4. Deduction

As Per N/H 29/2012, the taxable service of renting of an immovable property, from so much of the service tax leviable thereon under section 66B of the said Finance Act, as is in excess of the service tax calculated on a value which is equivalent to the gross amount charged for renting of such immovable property less taxes on such property, namely property tax levied and collected by local bodies.

Provided that any amount such as interest, penalty paid to the local authority by the service provider on account of delayed payment of property tax or any other reasons shall not be treated as property tax for the purposes of deduction from the gross amount charged.

Provided further that whenever the period for which property tax paid is different from the period for which service tax is paid or payable, property tax proportionate to the period for which service tax is paid or payable shall be calculated and the amount so calculated shall be excluded from the gross amount charged for renting of the immovable property for the said period, for the purposes of levy of service tax.

Analysis

VALUE OF TAXABLE SERVICE= Gross Amount - PROPERTY TAXES( On Proportionate Basis)

NOTE- INT AND PENALTY NOT DEDUCTIBLE

Example:-

Property tax paid for April to September = Rs. 12,000/-

Rent received for April = Rs. 1,00,000/-

Service tax payable for April = Rs. 98,000/-  $(1,00,000 - 12,000/6) \times$  applicable rate of service tax

Congress. House. Committee on Ways and Means,2014 Budget and Economic Outlook: Fiscal Years 2010-2021 ,2011-02-17 The United States faces daunting economic and budgetary challenges The economy has struggled to recover from the recent recession which was triggered by a large decline in house prices and a financial crisis events unlike anything this country has seen since the Great Depression During the recovery the pace of growth in the nation s output has been anemic compared with that during most other recoveries since World War II and the unemployment rate has remained quite high For the federal government the sharply lower revenues and elevated spending deriving from the financial turmoil and severe drop in economic activity combined with the costs of various policies implemented in response to those conditions and an imbalance between revenues and spending that predated the recession have caused budget deficits to surge in the past two years. The deficits of 1.4 trillion in 2009 and 1.3 trillion in 2010 are when measured as a share of gross domestic product (GDP), the largest since 1945, representing 10.0 percent and 8.9 percent of the nation's output respectively. For 2011, the Congressional Budget Office (CBO) projects that if current laws remain unchanged, the federal budget will show a deficit of close to 1.5 trillion or 9.8 percent of GDP. The deficits in CBO's baseline projections drop markedly over the next few years as a share of output and average 3.1 percent of GDP from 2014 to 2021. Those projections, however, are based on the assumption that tax and spending policies unfold as specified in current law. Consequently, they understate the budget deficits that would occur if many policies currently in place were continued rather than allowed to expire as scheduled under current law.

OECD Economic Surveys: Ireland 2020 OECD, 2020-02-13. The Irish economy has continued to expand strongly, consolidating its post-crisis recovery. Nonetheless, uncertainty remains elevated and legacies of the financial crisis continue to threaten economic resilience. Fiscal prudence is required given rising fiscal costs from ageing, emerging capacity constraints, and international tax policy changes that could weaken tax receipts.

Budgeting for Local Governments and Communities Douglas Morgan, Kent S. Robinson, Dennis Strachota, James A. Hough, 2017-09-19. Budgeting for Local Governments and Communities is designed as the primary textbook for a quarter or semester-long course in public budgeting and finance in an MPA programme. Many currently available texts for this course suffer from a combination of defects that include a focus on federal and state budgeting, a lack of a theoretical governance framework, an omission of important topics, and typically a lack of exercises and datasets for student use. Budgeting for Local Governments and Communities solves all of these problems. The book is exceptionally comprehensive and well-written and represents the efforts of veteran authors with both teaching and real-world experience.

Key Features: Special Focus on Local Government Budgeting focuses exclusively on budgeting at the local levels of American government, which are responsible for spending 40 percent of the taxes collected from citizens. Integration of Theory and Practice: teaching cases and chapters capture the lessons learned by professional practitioners who have extensive experience in making local public budgeting work on the ground. Polity Approach to Local Budgeting presents an introduction to local budgeting as the central political activity that integrates the resources of the community into a unified whole. Budgeting is presented as governance work rather than as a unique set of skills possessed by analysts and financial specialists. Legal, Historical, Economic, and Moral Foundations of Local Government Budgeting provides readers with an understanding of how the structures and processes of local budgeting systems are firmly tethered to the underlying core values, legal principles, and historical development of the larger American federal, state, and local political systems. Electronic Datasets and Budgeting Exercises: the text includes access to extensive electronic datasets and practice exercises that provide abundant opportunities for students to learn through doing. Extensive Glossary and Bibliography covers terms on the history and practice of local public budgeting.
