William J Petersen Book:

25 Surprising Marriages William J. Petersen, 1997 This book reveals that the marriages of many Christian leaders were anything but dull In fact the dynamic personalities of great leaders mixed with the difficult circumstances and sacrifices of their vocations made for many surprises along the marital journey Writing in an entertaining narrative style Petersen describes the quiet strength of Polly Newton Emma Moody and Susie Spurgeon long suffering women who helped refine their diamond in the rough husbands He recounts the storybook romance that was William and Mary Bryan s marriage and the mutual admiration society of Billy and Nell Sunday But Petersen also sheds light on unions that were far from blissful including those of authors Hannah Whitall Smith and Grace Livingston Hill Whether the marriages in these pages were solid or shaky they all hold valuable lessons for dealing with universal issues such as financial worries temptation separation and personality differences

Building Godly Nations Stephen K. McDowell, 2004-03 Jesus commissioned believers to make disciples of all nations which according to Bible Commentator Matthew Henry means to do your utmost to make the nations Christian nations How do we make the nations Christian How do we build Godly nations The Bible teaches that if a people obey God s laws they will have liberty peace prosperity and justice But we must obey all of God s laws to experience the abundance of God s blessing To the extent we obey in all areas of life is the extent we will experience the Godly fruit of liberty The Founders of America understood this vital truth and attempted to build the nation upon the precepts of God and though not without fault their efforts produced the best example of a Christian nation in history Thus there are many important lessons we can learn from the American Founders as we seek to build Godly nations today This book examines the mandate for building Godly nations lessons from America s Christian history and how to apply Biblical principles to governing the nations
