

Essay on Why I Love Pakistan

I love my country because I was born here; I have grown up here. This is the country which gave me identity.

Here I have a lot of friends whom I admire and appreciate.

My ancestors have made this a good piece of land for me.

This is the only country in the world which is made in the name of Islam. It is the land of attraction for me. I'm proud of its history.

I like its traditions, customs and its people who are loving and caring. I am fond of its culture, heritage, music and its cuisines.

The Pakistan Review, 1971      The Routledge Encyclopedia of Indian Writing in English Manju Jaidka, Tej N. Dhar, 2023-09-29 Today Indian writing in English is a field of study that cannot be overlooked Whereas at the turn of the 20th century writers from India who chose to write in English were either unheeded or underrated with time the literary world has been forced to recognize and accept their contribution to the corpus of world literatures in English Showcasing the burgeoning field of Indian English writing this encyclopedia documents the poets novelists essayists and dramatists of Indian origin since the pre independence era and their dedicated works Written by internationally recognized scholars this comprehensive reference book explores the history and development of Indian writers their major contributions and the critical reception accorded to them The Routledge Encyclopedia of Indian Writing in English will be a valuable resource to students teachers and academics navigating the vast area of contemporary world literature      The Sikh World Pashaura Singh, Arvind-Pal Singh Mandair, 2023-05-01 The Sikh World is an outstanding guide to the Sikh faith and culture in all its geographical and historical diversity Written by a distinguished team of international contributors it contains substantial thematic articles on the dynamic living experiences of the global Sikh community The volume is organised into ten distinct sections History Institutions and Practices Global Communities Ethical Issues Activism Modern Literature and Exegesis Music Visual Art and Architecture Citizenship Sovereignty and the Nation State Diversity and its Challenges Media Education Within these sections interdisciplinary themes such as intellectual history sexuality ecotheology art literature philosophy music cinema medicine science and technology politics and global interactions are explored Integrating textual evidence with Sikh practice this volume provides an authoritative and accessible source of information on all topics of Sikhism The Sikh World will be essential reading to students of Sikh studies South Asian studies and religious studies It will also be of interest to those in related fields such as sociology world philosophies political science anthropology and ethics      A Passionate Soul Denny JA, 2019-01-01 Religions differ in the matter of rituals and their concept of the divine Despite this if we consider themes such as benevolence and justice which connect mankind with worldly matters it is possible to find many points in common among religions The 2018 fasting month has already ended I am gratified that I spent it by thoroughly reading 30 juz from the Quran I am also gratified that during Ramadan I composed and assembled 30 mini essay poems within one book Most significantly however I introduced 10 pearls of the Quran into my heart I indelibly etched them there and made them eternal At the same time I pray that these 10 pearls will always direct my life      The Performance of Nationalism Jisha Menon, 2012-11-29 Imagine the patriotic camaraderie of national day parades How crucial is performance for the sustenance of the nation The Performance of Nationalism considers the formation of the Indian and Pakistani nation in the wake of the most violent chapter of its history the partition of the subcontinent In the process Jisha Menon offers a fresh analysis of nationalism from the perspective of performance Menon recuperates the manifold valences of mimesis as aesthetic representation as the constitution of a community of witnesses and as the mimetic relationality that underlies the encounter between India and Pakistan. The particular performances considered here range from Wagah border ceremonies to the partition theatre of Asghar Wajahat Kirti Jain M K Raina and the cinema of Ritwik Ghatak and M S Sathyu. By pointing to the tropes of twins doubles and doppelgangers that suffuse these performances this study troubles the idea of two insular autonomous nation states of India and Pakistan. In the process Menon recovers mimetic modes of thinking that unsettle the reified categories of identity politics.

The Palgrave Handbook of Screen Production Craig Batty, Marsha Berry, Kath Dooley, Bettina Frankham, Susan Kerrigan, 2019-11-15 This handbook is an essential creative critical and practical guide for students and educators of screen production internationally. It covers all aspects of screen production from conceptualizing ideas and developing them to realizing and then distributing them across all forms and formats including fiction and non-fiction for cinema television gallery spaces and the web. With chapters by practitioners scholars and educators from around the world the book provides a comprehensive collection of approaches for those studying and teaching the development and production of screen content. With college and university students in mind the volume purposely combines theory and practice to offer a critically informed and intellectually rich guide to screen production shaped by the needs of those working in education environments where doing and thinking must co-exist. The Palgrave Handbook of Screen Production fills an important gap in creative critical knowledge of screen production while also providing practical tools and approaches for future practitioners.

In the Name of Suffering Denny JA, 2021-10-15 Reading the book A Collection of Short Story Essays In the Name of Suffering Voices of Grief in the Era of Corona Virus by Denny J A is an experience not to be forgotten. Readers will be drawn into actual events as they really happened experiencing the deep sadness sympathy and empathy as though the reader is present and witnessing the drama being described. The author's writing may be fictional or even poetic but it touches the heart with details that are real grounded and truly from the human experience. Pain and suffering experienced on a societal level as well as a personal level is complex multi-layered and deeply unsettling. Throughout the pandemic we hear daily about those whose lives have been cut short by the coronavirus. Perhaps the victim was a friend someone from our workplace or neighborhood or perhaps a close family member.

Will the Real Pakistani Woman Please Stand Up? Moon Charania, 2015-09-21 This series of absorbing case studies focuses on the portrayal of Pakistani women in the global media. Analyzing Hollywood films British documentaries newspapers and mainstream U S magazines the book traces sensational female figures of Pakistan all of whom have been subject to patriarchal violence highlighting the imagery of exploitation and eroticism. The author addresses questions of spectatorship and fetishism in the age of globalization and the racial and imperial politics of liberal feminism.

The Struggle for Hegemony in Pakistan Aasim Sajjad Akhtar, 2022-04-20 The collapse of neoliberal hegemony in the western world following the financial crash of 2007-8 and subsequent rise of right wing authoritarian personalities has been described as a crisis of the political in western societies.

But the crisis must be seen as global rather than focusing on the west alone Pakistan is experiencing rapid financialisation and rapacious capture of natural resources overseen by the country's military establishment and state bureaucracy Under their watch trading and manufacturing interests property developers and a plethora of mafias have monopolised the provision of basic needs like housing water and food whilst also feeding conspicuous consumption by a captive middle class Aasim Sajjad Akhtar explores neoliberal Pakistan looking at digital technology in enhancing mass surveillance commodification and atomisation as well as resistance to the state and capital Presenting a new interpretation of our global political economic moment he argues for an emancipatory political horizon embodied by the classless subject The Breaks Julietta Singh,2021-09-07 A profound meditation on race inheritance and queer mothering at the end of the world In a letter to her six year old daughter Julietta Singh ventures toward a tender vision of the future lifting up children's radical embrace of possibility as a model for how we might live If we wish to survive looming political and ecological disasters Singh urges we must break from the conventions we have inherited and orient ourselves toward revolutionary paths that might yet set us free The Breaks is amazing I read the whole thing through in one sitting It's got the heft and staying power of Baldwin's A Letter to My Nephew Lauren Berlant author of Cruel Optimism If a book can be a hole cut in the side of an existence in order to escape it or to find a way through what is otherwise impassable then this is that kind of book How will we live in the new space that we keep making through refusal but also adjustment the necessary accommodations to the nowhere and nothing that this space also is The Breaks leads us through such moments questions and scenes with tenderness And deep care Bhanu Kapil author of How to Wash a Heart This is a lens shifting book an immeasurable gift With poignant aching beautiful and deeply loving prose Singh brings Brown girls into the sun and makes you want to change the ways of the world for our young people and for us all Imani Perry author of Breathe A Letter to My Sons Julietta Singh is exactly the kind of company I want for the ride to bear witness to the pains and pleasures of our being here in these bodies in these times Maggie Nelson author of The Argonauts on No Archive Will Restore You India, Pakistan, Ceylon W.
