Europeanisation and Memory Politics in the Western Balkans Ana Milošević,Tamara Trošt,2020-10-15 This volume explores how the process of European integration has influenced collective memory in the countries of the Western Balkans In the region there is still no shared understanding of the causes and consequences of the Yugoslav wars The conflicts of the 1990s but also of WWII and its aftermath have created ethnically confined memory cultures As such divergent interpretations of history continue to trigger confrontations between neighboring countries and hinder the creation of a joint EU perspective In this volume the authors examine how these memory wars impact the European dimension by becoming a tool to either support or oppose Europeanisation The contributors focus on how and why memory is renegotiated exhibited adjusted or ignored in the Europeanisation process Cities, Nationalism and Democratization Scott A. Design Guidelines in American Cities John Punter,1999-02-01 This book is a study of design initiatives and policies in five US West Coast cities Seattle Portland San Francisco Irvine and San Diego all of which have had particularly interesting experience of relevance to urban design practice in Britain and other countries How Generations Remember Monika Palmberger,2016-12-07 This book is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license This book provides a profound insight into post war Mostar and the memories of three generations of this Bosnian Herzegovinian city Drawing on several years of ethnographic fieldwork it offers a vivid account of how personal and collective memories are utterly intertwined and how memories across the generations are reimagined and rewritten following great socio political change Focusing on both Bosniak dominated East Mostar and Croat dominated West Mostar it demonstrates that even in this ethno nationally divided city with its two divergent national historiographies generation specific experiences are crucial in how people ascribe meaning to past events It argues that the dramatic and often brutal transformations that Bosnia and Herzegovina has witnessed have led to alterations in memory politics not to mention disparities in the life situations faced by the different generations in present day post war Mostar This in turn has created variations in memories along generational lines which affect how individuals narrate and position themselves in relation to the country's history This detailed and engaging work will appeal to students and scholars of anthropology sociology political science history and oral history particularly those with an interest in memory post socialist Europe and conflict studies Urbicide Martin Coward,2008-09-30 Developing the concept of urbicide the deliberate destruction of cities Martin Coward outlines a theoretical understanding of the urban condition at stake in such violence The first comprehensive analysis Coward argues that it is necessary to address the widespread and deliberate destruction of buildings as a distinct form of political violence The Politics of Post-Conflict Heritage Reconstruction Nour A. Munawar,Gertjan Plets,2025-07-14 This edited volume explores the politics and semantics of heritage rehabilitation practices such as conservation archaeological excavation memorialization and rebuilding programs Recent conflicts in the Arab region and Ukraine have demonstrated how heritage is an intrinsic part of contemporary warfare However the politicization of heritage reconstruction after conflict receives less attention While there is consensus on the benefits of reconstruction a growing number of scholars are now exploring the political agendas encoded in reconstruction programs and their long term negative effects on societal recovery Faced with a contemporary heritage reconstruction wave in the Arab region but also in post conflict zones like West Africa and Ukraine it is important we are aware of the politicking encoded in many heritage aid programs Through a series of co authored studies by experts from different disciplines this book aims to identify parameters practices and institutional organizations that either promote or undermine long term societal resilience By combining insights from archaeology anthropology conflict and history this book will explore how heritage reconstructions help to re shape national and ethno religious identities and multi layered memories of affected communities State Succession in Cultural Property Andrzej Jakubowski,2015 Through a historical analysis of state dissolution and succession and its impact on cultural heritage from 1815 to present day this book identifies guiding principles to facilitate the conclusion of agreements on the status of cultural property following the succession of states
