Post-apartheid Teacher Education Reform in Namibia Lars Dahlström, 2002 This thesis is about teacher education reform It is a narrative of attempted change in the area of teacher education in post apartheid Namibia The Transformation of Teacher Education in Namibia Patricia Sophy Swarts, 2003 Annex (ii) Namibia. Presidential Commission on Education, Culture and Training, 2001 Forefronts in Research Kagendo Mutua, Cynthia S Sunal, 2005-06-01 Research in Education in Africa The Caribbean and The Middle East the Book Series provides a comprehensive view of current and emerging educational knowledge research strategies and policy in these regions Submissions from all disciplines as well interdisciplinary perspectives are welcome if manuscripts conform to basic book series goals The Series goals are 1 Provide a forum for the dissemination of research on education in the region 2 Disseminate ideas that enhance both the practical and theoretical aspects of education in the region 3 Further knowledge and understanding of emerging trends and movements in education in the region and 4 Foster debate about issues such as indigenizing education women s education or disability education in the region Whose Education For All? Birgit Brock-Utne, 2002-06 This book examines the new donor concept education for all which was coined at a World Bank initiated conference in 1990 in Jomtien Thailand The author uses her experience to examine what is going on in the education sector Perspectives on Teacher Education and Transformation in Namibia Lars Dahlström, 2000 Global Constructions of Multicultural Education Carl A. Grant, Joy L. Lei, 2001-06 This book tells us how various global regions are dealing with three major concerns within the field of multicultural education the conceptualization and realization of difference and diversity the inclusion and exclusion of social groups within a definition of multicultural education and the effects of power on relations between and among groups identified under the multicultural education umbrella All of the chapter authors pay attention to these themes but at the same time they bring their particular interests and perspectives to the book addressing issues such as linguistic racial ethnic and religious diversity class educational inequalities teacher education conceptualizations of citizenship and questions of identity construction In addition the authors offer both historical and social contexts for their analytical discussion of the ideals and practices of multicultural education in a particular region This is not a book that tells us about multicultural education with an international twist it provides readers with different ways to think talk and do research about issues of diversity difference and the effects of power as they relate to education Regional Development Plan: Otjozondjupa Region , 2000 Namibia National Bibliography , 1990 Sites of Contestation Julia Rensing, Lorena Rizzo, Wanda Rutishauser , 2021-06-08 This book is a collection of essays written by emerging scholars at the University of Basel on the basis of their subjective encounters with a specific archival collection housed in the Basler Afrika Bibliographien in Basel The Ernst and Ruth Dammann collection consists of around 8100 images 750 audio recordings and numerous manuscripts diaries and notes The German couple conducted research on Namibian oral literatures and languages as they were spoken and performed across the country in the early 1950s Based on in depth engagement with the textual visual and audio records assembled in this intricate collection the authors of this book critically interrogated the implications of opening a colonial archive exploring alternative ways of reading and understanding the historical material As unique examples of close reading and listening the essays propose creative ways of attending to the politics of race gender famine ethnography biography and fiction in colonial knowledge production Regional Development Plan, 2001/2002-2005/2006: Omusati Region, 2000 Contemporary Namibia Ingolf Diener, Olivier Graefe, 2001 The book is about the struggle against the apartheid which gained immense worldwide support ensued from a social order that was classified as a crime against humanity Tapestries of Teaching Practices Julie Carlene Luecke, 2004 Historical Dictionary of Namibia Victor L. Tonchi, William A. Lindeke, John J. Grotper, 2012-08-31 On March 21 1990 Sam Nujoma was sworn in as the first president of independent Namibia This ceremony marked the end of a struggle that lasted more than two decades and a period of colonialism that lasted more than a century Finally after decades long wars over grazing in the 19th century genocidal colonial suppression by Germany at the beginning of the 20th century repressive apartheid racialism throughout the 20th century and a prolonged armed liberation struggle Namibians had the chance to choose their own leaders develop a democratic political process in a free society and to bring economic development and greater equity to their country The Historical Dictionary of Namibia covers the history of Namibia through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has several hundred cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Namibia Training ILO Employment Advisory and Training Policy Mission, 1991 The Contemporary, 1965 Khoisan Languages and Linguistics Sonja Ermisch, 2008 Learner Centred Teaching : Philosophical, Historical, and Psychological Foundation Dr. Rajendra Kumar Shah, Learner centered teaching is the main topic of interest and discussion among educators teachers professor and parents around the world Learner centered teaching is related to the curriculum at all levels of schools colleges and universities Therefore it is very important for all teachers parents curriculum experts etc to have knowledge about this concept But no one seems to have prepared a book about learner centered teaching in a simple language that everyone can understand Academicians such as Rousseau Froebel and Pestalozzi studied this concept in depth and made important contributions to broaden this concept In the same way in the 20th century many educationists gave great importance to learner centered teaching and researched it Educationists such as Dewey Kilpatrick Montessori Parkar played an important role in the development of progressive education His concept of democratic education is the basis for the development of learner centered teaching Similarly psychologists of different periods developed the concept of learner centered teaching Thus in today s world learner centered teaching has become a subject of interest and study for everyone The concept of learner centered teaching which has become the subject of everyone's interest and interest has been incorporated in this book that everyone can understand. In this book, the definition and concept of learner-centered teaching has been presented with great effort. On the other hand, the major philosophical, historical, and psychological foundations of learner-centered teaching have also been presented. Therefore, this book is believed to be able to fulfill many questions of the readers regarding the concept of learner-centered teaching.

Not So Plain as Black and White Patricia M. Mazón, Reinhild Steingröver, 2005. After World War II, brown babies were born to African American GIs stationed in Germany and German mothers. Today, there are 500,000 Afro-Germans in Germany out of a population of 80 million. Nevertheless, German society still sees them as foreigners, assuming they are either African or African American but never German. As editors Patricia Mazon and Reinhild Steingrover argue, the experience of Afro-Germans provides insight into contemporary Germany's transformation, willing or not, into a multicultural society. Furthermore, looking at Afro-Germans allows us to see another dimension of the ideas of race that shaped the twentieth century and led to the Holocaust.

Housing in African Cities Margot Rubin, Sarah Charlton, Neil Klug, 2023-11-27. This edited collection from across the African continent offers a diverse set of analytical accounts that engage with the urban governance dynamics, drivers, and impacts of a wide variety of housing initiatives. These include insights into the relationships between parties and actors undertaking developments or whose housing activities impact on the city. The book illustrates issues of power distribution, the visions or agendas motivating these actions, and the instruments used to advance them. It considers the rise of mega housing projects, private sector-driven residential developments, unobtrusive transformations of existing building stock, establishment and upgrading of informal settlements, and state-driven low-cost housing schemes. It surfaces the contestation, collaborations, and conflicts, as well as the power relations that operate within cities and which are made visible on cityscapes. Housing and human settlement scholars, as well as those interested in urban politics and governance dynamics in the global south and across the African continent, will find much to appreciate in this volume.
