day anxiety the endless sadness and the isolation were too painful for anyone to imagine Then when I was in my manic stage I was euphoric I would go on shopping sprees plan expensive vacations buy gifts for all my friends My credit card debt exceeded my yearly income After ten years of psychiatric help hospitalization psychotherapy shock treatments group therapy and a myriad of pills I was stable Then it was up to me to take advantage of every opportunity that came my way I worked hard to find a good job and purpose in my life I realized that material things did not matter as much as the friends and family I surrounded myself with Even with mental illness life is a gift to be cherished every day

Gold Digger Tyler Mahoney, 2023-10-03 If you haven't seen a Discovery Channel gold hunting show you might picture a gold prospector as a relic of the Wild West a TNT toting bearded old man wildly swinging a pick on the hunt for nuggets guided by old maps superstition legends and instinct It's still predominantly a man's world and still often fanatical but these days the golden dream attracts people from all walks of life and 25 year old Tyler Mahoney Australian star of the Discovery Channel's Gold Rush series is leading the way Hailing from Kalgoorlie Tyler is a fourth generation gold miner and has seen up close how gold fever makes normally reasonable people do the most irrational things From mysterious corpses in the desert to huge heists backstabbing to life changing finds Tyler unearths hair raising stories and legends from Australia's gold prospecting past and present while sharing her experience forging her way in a traditionally male domain She writes candidly about the push and pull of the gold world in her own life as well as her struggles with bipolar disorder a mental health challenge that in some ways parallels the feast or famine nature of prospecting itself With humor grit and an infectious zest for life gold digger Tyler Mahoney stakes her claim

A Bipolar's Journey Vijay Nallawala, 2015-07-16 It was only when the author was diagnosed as a bipolar in 2003 leading to his hospitalization that he first heard about this serious mental illness From being comfortably perched as a successful entrepreneur he was abruptly flung into terrifying unknown territory Extreme mood swings from manic highs to desperate lows made life miserable The awareness about this chronic debilitating condition was almost nonexistent in India back then and the stigma stifling Disturbingly the situation remains largely unchanged unlike developed countries where support groups thrive Where there is iron willed determination the biggest of challenges can be surmounted The unstinted support of his family close friends mentors and medical team helped him in his arduous climb Medical treatment needs to be supplemented by a healing regimen Resolutely he made yoga meditation and spiritual advancement an intrinsic part of his life This cathartic journey ended up freeing him An inspiring story of resilience his is a rare voice of hope from the East trying to reach out to millions of his community saying Yes A bipolar too can lead a normal and happy life A Bipolar s Journey may well help you walk away From Torment to Fulfillment So let s walk together
