Women in the French Enlightenment

Anna Maria Marchini, 2022-07-28 This volume deals with philosophical scientific and ideological images of women during the French Enlightenment examining their emergence in the reflections of the philosophes in Catholic morality in biological and medical knowledge in novels in periodicals and in the law Alongside the appeals for social and intellectual emancipation advanced by the femmes savantes typical of the eighteenth century salons a new conception pertaining to women's social role related to the affirmation of the bourgeoisie and of its model of the family took place Codified in a more complex and organized way within the Rousseauian philosophy this new conception spread in various cultural debates gaining a real hegemony women were meant to be excluded from any public space devoid of cultural aspirations and only devoted to satisfying the needs of the family The book adopts a multidisciplinary interdisciplinary and synthetic approach and at the same time highlights the roots of some fundamental ways of considering women that are still active in present day society It also addresses researchers in the history of philosophy sociology literature and gender studies and readers with an interest in women's issues Woman's Record; or, sketches of all distinguished women from the Creation to A.D. 1854 ... Second edition Sarah Josepha Buell Hale, 1853 Translation Changes Everything Lawrence Venuti, 2012-12-12 In Translation Changes Everything leading theorist Lawrence Venuti gathers fourteen of his incisive essays since 2000 The selection sketches the trajectory of his thinking about translation while engaging with the main trends in research and commentary The issues covered include basic concepts like equivalence retranslation and reader reception sociological topics like the impact of translations in the academy and the global cultural economy and philosophical problems such as the translator's unconscious and translation ethics Every essay presents case studies that include Venuti's own translation projects illuminating the connections between theoretical concepts and verbal choices The texts drawn from a broad variety of languages are both humanistic and pragmatic encompassing such forms as poems and novels religious and philosophical works travel guidebooks and advertisements The discussions all explore practical applications whether writing publishing reviewing teaching or studying translations Venuti's aim is to conceive of translation as an interpretive act with far reaching social effects at once enabled and constrained by specific cultural situations This latest chapter in his developing work is essential reading for translators and students of translation alike The British Workwoman, 1870 Japan's Frames of Meaning Michael F. Marra, 2010-10-31 In Japan's Frames of Meaning Michael Marra identifies interpretative concepts central to discussions of hermeneutical practices in Japan and presents English translations of works on basic hermeneutics by major Japanese thinkers Discussions of Japanese thought tend to be centered on key Western terms in light of which Japanese texts are examined alternatively a few Buddhist concepts are presented as counterparts of these Western terms Marra concentrates on Japanese philosophers and thinkers who have mediated these two extremes bringing their knowledge of Western thought to bear on philosophical reinterpretations of Buddhist terms that are thus presented in secularized form Marra focuses on categories relevant to the development of a history of Japanese hermeneutics calling attention to concepts whose discussion sheds light on how Japanese thinkers have proceeded in making sense of their own culture The terms are organized under three headings The first deals with koto which in Japanese means both things and words Koto is the center of a series of interesting compounds such as kotodama the spirit of words and makoto truth that have shaped Japanese discourses on philosophy ethics aesthetics and religion Writings on koto by twentieth century philosophers Watsuji Tetsuro 1889 1960 and Omori Shozo 1921 1997 and Edo period scholar Fujitani Mitsue 1768 1823 are included The second heading is dedicated to two well known aesthetic categories yugen and sabi which point to notions of depth in physical space as well as in the space of interiority The University of Kyoto aesthetician Ueda Juzo 1886 1973 guides the reader through a history of these concepts In the third part of the book notions of time in the form of ku emptiness and guzen contingency are examined through the work of Ueda s colleagues at Kyoto Nishitani Keiji 1900 1990 and Kuki Shuzo 1888 1941 Perceptive and erudite Japan s Frames of Meaning will become a landmark resource in particular for the insights and provocations it offers to contemporary cross cultural philosophical dialogue for anyone interested in traditional and modern Japanese thought
