Fatness, Obesity, and Disadvantage in the Australian Suburbs Megan Warin, Tanya Zivkovic, 2019-03-18 This ethnography takes the reader into the Australian suburbs to learn about food eating and bodies during the highly political context of one of Australia's largest childhood obesity interventions While there is ample evidence about the number of people who are overweight or obese and an abundance of information about what and how to eat obesity remains a problem in high income countries such as Australia Rather than rely on common assumptions that people are making all the wrong choices this volume reveals the challenges of eating healthy when money is scarce and how different versions of being fat and doing fat happen in everyday worlds of precarity Without acknowledgement of the multiple realities of fatness and obesity interventions will continue to have limited reach

Culinary Landmarks Elizabeth Driver, 2008-01-01 Culinary Landmarks is a definitive history and bibliography of Canadian cookbooks from the beginning when La cuisinière bourgeoise was published in Quebec City in 1825 to the mid twentieth century Over the course of more than ten years Elizabeth Driver researched every cookbook published within the borders of present day Canada whether a locally authored text or a Canadian edition of a foreign work Every type of recipe collection is included from trade publishers bestsellers and advertising cookbooks to home economics textbooks and fund raisers from church women's groups The entries for over 2 200 individual titles are arranged chronologically by their province or territory of publication revealing cooking and dining customs in each part of the country over 125 years Full bibliographical descriptions of first and subsequent editions are augmented by author biographies and corporate histories of the food producers and kitchen equipment manufacturers who often published the books Driver's excellent general introduction sets out the evolution of the cookbook genre in Canada while brief introductions for each province identify regional differences in developments and trends Four indexes and a Chronology of Canadian Cookbook History provide other points of access to the wealth of material in this impressive reference book

Tablet to Table Vol 1 Issue 4 Barbara Stantich, 2012-12-12 A look at the changing traditions of the Australian Christmas table in comparison to other Christmas experiences from around the world With a feature article from one of Australia's leading food historians Barbara Stantich Includes embedded video demonstrations of Christmas themed cocktails from mixologist Jess Baines knitting patterns from the 1940s courtesy of the Victoria and Albert Museum in London and tips for living the Christmas cliché

'Going Native?' Ronald Ranta, Alejandro Colás, Daniel Monterescu, 2022-07-21 This volume offers a comparative survey of diverse settler colonial experiences in relation to food food culture and foodways how the latter are constructed maintained revolutionised and in some cases dissolved What do settler colonial foodways and food

cultures look like Are they based on an imagined colonial heritage do they embrace indigenous repertoires or invent new hybridised foodscapes What are the socio economic and political dynamics of these cultural transformations In particular this volume focuses on three key issues the evolution of settler colonial identities and states their relations vis vis indigenous populations and settlers self indigenisation the process through which settlers transform themselves into the native population at least in their own eyes These three key issues are crucial in understanding settler indigenous relations and the rise of settler colonial identities and states
