Making Heritage in Malaysia Sharmani Patricia Gabriel, 2020-02-26 This book offers a scholarly perspective on heritage as a discourse concept and lived experience in Malaysia It argues that heritage is not a received narrative but a construct in the making Starting with alternative ways of museumising heritage the book then addresses a broad range of issues involving multicultural and folklore heritage the small town nostalgia and the environment and transnationalism and cosmopolitanism In so doing it delivers an intervention in received ways of talking about and doing heritage in academic as well as state and public discourse in Malaysia which are largely dominated by perspectives that do not sufficiently engage with the cultural complexities and sociopolitical implications of heritage The book also critically explores the politics and dynamics of heritage production in Malaysia to contest Malaysian heritage as a stable narrative exploring both its cogency and contingency and builds on a deep engagement with a non western society in the service of provincialising critical heritage studies with the broader goal of contributing to Malaysian studies
