and Sustainability Angela Guimaraes Pereira,Silvio Funtowicz,2015-02-27 For science to remain a legitimate and trustworthy source of knowledge society will have to engage in the collective processes of knowledge co production which not only includes science but also other types of knowledge This process of change has to include a new commitment to knowledge creation and transmission and its role in a plural society This book proposes to consider new ways in which science can be used to sustain our planet and enrich our lives It helps to release and reactivate social responsibility within contemporary science and technology It reviews critically relevant cases of contemporary scientific practice within the Cartesian paradigm relabelled as innovation research promoted as essential for the progress and well being of humanity and characterised by high capital investment centralised control of funding and quality exclusive expertise and a reductionism that is philosophical as well as methodological This is an accessible and relevant book for scholars in Science and Technology Studies History and Philosophy of Science and Science Engineering and Technology Ethics Providing an array of concrete examples it supports scientists engineers and technical experts as well as policy makers and other non technical professionals working with science and technology to re direct their approach to global problems in a more integrative self reflective and humble direction   Breed Differences in Dog Behavior Renee Robinette Ha,Tracy L. Brad,James C. Ha,2024-04-10 Humans have bred dogs for physical and behavioral characteristics for millennia These efforts can have unintended side effects however which may be either advantageous or cause issues such as a predisposition to certain medical complaints or controversially behavioural issues The scientific study of domestic dogs is still in its infancy but public demand for this information is at a record high as more and more pet owners seek to understand their canine family members Focusing on the behavioral differences and tendencies that have arisen in different breed lines this book explores summarizes and explains the scientific evidence on what breed can tell us about behaviour and crucially what it cannot Providing a comprehensive and approachable view of the science behind breed specific behaviors this book gives dog enthusiasts from all professional and personal backgrounds a better understanding of why dogs do what they do and how we can improve our relationships with our canine companions Covering genetics phylogeny of canids temperament aggression social behavior and the history of dog breeding it is an important read for researchers students veterinary practitioners and animal behaviourists as well as shelter staff dog trainers or anyone looking for a greater understanding of dog breed differences   Consciousness is Story-Shaped Richard Rosenbaum,2025-04-21 Why do we conceptualize our experience primarily in terms of stories This monograph is a groundbreaking exploration of how narrative structures mirror the architecture of human thought Drawing from disciplines as diverse as narratology philosophy psychology and cognitive science it meticulously examines Joseph Campbell s theory of the monomyth positing its isomorphism with the Categories of Judgment that Immanuel Kant considered innate to human cognition The book presents a compelling case that stories represent a reflection of cognitive processes arguing that humans inherently interpret the world and their experiences through a narrative schema deeply ingrained in our consciousness Rooted in cognitive semiotics it analyzes in detail the structural similarities between narrative and cognition Offering a novel understanding of the fundamental narrative nature of human thought and its implications for how we perceive and interact with the world this book is essential for scholars in narratology and semiotics writers and anyone fascinated by storytelling Hammer Is a Word: Perry Stuart Gordon Anderson,2013-06-18 Late one evening in the fall of 2005 just twenty minutes outside of Charlottetown Prince Edward Island a thirty seven year old man takes a break from Coldplay to go outside his trailer on a farmer s field only to find out he is not alone There was something floating a mere hundred feet or so just above him It was the classic case of alien visitation only there was nothing to suggest it was actually alien just alien to him Indeed it looked more like an Area 51 project gone astray There were two of them both identical and jet black except for lights extremely stealthy looking and totally silent It wouldn t be the last time Mr Anderson would come face to face with the paranormal Something about their behavior seemed to be telling him that it was just somebody s mistake and to just go back inside the house and forget he had seen anything trouble was he didn t forget He starts to wonder about his French speaking skills Next morning he awoke to Sarah McLachlan s rendition of Black Bird Making the University Matter Barbie Zelizer,2012-03-29 Making the University Matter investigates how academics situate themselves simultaneously in the university and the world and how doing so affects the viability of the university setting The university stands at the intersection of two sets of interests needing to be at one with the world while aspiring to stand apart from it In an era that promises intensified political instability growing administrative pressures dwindling economic returns and questions about economic viability lower enrolments and shrinking programs can the university continue to matter into the future And if so in which way What will help it survive as an honest broker What are the mechanisms for ensuring its independent voice Barbie Zelizer brings together some of the leading names in the field of media and communication studies from around the globe to consider a multiplicity of answers from across the curriculum on making the university matter including critical scholarship interdisciplinarity curricular blends of the humanities and social sciences practical training and policy work The collection is introduced with an essay by the editor and each section has a brief introduction to contextualise the essays and highlight the issues they raise Lunar Commerce Derek Webber,2024-05-13 This book explores the advent of lunar commerce including the potential scale and timing of the initiative the associated revenue potential and the potential risks and uncertainties Specifically it discusses the reason for the increased interest in lunar commerce which lunar markets will be part of the initiative and how much of it will be commercial or dependent on government funding It provides an easy introduction to the content of the Lunar Commerce Portfolio which was recently issued under the author s leadership by the Working Group on Lunar Commerce and Economics of the Moon Village Association which has Observer Status at the United Nations in Vienna
