Standards-Based Accountability Under No Child Left Behind Laura S. Hamilton, Brian M. Stecher, Julie A. Marsh, Jennifer Sloan McCombs, Abby Robyn, 2007-05-24 Since 2001 2002 standards based accountability provisions of the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 have shaped the work of public school teachers and administrators in the United States This book sheds light on how accountability policies have been translated into actions at the district school and classroom levels in three states

Robert D. Barr, William H. Parrett, 2011-11-22 Examine critical studies on high performing high poverty schools to identify how schools can fulfill the mission of educating all students to proficiency especially students at risk The authors compiled the most important research on how low performing high poverty schools achieved radical improvements in learning for their most vulnerable students and also identified eight best practices breaking them down into specific strategies often using real life examples from successful schools

Classroom Motivation from A to Z Barbara R. Blackburn, 2013-07-23 This book focuses on basic strategies you can integrate into everyday instruction in every subject area and across grade levels It shows teachers how to motivate and engage students The practical examples in this book make it easy for you to apply these strategies in your own classroom It presents lively stories about how teachers help their students succeed You ll meet teachers of all types from preschool to high school and you ll hear the voices of real students Companion Study Guide Available

The New Politics of the Textbook Heather Hickman, Brad J. Porfilio, 2012-10-29 In an era when corporate and political leaders are using their power to control every aspect of the schooling process in North America there has been surprisingly little research on the impact of textbook content on students The contributors of this volume and its partner The New Politics of the Textbook Problematizing the Portrayal of Marginalized Groups in Textbooks guide educators school administrators academics and other concerned citizens to unpack the political social and cultural influences inherent in the textbooks of core content areas such as math science English and social science They urge readers to reconsider the role textbooks play in the creation of students political social and moral development and in perpetuating asymmetrical social and economic relationships where social actors are bestowed unearned privileges and entitlements based upon their race gender sexuality class religion and linguistic background Finally they suggest ways to resist the hegemony of those texts through critical analyses critical questioning and critical pedagogies
