Good Housekeeping Magazine, 2006 Food Discourse of Celebrity Chefs of Food Network Kelsi Matwick, Keri Matwick, 2019-12-02 Food Discourse explores a fascinating yet virtually unexplored research area: the language of food used on television cooking shows. It shows how the discourse of television cooking shows on the American television channel Food Network conveys a pseudo-relationship between the celebrity chef host and viewers. Excerpts are drawn from a variety of cooking show genres: how-to, travel, reality, talk, competition, providing the data for this qualitative investigation. Richly interdisciplinary, the study draws upon discourse analysis, narrative, social semiotics, and media communication in order to analyze four key linguistic features: recipe telling, storytelling, evaluations, and humor in connection with the themes of performance, authenticity, and expertise. Essential components in the making of celebrity chefs. Given its scope, the book will be of interest to scholars of linguistics, media communication, and American popular culture. Further, in light of the international reach and influence of American television and celebrity chefs, it has a global appeal. Dinner with Dad Cameron Stracher, 2007 A humorous, warm-hearted, and keenly observed personal and social narrative of a harried working father's attempt to make dinner with his family five nights a week for a year.
