short stories by Chicana o authors that depict lesbian characters or lesbian desire Catri na Rueda Esquibel starts from the premise that Chicana o communities theories and feminisms cannot be fully understood without taking account of the perspectives and experiences of Chicana lesbians To open up these perspectives she engages in close readings of works centered around the following themes La Llorona the Aztec Princess Sor Juana In s de la Cruz girlhood friendships rural communities and history and Chicana activism Her investigation broadens the community of Chicana lesbian writers well beyond Moraga and Anzald a while it also demonstrates that the histories of Chicana lesbians have had to be written in works of fiction because these women have been marginalized and excluded in canonical writings on Chicano life and experience
