Why The Cross Reframing New Testament Theology:

Reframing Biblical Theology Daniel C. Fredericks, 2025-08-26 Biblical theology is adequate only if wholly contextualized within the eternal natures of God creation and history A more thorough awareness of God s eternal design within creation and its history and a fuller perspective on the Messiah s commission avoids significant discontinuities such as universal and redemptive histories the gospels of Jesus and his apostles cross and kingdom of God centers heaven and a new earth and the role of sanctification in the Old and New Testaments This study suggests that God s eternal design for creation and its history subsumes a limited biblical theology that focuses on the solution to the sin problem at the expense of what has always been the eternal practical and productive objective of that solution and its current implications The church can focus on an urgent need for the rescue at the expense of the equally urgent and eternal purpose for that rescue A more comprehensive practical and productive theology of endless creation and its history contextualizes salvation and its eschatological focus by enveloping them as temporary components within God s eternal design Pathways to

Peacebuilding Uchenna D. Anyanwu, 2022-11-30 Given the consistent challenge of Islamist acute violence particularly in Nigeria this monograph attempts to respond to the question How can Jesus s followers pattern response to violence after Jesus s model demonstrated in his triumph over death evil sin and violence through staurocentric pathways And how can Jesus s followers in Nigeria adopt the same staurocentric model in order to not only overcome acute violence within the country but also to extend hands heads hearts and homes of staurocentric forgiveness hospitality and other practices toward Muslims In this study I posit that peacebuilding contextual theology be grounded on the mystery of the cross stauros a theologico theoretical framework that the church in Nigeria should espouse in order to position herself to extend hands heads hearts and homes of staurocentric practices whose appropriation must be undertaken through constructive and critical integration of the God given African peacebuilding concepts autochthonous to Africa s mosaic cultural contexts The pivotal thesis is that the staurocentric model remains the triune God s instrument for triumphing over violence and thus should be espoused by Jesus s followers in every era and context for peacebuilding in contexts of violence through a triadic constructive and critical integration of indigenous peacebuilding concepts Romans Michael J. Gorman, 2022-03-03 Above all Romans is a letter about Spirit enabled participation and transformation in Christ and his story and thus in the mission of God in the world This commentary engages the letter to the Romans as Christian scripture and highlights the Pauline themes for which Michael Gorman is best known participation and transformation cruciformity and new life peace and justice community and mission With extensive introductions both to the apostle Paul and to the letter itself Gorman offers background information on Paul s first century context before proceeding into the rich theological landscape of the biblical text In line with Paul s focus on Christian living Gorman interprets Romans at a consistently practical level highlighting the letter s significance for Christian theology daily life and pastoral ministry Questions for reflection and sidebars on important concepts make this especially useful for those preparing to preach or teach from Romans the epistle of life as Gorman calls it for its extraordinary promise that through faith we might walk in newness of life with Christ

Building Bridges Among Abraham's Children Edward McGlynn Gaffney, Marcia Sachs Littell, Michael Bazyler, 2025-06-10 Building Bridges Among Abraham's Children honors the extraordinary career of Professor Michael Berenbaum a luminary in Holocaust studies museum design filmmaking and interfaith dialogue With contributions from renowned scholars and close friends the short and highly readable essays in this collection delve into the core themes that have defined Professor Berenbaum's work biblical and postbiblical narratives rabbinic thought and action Jewish commitment to education interreligious relations and Holocaust remembrance From his role in building the US Holocaust Memorial Museum to his pioneering work in preserving survivor testimonies through film Professor Berenbaum's influence is profound and multifaceted and the compelling essays in this volume serve as a tribute to a scholar whose enduring legacy continues to make a global impact

Matthew Jeannine K. Brown, Kyle Roberts, 2018-09-27 In this latest addition to the Two Horizons New Testament Commentary series biblical scholar Jeannine Brown and theologian Kyle Roberts together illuminate the Gospel of Matthew for pastors scholars and serious students of Scripture Including an original translation of the text along with section by section commentary this volume features chapters on thinking theologically with Matthew about such themes as kingdom Christology the Holy Spirit and discipleship Brown and Roberts also offer constructive theological engagement with a number of contemporary viewpoints including feminist global political and ethical post Holocaust perspectives At once interdisciplinary and insightful their commentary will appeal to a wide readership

Atonement and Comparative Theology Catherine Cornille, 2021-09-07 The central Christian belief in salvation through the suffering death and resurrection of Jesus Christ remains one of the most intractable mysteries of Christian faith Throughout history it has given rise to various theories of atonement many of which have been subject to critique as they no longer speak to contemporary notions of evil and sin or to current conceptions of justice One of the important challenges for contemporary Christian theology thus involves exploring new ways of understanding the salvific meaning of the cross In Atonement and Comparative Theology Christian theologians with expertise in Judaism Islam Hinduism Buddhism Daoism and African Religions reflect on how engagement with these traditions sheds new light on the Christian understanding of atonement by pointing to analogous structures of sin and salvation drawing attention to the scandal of the cross as seen by the religious other and re interpreting aspects of the Christian understanding of atonement Together they illustrate the possibilities for comparative theology to deepen and enrich Christian theological reflection

The Spirit Driven Church Terje Hegertun, 2017-06-28 Must the church be either charismatic or sacramental In this book Terje Hegertun argues that she has the privilege of being both The Day of Pentecost formed her identity and shaped her conviction of being lifted on the arms of grace and pushed forward by the power from on high In the midst of her vulnerability and failure the worldwide faith community is a composition of the Spirit One of the greatest gifts the church may offer the world is simply to be church a charismatic sacramental fellowship a dwelling place of God's Spirit A church nurtured by graceful charismatic and sacramental gifts fosters a mature congregational spirituality distinguished by hospitable relations Thus the Spirit of God plays the main role of being the comprehensive principle of Christian unity across denominational lines

SCM Studyguide: Theology in the Contemporary World Ben Pugh, 2017-10-30 No sooner have they mastered the basics than students of theology can quickly find themselves in over their heads They are bombarded with claim and counter claim as soon as they want to tackle anything topical The contentious subjects tend to be the historical Jesus gender and sexuality or the atonement Other subjects might be less contentious but attract an astonishing excess of literature Take the vast literature tackling the subject of the Church for instance or the bloated body of tomes on various aspects of Pneumatology This book tries to provide the bewildered and intimidated student with a primer that is at once introductory and incisive approachable and informative It will help those training for ministry to recover their fascination for the subject of theology and how it could apply to their future ministry

The Bible in Culture Larry W. Caldwell, 2025-07-08 How to Read and Interpret Scripture Across Cultures How can believers across cultures faithfully read and apply Scripture in a way that honors both the biblical text and their unique cultural contexts In The Bible in Culture Larry Caldwell introduces ethnohermeneutics a revolutionary yet biblical approach to reading Scripture with rather than for the world Drawing from decades of experience living overseas Caldwell demonstrates that every culture has its own tools for understanding meaning and shows how God uses these to communicate the truth of his word This approach is rooted in observing how Jesus Paul and others in the early church interpreted Scripture and in following their examples Through real life illustrations interactive activities and case studies readers will discover how they can also read and interpret God's word in their own cultures This book will challenge your assumptions about the interpretive task encouraging and equipping you to rethink how the Bible can be understood across every people group in various cross cultural multicultural and multigenerational contexts

The Spirit of Atonement Steven M. Studebaker, 2021-01-14 Steven M Studebaker proposes a Pentecostal approach to a major Christian doctrine the atonement The book moves Pentecostal theology of the atonement from a primarily Christocentric and crucicentric register to one that articulates the pneumatological and holistic nature of Pentecostal praxis Studebaker examines the irony of Classical Pentecostalism relying on the Christocentrism of Protestantism evangelical atonement theology to articulate its experience of the Holy Spirit as well as the Pneumatological nature of Pentecostal praxis He then develops a Pentecostal theology of atonement based on the biblical narrative of the Spirit of Pentecost and returns to re imagine an expanded vision of Pentecostal praxis based on the theological formation of the biblical narrative The result is a Pentecostal atonement theology that shows the integrated nature of pneumatology creation and Christology in the biblical narrative of redemption It gives theological expression to not only the pneumatological nature of Pentecostal praxis but also the fundamental role of the Holy Spirit in the biblical narrative of redemption The book challenges popular western atonement theologies to re think their Christocentrism and crucicentrism as well as their atomistic tendency to separate soteriology into objective Christological and subjective pneumatological categories Called into the Mission of God Roji T. George,2020-11-03 In Called into the Mission of God Roji George argues that Paul's primary interest was neither doctrinal teaching nor the articulation of an anti imperial discourse Instead he contends that amidst the many problems that faced the local Thessalonian community problems arising out of eschatological fears ethical difficulties in the community and persecution from outside groups Paul brought primarily a missional concern to impart ethical exhortation and eschatological teaching in a political language The book will be helpful to those theologians scholars teachers and students grappling with the message of Paul in his own time and in ours Called into the Mission of God represents an increasing commitment on the part of Fortress Press to support the wide dissemination of the best theological and biblical writing by the best scholars from the Global South Faithful Performances Steven R. Guthrie,2016-04-15 The metaphor of performance has been applied fruitfully by anthropologists and other social theorists to different aspects of human social existence and furnishes a potentially helpful model in terms of which to think theologically about Christian life After an introductory editorial chapter reflecting on the nature of artistic performance and its relationship to the notions of tradition and identity Part One of this book attends specifically to the phenomenon of dramatic performance and possible theological applications of it Part Two considers various aspects of the performance of Christian identity looking at worship the interpretation of the Bible Christian response to elements in the contemporary media the shape of Christian moral life and ending with a theological reflection on the shape of personal identity correlating it with the theatrical metaphors of character and performing a part in a scripted drama Part Three demonstrates how art forms including some technically non performative ones literature poetry painting may constitute faithful Christian practices in which the tradition is authentically performed producing works which break open its meaning in profound new ways for a constantly shifting context Theosis and Forgiveness in the Gospel of Matthew Kangil Kim,2023-10-03 In this book Kangil Kim reads the Matthean teaching of forgiveness through the framework of theosis Kim argues that theosis provides a theological lens that brings into sharper focus the meaning of forgiveness especially with respect to the dynamics of heaven and earth and of God and the human in Matthew's Gospel Forgiveness as an embodied way of life is more than following Jesus and imitating what Jesus does but one of theosis the extension of God's own power working itself out through Jesus in our lives Christian Theology Adam Harwood,2022-10-19 The church has been entrusted with God's revelation and to steward the word of truth we must confess the Bible's teaching with clarity and conviction Adam Harwood's Christian Theology is both biblically faithful and historically informed providing a fresh synthesis of the essential doctrines of the faith Writing from a Baptist perspective Harwood brings fresh insights that many systematic theologies lack With readable prose suggestions for further study and discussion questions Christian Theology will equip students and pastors to clarify and articulate what they believe and why Crucified Wisdom S. Mark Heim, 2018-12-04 Winner of the Frederick Streng Book Award for Excellence in Buddhist Christian Studies This work provides the first systematic discussion of the Bodhisattva path and its importance for constructive Christian theology Crucified Wisdom examines specific Buddhist traditions texts and practices not as phenomena whose existence requires an apologetic justification but as wells of tested wisdom that invite theological insight With the increasing participation of Christians in Buddhist practice many are seeking a deeper understanding of the way the teachings of the two traditions might interface Christ and the Bodhisattva are often compared superficially in Buddhist Christian discussion This text combines a rich exposition of the Bodhisattva path using ntideva s classic work the Bodicary vat ra and subsequent Tibetan commentators with detailed reflection on its implications for Christian faith and practice Author S Mark Heim lays out root tensions constituted by basic Buddhist teachings on the one hand and Christian teachings on the other and the ways in which the Bodhisattva or Christ embody and resolve the resulting paradoxes in their respective traditions An important contribution to the field of comparative theology in general and to the area of Buddhist Christian studies in particular Crucified Wisdom proposes that Christian theology can take direct instruction from Mah y na Buddhism in two respects deepening its understanding of our creaturely nature through no self insights and revising its vision of divine immanence in dialogue with teachings of emptiness Heim argues that Christians may affirm the importance of novelty in history the enduring significance of human persons and the Trinitarian reality of God even as they learn to value less familiar nondual dimensions of Christ s incarnation human redemption and the divine life Crucified Wisdom focuses on questions of reconciliation and atonement in Christian theology and explores the varying interpretations of the crucifixion of Jesus in Buddhist Christian discussion The Bodhisattva path is central for major contemporary Buddhist voices such as the Dalai Lama and Th ch Nh t Hanh who figure prominently as conversation partners in the text This work will be of particular value for those interested in dual belonging in connection to these traditions Galatians (Brazos Theological Commentary on the Bible) Kathryn

Greene-McCreight, 2023-04-25 The Brazos Theological Commentary on the Bible advances the assumption that the Nicene creedal tradition in all its diversity provides the proper basis for the interpretation of the Bible as Christian scripture The series volumes written by leading theologians encourage readers to explore how the vital roots of the ancient Christian tradition inform and shape faithfulness today In this addition to the series respected theologian Kathryn Greene McCreight offers a theological reading of Galatians As with other volumes in the series this commentary is designed to serve the church providing a rich resource for preachers teachers students and study groups It demonstrates the continuing intellectual and practical viability of theological interpretation of the Bible Why the Cross? Donald Senior, 2014 Understanding the defining image of Christian contemporary language Postcolonial Biblical Interpretation Jeremy Punt, 2015-01-08 In Postcolonial Biblical Interpretation Jeremy Punt reflects on the nature and value of the postcolonial hermeneutical approach as it relates to the interpretation of biblical and in particular Pauline texts Showing when a socio politically engaged reading becomes postcolonial but also what in the term postcolonial both attracts and also creates distance exegesis from a postcolonial perspective is profiled The book indicates possible avenues in how postcolonial work can be helpful theoretically to the guild of biblical scholars and to show also how it can be practiced in exegetical work done on biblical texts How to Read the Bible Well Stephen Burnhope,2021-04-23 How to Read the Bible Well takes on the big questions about the Bible that we've always wanted to ask What do people mean when they say it's the Word of God In what way exactly How can an ancient world text be offering supposedly timeless truths Can we really take what the Bible says as authoritative for life today Isn't it obviously sexist and outdated Do we have to believe in Adam and Eve and the world being made in six days Why did God command genocide in the Old Testament Are people really going to burn in hell for eternity Why is there evil and suffering in the world And how can we explain the Big Story of the Bible from cover to cover in ways that will make sense to people today Stephen Burnhope suggests there are very good answers to all of these questions and more once we know how to read the Bible well Interpreting the Old Testament after Christendom Jeremy Thomson,2021-07-23 How would you describe the Old Testament Offensive violent patriarchal archaic difficult boring obsolete Many Christians don't bother with it anymore Yet these ancient books were in Jesus' lifeblood and they provided the thought world of those early followers who wrote about him in what became the New Testament This book challenges those stereotypes of Israel's Scriptures by exploring their significance in the apostolic writings and by demonstrating the importance of whole books for nuanced interpretation It takes readers on a tour through four key books before considering the wider issues of interpretation that readers must consider in order to hear God's Spirit speaking afresh to a range of contemporary concerns including racism and the environment
