The Food Pusher's Cookbook Rick Melfi,2011-06 It wasn t until I was a student at the Culinary Institute of America in the late 1970s that I first realized that growing up as a first generation Italian American family in the Bronx and New Jersey wasn t as typical as I had thought My parents and their parents were all born and raised in Italy Throughout my youth and beyond my father and mother referred to their five children four boys and a girl by the number in the order of which we were born To this day my mother still occasionally refers to me as Number Two Son But when it came to hanging around the kitchen I was definitely the number one pest I was the little punk kid always by my mother s side as she was cooking or baking I would jockey for position wherever my mother moved stand on a kitchen chair up against the stove and otherwise constantly be in her way as I tried to get a better look at whatever was being done Same when either of the grandmothers Nona Lisa or Grandma Melfi or other relatives were there Maybe it was something in the water around Pisa but I suspect it s a genetic condition For my mother her mother cousins aunts and countless generations before them in this food fueled blood line the world revolved around the kitchen and dining room table Life was not good unless family friends or anyone close to the dinner table was fed to excess ritually seduced with course after course of delicious abundant and temptingly presented food This attitude seemed to pervade all branches of the family but my inspiration and mentor was Maria Gracia Melfi aka Mama Melfi aka The Food Pusher

Cooking for Hundreds at a Time: Tasty, Tested, and Easyto-Do Recipes for Your Next Big Catered Event

Michael T. Curley,2001     Barry 's Recipe Book Barry Harvey,2012-10 One thing which is very important and that is the spice it is very important knowing what spices go with which meat or fish or vegetables Always start off with a little as you can always adjust the seasoning later this goes to using salt and pepper After all these years I am constantly learning Last year I was in Egypt on a cruise We did get off the ship and we went to Cairo and saw the pyramids and the Sphinx Yes we saw other things but in Safaga we went shopping Yes as you can guess I aimed for the spice shop I enjoyed haggling and bought real Saffron not like the cheap stuff this was the Red Iranian which in the UK is like gold and very expensive I also bought mixed spice and sumac I have since learned that this spice goes well with fish and chicken For a very quick meal why not make some Koftas using 1 tsp of Sumac 1 tsp of mint 1 tsp of finely chopped Rosemary salt pepper and 1 tsp of cumin 1 tsp of fresh coriander chopped and if you want a little heat add 1 tsp of dried chilli and mix well Take a little lamb mince and add all the spices then fry a little bit to check the seasoning Adjust to your taste and not what the recipe books say Everyone has different tastes then use some fresh crushed garlic about 2 cloves 1 tsp of fresh chopped mint and 1 tsp chopped coriander and parsley and mix well Leave to rest in the fridge Make some flat breads and enjoy     Recipes from International
