Forget Burial Marty Fink, 2020-11-13 Finalist for the LGBTQ Nonfiction Award from Lambda Literary. Queers and trans people in the 1980s and early 90s were dying of AIDS and the government failed to care. Lovers, strangers, artists and community activists came together to take care of each other in the face of state violence. In revisiting these histories alongside ongoing queer and trans movements, this book uncovers how early HIV care giving narratives actually shape how we continue to understand our genders and our disabilities. The queer and trans care giving kinships that formed in response to HIV continue to inspire how we have sex and build chosen families in the present. In unearthing HIV community newsletters, media zines, porn literature and even vampires, Forget Burial bridges early HIV care giving activism with contemporary disability movements. In refusing to bury the legacies of long term survivors and of those we have lost, this book brings early HIV kinships together with ongoing movements for queer and trans body self-determination.

Curious Attractions Debra Spark, 2005-05-20 Lively and engaging essays on aspects of the writer's craft from an acclaimed novelist.

Out of this World Holly Virginia Blackford, 2004-04-30 The author analyzes the way the girls discuss pleasure in becoming the eye of the reader, use film to decode the genres of literature, master forms such as fantasy and Gothic, describe the differences between reading and viewing films, and identify only with animal rather than human characters. Blackford intertwines the vivid voices of her girl respondents with her own story of moving beyond her feminist and multicultural assumptions of how children are shaped by the stories we tell in literature. This breakthrough text presents surprising findings about how girls appreciate literature and what they enjoy about reading.

The Cambridge Guide to Women's Writing in English Lorna Sage, 1999-09-30 This Guide aims to consolidate and epitomise the re-reading of women's writing that has gone on in the last twenty-five years. This is an opportunity for stock-taking, a timely project when so much writing has been rediscovered, reclaimed and republished. There are entries on writers, on individual texts and on general terms, genres and movements, all printed in a single alphabetical sequence. The earliest written documents in medieval English, the visionary writings of Julian of Norwich and Margery Kempe, are covered in an historical and geographical sweep that takes us up to the present day. The book reflects the spread of literacy, the history of colonisation and the development of post-colonial cultures using and changing the English language. The entries are written by contributors from all the countries covered. The result is a work of reference with a unique feeling.
