Maeroff,2010-11-14 School boards spend almost 500 billion in taxpayer provided funds they employ more than 6 million people offering pensions and lifetime health benefits that have helped build the obligation that has put state governments in fiscal peril This book lifts the veil of obscurity from school boards and makes readers think about the issues Physical Fitness Workbook : Fit for Democracy -- Fit to Fight Thomas Kirk Cureton,1942 The New

Politics of the Textbook Heather Hickman, Brad J. Porfilio, 2012-10-29 In an era when corporate and political leaders are using their power to control every aspect of the schooling process in North America there has been surprisingly little research on the impact of textbook content on students The contributors of this volume and its partner The New Politics of the Textbook Problematizing the Portrayal of Marginalized Groups in Textbooks guide educators school administrators academics and other concerned citizens to unpack the political social and cultural influences inherent in the textbooks of core content areas such as math science English and social science They urge readers to reconsider the role textbooks play in the creation of students political social and moral development and in perpetuating asymmetrical social and economic relationships where social actors are bestowed unearned privileges and entitlements based upon their race gender sexuality class religion and linguistic background Finally they suggest ways to resist the hegemony of those texts through critical analyses critical questioning and critical pedagogies

Constructing Modern Asian Citizenship Edward Vickers, Krishna Kumar, 2014-12-05 In many non Western contexts modernization has tended to be equated with Westernization and hence with an abandonment of authentic indigenous identities and values This is evident in the recent history of many Asian societies where efforts to modernize spurred on by the spectre of foreign domination have often been accompanied by determined attempts to stamp national variants of modernity with the brand of local authenticity Asian values Chinese characteristics a Japanese cultural essence and so forth Highlighting or exaggerating associations between the more unsettling consequences of modernization and alien influence has thus formed part of a strategy whereby elites in many Asian societies have sought to construct new forms of legitimacy for old patterns of dominance over the masses The apparatus of modern systems of mass education often inherited from colonial rulers has been just one instrument in such campaigns of state legitimation This book presents analyses of a range of contemporary projects of citizenship formation across Asia in order to identify those issues and concerns most central to Asian debates over the construction of modern identities Its main focus is on schooling but also examines other vehicles for citizenship formation such as museums and the internet the role of religion in particular Islam in debates over citizenship and identity in certain Asian societies and the relationship between state centred identity discourses and the experience of increasingly globalized elites With chapters from an international team of contributors this interdisciplinary volume will appeal to students and scholars of Asian culture and society Asian education comparative education and citizenship

Discourses of Globalisation, and the Politics of History School Textbooks Joseph Zajda, 2022-08-19 This book focuses on discourses of the politics of history education and history textbooks It offers a new insight into understanding of the nexus between ideology the state and nation building as depicted in history education and school textbooks It especially focuses on the interpretation of social and political change significant events looking for possible biases and omissions leadership and the contribution of key individuals and continuities The book discusses various aspects of historical narratives and some selected key events in defining identity and nation building It considers the role of historiography in dominant historical narratives It analyses history education in both local and global settings and its significance in promoting values education and intercultural and global understanding It is argued that historical narratives add pedagogies grounded in constructivist metacognitive and transformational paradigms have the power to engage the learner in significant and meaningful learning experiences informed by multiple discourses of our historical narratives and those of other nations

Student Voice Karyn Cooper, Sardar M. Anwaruddin, 2016-02-10 Student Voice A Companion to Democracy and Its Discontents serves two primary purposes First as the title of the volume suggests it serves as a companion text to Democracy and Its Discontents Critical Literacy across Global Contexts Sense Publishers 2015 Second the volume features critical dialogues between emerging and established scholars in the field of critical literacy education broadly defined It brings together a collection of essays that speak to the possibilities of taking a critical approach to language and literacy education The contributing authors draw on their life stories and professional experiences to make a strong case for taking a critical approach to education They demonstrate that the act of teaching always involves a grappling with the entanglement of social cultural and political forces In this sense education is always a normative and ethical enterprise The authors featured in this book will encourage readers to re imagine critical education and its emancipatory potential in an age of neo conservative and corporate assaults on education This volume written in a lucid and accessible manner will appeal to a broad readership interested in education It will be an informative and engaging text in graduate and undergraduate courses on language and literacy education teacher education education policy studies and curriculum studies In service teachers teacher educators and school administrators will also find it to be a valuable resource Karyn Cooper is an Associate Professor and Sardar M Anwaruddin is a PhD candidate in the Department of Curriculum Teaching and Learning at the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education OISE of the University of Toronto

Re-Membering History in Student and Teacher Learning Joyce E. King, Ellen E. Swartz, 2014-03-05 What kind of social studies knowledge can stimulate a critical and ethical dialog with the past and present Re Membering History in Student and Teacher Learning answers this question by explaining and illustrating a process of historical recovery that merges Afrocentric theory and principles of culturally informed curricular practice to reconnect multiple knowledge bases and experiences In the case studies presented K 12 practitioners teacher educators preservice teachers and parents use this praxis to produce and then study the use of democratized student texts they step outside of reproducing standard school experiences to engage in conscious inquiry about their shared present as a continuance of a shared past This volume exemplifies not only why instructional materials including most so called multicultural materials obstruct democratized knowledge but also takes the next step to construct and then study how re membered student texts can be used Case study findings reveal improved student outcomes enhanced relationships between teachers and families and teachers and students and a closer connection for children and adults to their heritage We Don't Need Another Hero Gregory Michie, 2012-10-19 In his latest book bestselling author Gregory Michie critiques high stakes schooling and provides a powerful alternative vision of teaching as a humanistic enterprise students as multidimensional beings and schools as spaces where young people can imagine and become not just achieve Drawing on his experiences over the past two decades as a classroom teacher community volunteer researcher and teacher educator in Chicago's public schools Michie offers compelling accounts of teaching and learning in urban America Mindful of the complex realities educators face he portrays urban schools as they really are sites of struggle hope and possibility At a time when others relentlessly trumpet a competitive data driven corporatized notion of education the essays in We Don't Need Another Hero challenge the dominant images of failing urban schools and bad teachers Like Michie's now classic Holler If You Hear Me this book gives much needed hope to new and seasoned teachers alike It is also an important resource for school administrators policymakers parents and anyone who wants to better understand what is really happening in American Schools Democracy & Education, 2006
