Greater Expectations: Enabling Achievement for Disadvantaged Students Ian Warwick, Alex Crossman, 2024-02-23 How can greater expectations lead to greater outcomes for schools and the students they teach The London Academy of Excellence LAE Newham is one of the leading sixth form schools in the UK The LAE s mission is to combat disadvantage by providing ambitious young people from lower income homes with an education on a par with the best available in the independent sector In its first decade the LAE sent over 1 300 students to Russell Group universities over 200 to medical schools and more than 150 to Oxford or Cambridge Most of those students were the first in their family to attend a university The authors sift through the school s practices to reveal universal concepts and ideas that school leaders in any context can consider for their own schools These ideas include Understanding the curriculum as a source of social mobility Planning for high quality destinations from first contact with prospective students Exploring challenge strategies to achieve academic excellence across subjects The book culminates in a list of strategies that can drive greater expectations in any school Alex Crossman is Headteacher and Ian Warwick is Chair of the Education Committee at the London Academy of Excellence

Low-Carbon Oriented Improvement Strategy for Flexibility and Resiliency of Multi-Energy Systems Yumin Zhang,Lu Zhang,Rufeng Zhang,Hao Wang,Shuai Yao,2024-09-18 Due to the inherent volatility and randomness the increasing share of energy from renewable resources presents a challenge to the operation of multi energy systems with heterogeneous energy carriers such as electricity heat hydrogen etc These factors will make the systems hard to adjust their supply and demand flexibly to maintain energy balance to ensure reliability Further this hinders the development of a low carbon and economically viable energy system By making full use of the synergistic interaction of generation transmission load demand and energy storage a three fold approach focused on quantifying demand flexibility evaluating supply capabilities and enhancing resilience can unlock the flexibility potential across various sectors of new energy systems This approach provides an effective means of facilitating the transition from conventional energy systems to low carbon clean energy oriented paradigms However huge challenges arising from renewable energy pose great obstacles to the aforementioned solution pathway The main objectives of this Research Topic are 1 Develop advanced carbon emission accounting and measurement techniques for emerging multi energy systems 2 Design effective methods for predicting renewable electricity generation 3 Proposed efficient methods for quantitative assessment of uncertainty from renewables and loads 4 Put forward advanced evaluation optimization and planning strategies incorporating diverse flexibility resources 5 Design multifaceted market mechanisms and collaborative frameworks balancing economics and low carbon footprint 6 Develop operational control and resilience enhancement techniques for distribution networks under large scale distributed energy integration

Methodological Quality of Interventions in Psychology Salvador Chacón-Moscoso, Susana Sanduvete-Chaves, Jason C. Immekus, 2017-08-16 Evaluations of intervention programs seek to present high quality design measures and data to assess their merit and worth While evaluations differ in their purpose theoretical framework and methodology their collective aim is to obtain relevant and meaningful information to inform practice research and policy As such evaluation findings serve to build a body of knowledge on effective approaches to promote designated psychological outcomes critical to an individual s overall health and well being However as examined in this e book methodological weaknesses directly limit the potential of evaluations of intervention programs As discussed by Chacón Moscoso and Sanduvete Chaves methodological weaknesses can be attributed to how to define and measure methodological quality and the contextual dependency of instruments designed to measure this quality In response this e book provides a collection of studies on methodological approaches to promote the quality of psychological interventions Specifically 10 original works published in the Research Topic Methodological Quality of Interventions in Psychology are included The papers are organized into two chapters Concretely Chapter 1 includes studies pertaining to methodological approaches to enhance the quality of psychological intervention being context independent solutions Furthermore Chapter 2 presents original work in different areas health education sport and social welfare where methodological quality has been better assessed Collectively the papers in this e book serve to expand the awareness of practitioners and researchers interested in psychological interventions of the critical role of methodological quality in this work This research was funded by the projects 1150096 Chilean National Fund of Scientific and Technological Development FONDECYT and PSI2015 71947 REDT Spain s Ministry of Economy and Competitiveness

Do It Yourself: GCSEs and A-Levels by Distance Learning Matthew J. Kraus, 2018-03-12 Most of us understand the benefits of getting a good education Not only can it open doors to university and better job prospects but can help to broaden an individual s outlook on life For some people however getting the right qualifications can be a real challenge especially if they aren t in mainstream education It s no wonder then that an increasing number of people are turning to distance learning or home education as their preferred way of passing exams This book focuses on GCSEs and A Levels the main school leaving qualifications that are universally recognised in the UK It explains the main features of the qualifications how to study them and how to take the exams involved This book is intended to be used as a guide for prospective students who might want to undertake this form of learning but have some difficulty in working out where to start

and their impact on cosmopolitanism and nationalism Rating Politics Zsófia Barta, Alison Johnston, 2023 This book explores how countries political and policy choices affect the credit ratings that they receive The authors use statistical analysis of ratings interviews with sovereign rating analysts and a close reading of official communications of rating agencies to show that ratings penalize center left governments and policies 'We're trying to do things differently' Freya Aquarone, Laura Nehéz-Posony, Propa Rezwana Anwar, Samira Salam, Eleni Koutsouri, Minkyung Kim, SooYeon Suh, Tope Mayomi, 2020-12-07 Students and staff from KCL s Social Sciences BA programme turn the research lens back on their own world and together explore the many challenges of trying to do things differently in Higher Education In doing so they grapple with fundamental questions in education such as how to meaningfully foreground democracy partnership and emotional care the role and limits of free speech and how to deconstruct enduring inequality and marginalisation In a period of considerable change and challenge for education there is surely no better time to be critically analysing the principles guiding our universities through the lens of real life practice In a period when university arrangements are being rethought in the wake of COVID 19 and the resurgence of Black Lives Matter this compelling text is both timely and forward looking We re trying to do things differently successfully brings together first year undergraduates and lecturers to research analyse and document how students and staff co create meaningful educational experiences The authors offer a nuanced picture of the centrality of relationships and recognition to the degree course It shows how the students foreground love kindness and social justice rather than curriculum and outcomes while being alert to the politics of difference and absence in higher education classrooms The book draws on well worn and innovative writing styles to produce analyses and arguments that are eye opening persuasive and raise difficult questions for future educational practices This book is a must for anyone interested in championing excellence and social justice in higher education Ann Phoenix Professor of Psychosocial Studies UCL Institute of Education This is a book with a difference It is based on critical scholarship and draws on reflexive analysis but and this is the important and unique part it is a book written mainly by university students about how to enact meaningful relationships in the academy It takes as its substantive focus one new undergraduate programme but the agenda is about change social justice and the hard work of real inclusion This book stands as a wake up call to all of us who care deeply about socially just education and democracy in our institutions of higher education It is also a wonderful example of how to write something that really matters Meg Maguire Professor of Sociology of Education King s College London MI2015: The Nevada mineral industry 2015 ,2017-02-10 Validity, Reliability and Efficiency of Comparative Judgement to Assess Student Work Sven De Maeyer, Tine Van Daal, Renske Bouwer, Marije Lesterhuis, Eva Hartell, 2023-01-13 Plate Tectonics, Ophiolites, and Societal Significance of Geology John Wakabayashi, Yildirim Dilek, 2021-09-24 This volume honors Eldridge Moores one of the most accomplished geologists of his generation The volume starts with a summary of Moores achievements along with personal dedications and memories from people who knew him Leading off the volume s 12

chapters of original scientific contributions is Moores last published paper that presents an example of the Historical Contingency concept which suggested that earlier subduction history may result in supra subduction zone geochemical signatures for some magmas formed in non subduction environments Other chapters highlight the societal significance of geology the petrogenesis of ophiolites subduction zone processes orogenic belt evolution and other topics covering the globe and intersecting with Moores interests and influences

Improving Learning Through Assessment Rubrics: Student Awareness of What and How They Learn Gonsalves, Chahna, Pearson, Jayne, 2023-08-14 Assessment by rubrics has emerged as a tool with great potential to guide successful student learning from a competency based approach Rubrics as instruments that make it possible to share the criteria for carrying out learning and assessment tasks with students are excellent roadmaps for student learning largely because they allow students to know what they are expected to do and what they are expected to achieve by carrying out the learning tasks Improving Learning Through Assessment Rubrics Student Awareness of What and How They Learn contributes to the improvement of what is being evaluated by identifying the strengths as well as the weaknesses of the didactic use of rubrics in the assessment of university learning The book also provides a set of theoretical issues methodological elements and practical resources for the assessment of university learning using rubrics Covering topics such as active learning self assessment and teacher identity this reference work is ideal for administrators policymakers researchers scholars academicians practitioners educators and students

Everything for Sale? The Marketisation of UK Higher Education Roger Brown, Helen Carasso, 2013-02-11 The marketisation of higher education is a growing worldwide trend Increasingly market steering is replacing or supplementing government steering Tuition fees are being introduced or increased usually at the expense of state grants to institutions Grants for student support are being replaced or supplemented by loans Commercial rankings and league tables to guide student choice are proliferating with institutions devoting increasing resources to marketing branding and customer service The UK is a particularly good example of this not only because it is a country where marketisation has arguably proceeded furthest but also because of the variations that exist as Scotland Wales and Northern Ireland increasingly diverge from England In Everything for Sale Roger Brown argues that the competitive regime that is now applicable to our Higher Education system was the logical and possibly inevitable outcome of a process that began with the introduction of full cost fees for overseas students in 1980 Through chapters including Markets and Non Markets The Institutional Pattern of Provision The Funding of Research The Funding of Student Education Quality Assurance The Impact of Marketisation Efficiency diversity and equity He shows how the evaluation and funding of research the funding of student education quality assurance and the structure of the system have increasingly been organised on market or quasi market lines As well as helping to explain the evolution of British higher education over the past thirty years the book contains some important messages about the consequences of introducing or extending market competition in universities core activities of teaching and research This timely and comprehensive book is essential reading for all academics at University level and anyone involved in Higher Education policy
